BALLOONING EXTRAORDINARY.-Each succeeding steamer brings accounts of the foolhardy feats of an aronaut who makes weekly ascents from the Hippodrome, in Paris. This adventurer has made ascents seated upon a pony, a dunkey, and an ostrich, and his wife has also made an ascent on a pony. At the last ascent of M. Poitevin, of which we have an account, his balloon carried, besides the æronaut, three young women, who were suspended from the car. They had wings affixed to their shoulders, and appeared as if flying in the air. Their ascent was hailed with shouts by the immense concourse of persons assembled, but a feeling of terror seemed to predominate at seeing the women suspended in mid-air, without any thing apparent to support them. After being about an hour in the air, they alighted in safety on a plain near Villejuif.

Census of Washington .- The census just 12ken, makes the total population of Washington 40.072, of which 29,999 are white, 7,963 free blacks, and 2,110 slaves.
