LOSS OF THE AUTOCRAT.

A Terriffic Scene .-- A passenger who was on board of the Autocrat at the time of the collision with the Magnolia, 100 miles from New Orleans, has given the Louisville Courier a brief description of the scene. The collision was at day-break--weather clear, and the whole wide Mississippi for a channel. All the deck passengers, thirty in number, one engineer, and three cabin passengers, were lost. No names given. There were eight ladies, all of whom were saved. The Autocrat sunk in five minutes in deep water.

A Mr. Ferguson, we do not know his place of residence, but understand his father is landlord of the Gayosa House, Memphis, snatched his child from the arms of his wife, and ran to the forecastle, leaving the mother, in the wildness of his alarm, in the ladies cabin.

He stood by us a moment, and made such appeals to save himself and child, I trust in God I never may have occasion to hear again. We got him somewhat calm and quiet; and for which he stopped to thank us; but the next moment the cry "we are lost" was heard, and indeed it was cruelly true with them, for he attempted to leap to the Magnolia, and fell with his child into the pitiless element to rise no more. His wife was saved, and as she stood on the shattered wreck watching with the wildest eagerness for the husband and child, she saw a man struggling in the water whom she supposed to be him.

By maniae yells and distracted appeals, she induced attention to the drowning man, and by power almost superhuman, he was rescued, and when he reached the boat, the lady fell round him with her arms, and blessed God for the salvation of her husband .--Poor, hapless, widowed woman! she awoke from a sad and cruel dream clinging with frenzied tenacity to the neck of him who was another's.

scenes when the gentleman thus saved remarked that he almost wished indeed it had been her protector instead o." himself.

6 A great cathedral is projected by the Roman Catholics, in Washington city. It is estimated to cost $1,000,000, and is to be paid for by contribution from all the Catholics in the Union, and by donations from Europe .-A lot of ground, three hundred f.et square, has been secured for it.

HASTY LEGISLATION .- The hasty and precipitate manner in which business is often the closing periods of a session, renders it a matter of wonder that absurdities, such as the annexed paragraph relates to, do not more frequently occur. It is reported of a king who was in the habit of signing papers carelessly and without reading them, that he once signed a document decreeing his own deposition. It would be well that legislators who enact laws without knowing what they are voting for, should by such foolish inattention to duty consign themselves to private life:

NEGROES IN IOWA-A Good Joke.-An incorrigible wag has succeeded admirably in perpetrating a capital joke upon the Iowa Legislature. In passing upon the bill prohibiting negroes from entering that State, and affixing heavy penalties upon them when they do enter it, J. T. Morton, of Henry, who is both a whig and a wag, moved an additional section, " that the bill should be in force from and after its publication in the Iowa Free Demo. crat," the Abolition paper at Mount Pleasant-The bill went back to the House so amended. The amendment was accepted by the House, and the bill passed. After while the idea began to eke through the hair of a member that the abolition organ might decline publishing the law, and thereby kill it stone dead, and he moved a re-consideration, but failed, and the bill was left to be sent to the Governor in that crafty shape.

A MAMMOTH CORPORATION. - The Delaware and Hudson Canal Company have 550 boats of 125 tons each. The number of men employed compose an army of 5,500 men, arranged in platoons of miners, engineers, mechanics, boatmen, lock-tenders, drivers,&c. This does not include their banking operations in Wall street.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDES.

Rochester, March 15,-Charles McVean, a son of David McVean Esq., committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart on Thursday evening. He was a young man of highly respectable and wealthy connexions, had just returned from Michigan, and was spending the evening at an uncle's with his wife, when suddenly he arose, kissed his wife, and drew a pistol and shot himself in the presence of all in the room. The moment his wife saw what he had done, she took a bottle of chloroform and drank it, and is now in a very dangerous state. The cause of this rash act is said to have ben in consequence of some difficulty between the father and son in relation to the division of some property. Much sympathy is manifested for the family. A man named John Marett, a resident of Pittsburg cut his throat on Thursday, with a razor, which put an end to his life. He left his dwelling early, with the purpose, as was supposed of working on his place.-He was not again seen till 8 o'clock when his body was found about 20 rods from his house, stiff, with his throat cut and stark in death. Nothing unusual had been noticed in his manner except, perhaps, a growing gloom and fears of coming to want. He was a native of her arms, screamed hysterically, and fainted England, and about 23 years of age.

GREAT FIRE IN CARLISLE.

The most extensive and destructive fire which has ever occurred in our borough, took place this morning between the hours of 12 and I o'clock. It orginated in the stable attached to Scott's Hotel, and notwithstanding the utmost exertions of the citizens, it spread with frightful and terrible rapidity—the wind blowing fresh from the northwest.

It soon spread to the adjacent buildings, and in the course of a few hours no less than fourteen dwelling houses, twenty two stables and warehouses, and one church (the Lutheran) were entirely consumed.

Several horses and cows perished in the

The loss is estimated at $50,000, only about $8,000 being covered by insurance. The fire was got under at 4 o'clock this morning. No lives were lost, but several persons were seriously injured. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Kossuth.-The shores of the Mediterranean will re-echo the shouts of Freedom, when it is announced that Kossuth, the Hungarian hero, will in all probability be carried from his asylum in Turkey to the United States, there to take rank among a people who have enrolled his name among their fondest recollections, and who hold up to their children the example furnished in his model character and sublime patriotism. It is not yet certain whether the Sultan will agree to the offer of the United States. A former offer made when Gen. Taylor was President, was declined, owing, so Mr. Brown, our late Consul to Constantinople, believes, to the opposition of the Austrian minister, resident in that city. It is to be hoped, however, that the Sultan will have no objection to the present proposal; especially now that the time for the confinement of Kossuth and his companions, as limited by himself, will expire in May. It he should do so, the world will be impressed by the simple grandeur of these patriotic hospitalities.

Favoring gales and resistless steam will carry on the brave vessel that bears this precious freight; and when the heroic Magyar warrior reaches our shores, THE PEOPLE will receive him with open arms as their guest and their brother. TERIBLE TRAGEDY IN PAULDING,

NEW ORLEANS, March 9 .- A negro in Paulding. Miss., violated the person of a white lady, and afterwards murdered her and her son. The citizens turned out en masse, and burned the negro alive.

DON'T GRUMBLE .- He is a fool that grumbles at every little mischance. Put the best foot forward is an old and good maxim.-Don't run about and tell acquaintances that you have been unfortunate; people do not dispatched in legislative assemblies, towards like to have unfortunate men for acquaintances. Add to a vigorous determination a cheerful spirit; if reverses come, bear them like a philosopher, and get rid of them as IRON & BRASS FOUNDRY soon as you can. Poverty is like a panther,

Col. Burr, who was aid to Putnam, discovered the stratagem. She fell a victim, it is said, to his arts, and afterwards became the mistress of several distinguished officers, and died many years after the peace in England, poor and neglected. Her father died in New York, in 1791.

Another Attack on the Gamblers.

Boston, March 14. - Marshal Tukey made another descent upon William Mead's Gambling House, in Sudbury street, last night, and captured twenty-six persons, among them a State street broker. They were fined $8 and costs. Two appealed.

JENNY LIND IN NATCHEZ.

NATCHEZ, March 12 .- Jenny Lind gave a grand concert in the Methodist Church last night. A more select and fashionable audience were never before assembled together in this city. The receipts amounted to $6,600. The fair Sweede gave away $1.000 for charitable purpose. She left for St. Louis this morning, amidst the greatest enthusiasm.
