

From the Wilkes-Barre Advocate.

Contested Election.

Last week some further testimony, in this matter, was taken before JUDGE SLOCUM. The result of that day's examination was proving three illegal votes given to H. B. Wright, in Jefferson Township, and a fourth one probably.

On Monday last, JUDGE SLOCUM was again engaged in taking testimony. On that day, six illegal votes given to H. B. Wright, in Blakely were proved—five others probable.

The three illegal votes given to Wright in Jefferson, were put in so slyly, that the manner of their finding their way into the ballot box is worthy of notice.

A respectable citizen of Jefferson testified that in counting the votes for Congress, it was found that 33 were for Wright. In counting the votes in another box, relative to altering the constitution, three more votes for Wright were found in that box, snugly folded inside of Amendment votes. Each of these votes, or rather each slip of votes, when opened, as we gather from the testimony, read thus:—

For the Amendment.
For Congress,
Hendrick B. Wright.

Each of these slips was so folded, as to show on the outside, only the top line, "For the Amendment." Of course the ticket was received by the Judge, and deposited in the box as the Amendment ticket alone. There were three such found in the Amendment ticket box. And instead of these being counted as tickets for the Amendment, agreeably to their outward labelling, they were counted for H. B. Wright for Congress, making his vote as clearly proved, illegal. One of the officers of the election being present when these illegal votes were proved, it was proposed to examine him also. To this Wright's counsel objected, as no notice had been given of an intention to examine him. His deposition was therefore taken, and is worthy of publication, as it gives the facts concisely, and the reason why it was decided to count the votes for Wright. It is as follows:—

In matter of the Contested Election from the Eleventh Congressional District of Pennsylvania, for a Seal in the House of Representatives of the United States for the 32d Congress

State of Pennsylvania, Luzerne County, S. S.

JACOB E. MYERS being duly sworn, saith that he acted as one of the clerks at the Election for Congress, and other offices, held in the Township of Jefferson, on the eighth day of October last, 1859—the said Township of Jefferson being in County of Luzerne and within the Eleventh Congressional District of Pennsylvania. Deponent further saith, that he was present during the whole Election and assisted in counting the votes for Congress—the Congress Box thirty-three votes were found and counted in favor of Hendrick B. Wright for Congress, and three votes in favor of Henry M. Fuller. In the Box marked Amendment, three tickets were found in favor of Hendrick B. Wright for Congress, which said tickets were attached to and deceitfully and fraudulently folded within other tickets, on the outside folds of which were the words "For the Amendment." The said Deponent objected at the time to the counting of said tickets, on the ground that they were deceitfully and fraudulently folded, and that it was the duty of the Board to reject them in compliance with the seventy-third section of the Act of Assembly "Relating to the Elections of the Commonwealth," approved 2d July, 1839.—Said Deponent further saith that he is a Democrat, and did not vote for Congress—and that the members of the Board were all in favor of Hendrick B. Wright for Congress. The reason given by the other members of the Board in favor of counting the said three tickets, was that Hendrick B. Wright was "For the Amendment"—that he run on that ticket, therefore the votes should be counted.

JACOB E. MYERS, Sworn and Subscribed before me, this 22d day of May, 1851.

JOSEPH SLOCUM, Associate Judge.

Riot at Hoboken.

A dreadful Riot occurred at Hoboken, opposite New York, on the 26th ult. It seems the Germans of New York, accompanied by their wives and children, to the number of ten or twelve thousand, went over to Hoboken to celebrate their annual May festival. In the afternoon, while partaking of a picnic on the grass, a disturbance took place between them and some young men of Hoboken and New York. The Germans allege they seized their sausages and drank their beer. The Germans repulsed them, beating them severely, but the rowdies afterwards were reinforced in large numbers by the Irish, and a terrible riot ensued, in which several persons were killed and a number severely wounded—among the latter a justice of the peace, who was trying to maintain order.

Curious Phenomenon.—We are informed, by a gentleman who witnessed the Phenomenon himself, (says the Winchester Republican) that there was a mock sun observable in the sky on Saturday morning 17th ultimo, about the hour of seven. There seemed to be two suns, the artificial one presenting a solid and brilliant appearance, and scarcely distinguishable from the true one. The distance between the two might have been ten degrees to the eye, and they were about an equal distance from the horizon. It must have been a curious sight.

The World's Fair.

We have watched the progress of this great "show," with no little interest, well knowing our National pride would have to contend with no slight difficulties. Yet we did not, for a moment, so wrong any one of our countrymen as to suppose they would join in the cry of "inferior," which we were sure the mother country would raise in her endeavors to cast odium upon her offspring, who by disobedience long ago, rendered themselves odious to her. Still this has been the case, and those who call themselves Americans have joined in the cry with our traducers; and, were we to credit them, we should most certainly blush for our country's honor. But thanks to our Commissioner, than whom a more true hearted American there is not, who stands nobly by his trust and defends it against our natural and unnatural foes.

In our vehicle he says:—"We excel everything of English make. The grace of form, lightness of material, elegance of finish, freedom from noise in their quickest movements, taste in ornaments, and combination of great strength with extreme lightness, weighing in several instances less than one-third of an English vehicle of the same description, are subjects of never wearying remark." We have also fine specimens of the great staple of the West, and from the valley of the Genesee, while the cities of the seaboard are represented in articles of beauty, elegance, richness and fashion. The workshops and manufactories have sent off their products and machinery sufficient to show the representatives of other nations that, all that pertains to the saving of labor we are fully their equals. Powers's Greek Slave elicits universal admiration. Indeed it has been pronounced by many critics equal to the Venus de Medicis; the value set upon it there, far exceeds that put upon it here—the original cost being $5,000. But Prince Albert has repeatedly offered the owner three times that amount to part with it.

The "London Times" says, "The States are a growing country, it knows that by their Pistols and Revolvers, and if they practice due humility they may in time grow to some definite position." We like that. It is too good a joke to get angry at, and excites our mirthfulness exceedingly, by showing as it does, a wilful ignorance on the part of the Times in reference to our contributions, no less capable than the malicious desire to throw into obscurity and detract attention from our productions that are most likely to compete with their own. But the world is there our judge; and from it we are willing to receive its decree, well knowing we have enough there of the national and useful, to vie with our competitors, in defiance to those who, to ape the opinions of unprincipled foreigners, assert to the contrary.

The Result in New York.

About six or eight weeks ago, twelve Locofoco Senators at Albany suddenly resigned their seats, and broke up the legislature of New York, when the appropriation and several other important bills remained unpassed. The reason of this move was the determination of the Whigs to pass a bill for the enlargement of the Erie Canal, and the inability of the Locofocos to prevent it, for want of members. So a caucus was held, and it was determined that they should resign, and refer the question to the people. A new election was held on Tuesday last, and all the resigning Senators were again candidates except one, who was frightened off by another Locofoco who came out as an independent candidate. The result was the defeat of all but three or four of them, and the election of good Whigs to fill their places. Not more than four Anti-Enlargement men are elected. There is a Whig rejoicing.

Massachusetts Election.

An election was held in Massachusetts on the 26th ult. to fill vacancies in three of the Congressional districts, where no one could get a majority at any of the former trials. In this instance a majority only was required; and the result was the election of Thomas (Whig) over Palfrey (Free Soil Abolitionist,) Goodrich (Whig) over Bishop (Locofoco Free Soiler) and Rantoul (Free Soil Locco) over the Whig and Locofoco candidates.

The Vermont State Banner of the 10th ult., says: The mountains all around us are white with snow, and have remained thus for a week past. Considerable rain has fallen in the valleys, and, though cold, it has caused the meadows to look fresh and green.

In the advertisement of the clerk of the Federal House of Representatives of the next Congress, there is set down, among the things needed, 250 dozen pen knives—about a dozen for each member—of which 100 dozen are required to be "four bladed, pearl handled, and of the highest finish and best quality, and 100 dozen of two blades, pearl handled, and of the highest finish and best quality."—Each member must have a large family of boys.

A Word or two of Advice.—Whenever you see cheese with a red rind, do not eat it, because it is poisoned with a deleterious drug. Whenever you see black pepper, do not use it, it is adulterated. Whenever you see ardent spirits of any kind or color, run from the bottle and seize fast hold of a croton hydrant. Do these things and live—disobey, and sicken and die.

A SHEEP CARRIED UP BY A WHIRLWIND.—A destructive whirlwind and storm passed over the farms of William and Thomas Vance, in Washington county, on Tuesday afternoon the 20th ult.—A sheep was lifted from the ground and carried up in the air some distance and fell bursting it open and killing it instantly.

Mrs. Partington says that nothing despises her so much as to see people profess to except salvation, go to church without their purses, when a collection is to be taken.

Although the devil be the father of lies, yet he seems, like other great inventors, to have lost much of his reputation, by the continual improvements that have been made upon him.

CHOLERA.—For the week ending on the 17th ult., there were twenty-three deaths by cholera in New Orleans.

The Albany Dutchman says—There is a man in Troy with a nose so long that he has holes bored in it and uses it for a clarinet.

Teacher—"John, suppose I were to shoot at a tree with five birds on it, and kill three, how many would be left?"
John—"Three, sir."
Teacher—"No, two would be left, you ignoramus."
John—"No there wouldn't though—the three shot would be left, and the other two would be fied away?"
Teacher—"Take your seat, John."

A DREADFUL SIGHT.—A Child, two years old, was carried over Niagara Falls, last Monday. The little fellow fell into the river on the Canada side, was carried into the rapids, beyond all possible attempts at rescue, and was swept over the fearful abyss in sight of his father!

MARRIED.—On the 4th inst., by M. M. Burnet, Esq., Mr. Emanuel Van Horn, and Miss Sarah Ann Kiple, both of Coolbaugh township.

DIED.—At Allentown, on the 25th ult., Mrs. Anna, wife of Ephraim Moss, and daughter of Mr. Peter Wolf, of this county, aged about 22 years.
