HON. JOHN P. HALE, the famous free soil Senator from New Hampshire, is not only a rare statesman, in the highest acceptation of the term, but he is also, as Yorick phrases it, "a fellow of infinite jest." He never raps an adversary over the head with a bludgeon, but, in a twinkling, runs him through with a shining rapier, so skillfully wielded that the victim has to admire the dexterous handling of the instrument. Immediately after the adjournment of Congress, Mr. Hale made a visit to Richmond, to observe for himself the effects of the "peculiar institution" in and around the capital of the Old Dominion. His arrival created quite an excitement among "the chivalry," and at last one, more forward than the rest, determined to let him know that he would consult his personal safety by hurrying his departure. The Southerner, (so says the Richmond Whig) met Mr. Hale at the hotel, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Good morning, sir! Fine weather."
 "The same to you, sir! The weather is, indeed, fine."
 "Allow me to ask, sir, if your name is Hale?"
 "It is, sir, at your service."
 "John P. Hale, sir?"
 "Yes, sir, precisely."
 "Are you from New Hampshire, sir?"
 "Yes, sir, that is my State."
 "Are you Senator Hale of New Hampshire, sir?"
 "I am, sir, just that individual."
 "Well, sir, did it not occur to you that this was no safe place for you?"
 "Why, really, sir, it did not. I saw that it was safe for your Senators, Mason and Hunter, who have been voting with me all the session on the Compromise Bill; as did, indeed, all the rest of your Democratic delegation, except one. If you don't mob them why should you mob me?"

Highly Important from the Mexican Boundary Commission—Dreadful Murders—Ten of the Murderers Hung!

NEW ORLEANS, March 27, 1851.
 Major Bartlett, of the Boundary Commission, arrived here from Texas yesterday. He left the Commission to excellent health and spirits at El Paso. All the difficulties with the Mexican Commissioners had been satisfactorily arranged.

Maj. B. reports some horrible bloodshed and murder at Laco Bion, a frontier town. A band of ruffians had infested the town, and the outrages they committed being so flagrant a character, the Boundary Commission raised a force of Americans, who went in pursuit of the murderers.

They succeeded in arresting eight or ten of the gang, who made considerable resistance. The murderers were tried and condemned in a short time. After their condemnation, they were immediately hung!

Among the victims of the assassins' knife was Mr. Clark, a son of Hon. S. W. Clark, U. S. Senator from Rhode Island.

POSITION OF VIRGINIA.—The resolutions of the Virginia Legislature, in reference to the great measures of the last Congress, sufficiently "define her position" to show that she has no sympathy with Secession, and that she is resolved to abide by the adjustments of the last Congress.

SCRANTONIA.

A Correspondent of the Fittston Gazette, under date of March 4th, says:
 As most if not all the readers of the Gazette, are aware, a R. Road, starting at this point and intersecting the York and Erie Road at the Great Bend, near Binghamton, is in course of construction and will be opened for transportation on or before the fourth of July next. In connection with this Road, large commodious workshops are being erected near its terminus in this place, the largest of which when completed will be 350 feet in length by 200 in width, sufficiently large to admit the employment of from 4 to 600 mechanics. These shops are intended for the constructing and repairing of Locomotives, cars, and the general equipage of the road. This department is under the superintendence of D. H. Dotterer, Esq. formerly of Reading, who is not only a master mechanic, but a perfect gentleman in the true sense of the word, and is fast winning the hearts of all around him. I congratulate the company upon their good fortune in securing the services of so eminent a mechanic.
 In close proximity to the Depot, a Hotel of extensive dimensions, to contain two hundred rooms, is to be erected the coming season, at an expense of twenty thousand dollars. The funds have been secured by selling stock for the required amount.
 A large Church edifice (Presbyterian) is in course of being erected and will be completed in a few months. It will be a fine specimen of architecture, being exclusively in the gothic style and reflects great credit upon the master builder, Mr. Daniel Silkman, Esq. The estimated cost is twelve thousand dollars.

THE FUTURE WIVES OF ENGLAND.—Mrs. Ellis, in her "Lectures" addressed to "Young Ladies," says—
 "My pretty little dears—You are no more fit for matrimony than a pullet is to look after a family of fourteen chickens. The truth is, my dear girls, you want, generally speaking, more liberty and less fashionable restraint, more kitchen and less parlor, more leg exercise and less sofa, more making pudding and less piano, more frankness and less modesty, more breakfast and less bustle. I like the buxom, bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked, full-breasted, bouncing lass, who can darn stockings, make her own frocks, mend trousers, command a whole regiment of pots and kettles, milk the cows, feed the pigs, chop wood, and shoot a wild duck, as well as the Dutchess of Marlborough or the Queen of Spain; and be a lady withal in the drawing room. But as for your pining, moping, screwed up, wasp-waisted, putty-faced, music murdering, novel-devouring daughters of idleness and fashion, with your consumption-soled shoes, silk stockings, and calico shifts, you won't do for the future wives and mothers of England."

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

The DAILY TRIBUNE is issued every morning except Sunday on a large sheet of fine white paper, forming eight pages of six columns each, or about the size of two average Country Newspapers. About six of these pages are new every morning; the aggregate of Editorials, News and Miscellanies being greater than that of any other paper in America, and greater than any but one or two in Europe, though its price is but half that of other first-class Dailies in this Country and less than one-fourth the cost of similar journals in England. Two Evening Editions are issued to supply each subscriber with the latest news up to the hour when his copy must be mailed.
 The Tribune is edited in chief by Horace Greeley, who has special charge of all matters pertaining to the Politics and Legislation of our own Country. Its Foreign (Old-World) department is in charge of Charles A. Dana, assisted by able correspondents in London, Paris, Constantinople, &c. &c. Its California intelligence and its City department are in charge of Bayard Taylor, assisted by an efficient corps of Reporters. No expense is or will be spared to render its news from all quarters, by Telegraph, Expresses, Steamships and Mails, as early and reliable as that of any other paper.
 The Semi-Weekly Tribune contains nearly all the non-advertising matter of the Daily, except such as is of local interest, or has been superseded by fuller and more exact advices before the Semi-Weekly is issued. It is of the same size with the Daily, and has few advertisements.
 The Weekly Tribune is issued every Thursday morning, and contains most of the matter of the Daily with more summary accounts of such Events and Proceedings as cannot be published in full. We mean that no Weekly shall surpass this in giving a full graphic and faithful account of what the world is doing, whereof it is Thinking, and how it is Progressing.
 The Tribune is not quite ten years old, and has obtained an aggregate circulation of not far from sixty-five thousand copies—about two thirds of them on its Weekly. Every subscription is paid in advance, and the paper stops when the advance pay runs out, so that no man need hesitate to subscribe from an apprehension of being defrauded for arrears, perhaps after he has left the place to which the paper is sent, in ignorance that it is continued. Subscriptions from individuals and clubs are respectfully solicited by
 GREELEY & M'ELRATH,
