

An Act Supplementary to the various Acts relating to Tavern Licenses.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the certificate required by the fourth section of the act, entitled "An Act relating to inns and taverns, and retailers of vinous and spirituous liquors," passed the eleventh of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirty four, shall, in addition to being signed by twelve reputable citizens, be accompanied with their affidavit made by oath or affirmation, before a justice of the peace or alderman of the city, borough or town where such tavern or inn is proposed to be kept, that the statements made by them in said certificate are just and true; and the said justice of the peace or alderman, before whom said affidavit shall be made shall certify that he is personally acquainted with each of the affiants, and that they are reputable citizens and residents of the ward, borough or township in which such tavern or inn is proposed to be kept, and that they are of good repute for truth and veracity.

SECTION 2. That the provisions of the first section of the act entitled "An Act supplementary to the various acts relating to tavern licenses," passed March twenty-nine, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, be and the same are hereby extended to all the cities and counties of this Commonwealth; and in addition to the provisions of said first section of said act the publication shall embrace the affidavit and certificate required by the first section of this act.

SECTION 3. That, if any tavern-keeper, retailer or vendor of vinous or spirituous, fermented or malt liquors, shall sell or vend the same in any quantity, on the Sabbath or Lord's day, their license shall thereby become absolutely void; and the said tavern-keepers, retailer or vendor of vinous or spirituous, fermented or malt liquors, shall therefore be subject to the prosecutions and penalties provided against the keeping of tippling houses, the same as though no license had been granted them.

SECTION 4. That it shall be the duty of the Treasurers of the several counties of this Commonwealth, to insert, conspicuously, in every tavern or retailer's license for the sale of vinous and spirituous liquors, within their several counties, or for the sale of fermented liquors, a notice that the sale of the same on the Sabbath or Lord's day shall work a forfeiture of said license, and therefore the same will be void.

SECTION 5. That any laws inconsistent with the first, second, third, fourth and fifth sections of the act entitled "An Act relating to inns, taverns, and retailers of vinous and spirituous liquors," passed March eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, be and are hereby repealed.

The foregoing act, remarks the Wayne Co. Herald, places inn-keepers under restrictions which, heretofore, have not been known in this State. It requires every applicant for license to obtain a sworn statement from twelve of his neighbors, setting forth that he is a person of good repute for honesty and temperance, that such inn or tavern is necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travelers, and that he is well provided with house-room and other conveniences. After which, a justice of the peace or alderman must certify that the twelve affiants are neighbors, and of good repute for truth and veracity. This being done, the whole proceedings must be published three times at least ten days before the first day of the term of the court to which application for the license shall be made.

The price or appraisement of the license is the same as heretofore. This late act appears very strict in reference to the sale of liquors on the Sabbath. The sale of any kind of spiritous or malt liquors, in any quantity on Sunday by a tavern-keeper or vendor, works a forfeiture of his license, and any sale thereafter, even upon a week-day, subjects him to the same penalties as it would had he never obtained a license at all. However strong this law may be condemned, it is plain and distinct, and whosoever violates it, does it boldly at his peril.

NEW CONSTITUTION ADOPTED.—By a majority unprecedented in Maryland, the new Constitution has been declared the organic law of the State. The returns are not all in but enough is known to make the fact certain that an overwhelming vote has established the constitution.

The Lancaster (O.) Eagle supposes that over fifteen thousand panes of glass were broken in that place on Saturday week by the hail storm. Some of the hail stones were as large as good sized walnuts. The wheat and rye in some parts of Fairfield county were so damaged that the farmers are turning their cattle on it.

Passing at Public Auction Vitiates the Sale.

The Supreme Court of this State has just decided at Harrisburg that the employment of a puffer at a public auction vitiates a sale, and the buyer is defrauded, even though he did not pay more than the article was worth in the opinion of witnesses. A man is defrauded whenever he is incited by artful means to bid more than he otherwise would; and whenever the price is ever so little enhanced by a secret contrivance, he is cheated. This is an important decision, which auctioneers will do well to bear in mind.

Death of Senator Stine.
Gen. Daniel Stine, Senator from the Lancaster and Lebanon district, died at his residence in Myerstown on Friday last, of pulmonary consumption. He was a man highly esteemed for his sterling virtues, great integrity and purity of character, piety and benevolence. His loss will be a serious affliction to his family and numerous circle of friends and connections.

Provided, that any person or persons building or about to build, shall on application to the Burgess and Councilmen, receive a permit to use and occupy so much of any side walk, street or alley, (without causing any unnecessary obstruction thereof,) as may be necessary for the purpose of building; which permit shall in no instance be for a longer time than three months; but upon satisfactory cause shown, the same may be renewed to any time in the discretion of the Burgess and Councilmen.

SECTION 11.—If any horse, mare, gelding, cow, bull, steer, heifer, ox, sheep, hog, pig, or swine or any kind, shall be found in said Borough, against or in violation of any of the sections of this Ordinance, it shall and may be lawful for the High Constable, and he is hereby empowered and directed to take and drive and put them in the Pound and advertise the same, (after being in the Pound twelve hours,) by six advertisements put up at public places in said Borough, and if the owner or owners thereof, (which costs and charges shall be thirty-seven and a half cents for advertising, and a reasonable charge for feed,) for the space of twenty-four hours thereafter, then it shall and may be lawful for the High Constable to sell the same at public outcry, and the amount of such sale (after deducting therefrom the fines, costs and charges,) shall be paid to the Treasurer of said Borough, for the use of the owner or owners thereof; if claimed within six months from the sale, and in case the owners of such creature shall neglect to demand the same within said six months, then the same shall belong to the Borough absolutely.
