

Whig Nominations for Governor, Canal Commissioner, and Supreme Judges.

The Convention at Lancaster, has made one of the strongest tickets ever placed in nomination by any party in the State. Its personnel is not only good, but the best that could be selected. The ticket creates confidence, and excites enthusiasm. Arrayed on it are statesmanship, unbending probity, deep learning, high moral character, and general and local popularity.

Of Gov. JOHNSTON, it is unnecessary to speak. His public life is well-known, and he has become intimately connected with the prosperity and history of the State. Respectable and intelligent men, the first citizens of every county in the Commonwealth, twice assembled in Convention at an interval of three years, and twice placed him in nomination for the Office of Governor by acclamation.—His messages, and his other official acts are all before the public, and the great and enlightened Whig party has approved his administration.

JOHN STROHM, of Lancaster, has been placed in nomination for the office of Canal Commissioner. His ability and honesty are undoubted. He has great experience in public life, having served in the State Legislature, and in Congress. Probity is the quality especially needed along our public works, and hence, no man can be better qualified than "honest John Strohm."

HICHARD COULTER of Westmoreland is not only an excellent lawyer, but a gentleman of fine literary attainments. He served in the State Legislature and in Congress. He was generally admired when in our public councils.—He was placed upon the Supreme Bench by his Excellency, the late Gov. Shunk. His learning and courteous manner have won the admiration and friendship of the legal profession, and his judicial opinions on the license law, and on the obligation of the Sabbath day, have gained him the esteem and confidence of temperate, moral, and religious citizens.

JOSHUA W. COMLY, of Montour county, is a lawyer of the first class, and a man of irreproachable private character. The Northern delegates warmly urged his nomination as due, not only to that section of the State, but to his high reputation, his personal purity, and sound principles.

GEORGE CHAMBERS, of Franklin county, is one of that old and respectable family, who have given name to Chambersburg. After the death of the Hon. Thomas Burnside, he received an appointment to the Supreme Bench from Governor Johnston. He has a reputation as an excellent lawyer, and a quiet and unobtrusive citizen of irreproachable character. This reputation has been fully sustained since his connection with the Supreme Bench of Pennsylvania.

WILLIAM M. MEREDITH, of Philadelphia, is known to fame as General Taylor's Secretary of the Treasury, and as the first lawyer in the Commonwealth. Whatever objections can be urged against him as a politician, none can be possibly urged against him as a lawyer. His mind is naturally a legal one, and his studies have been mainly legal. His character is as stainless as mountain snow, and his integrity beyond suspicion. He is equal to Judge Gibson in legal learning, and possesses great advantages over him in age, habits of application, and unimpaired energy.

WILLIAM JESSUP, of Susquehanna, was appointed a President Judge by Gov. Johnston. He is a good lawyer, and has made an excellent Judge. The delegates from Northern Pennsylvania were delighted with his nomination, and all who personally know him, represent him as a man of high character, and profound legal knowledge.

The persons on the Whig ticket have been well selected with regard to localities. Western Pennsylvania has the Governor and one Supreme Judge. Eastern Pennsylvania has the Canal Commissioner and one Supreme Judge. Northern and North Eastern Pennsylvania has two Supreme Judges, Comly and Jessup, while the Hon. George Chambers resides in the Southern part of the State.

The Whigs have reason to be proud of their ticket. Unlike those on the opposition ticket, not a single man of the Whig nominees solicited a nomination.—Honors have been conferred upon them by their fellow-citizens, but they have not run after them. The high honor of a nomination has not been sullied by a single act of personal degradation.

The editor of the Louisville Journal, in reply to the question whether he is for or against the short dresses for the ladies, says: "Oh, we are decidedly a short dress man. It is not in our power to spend much time with the ladies, and we wish during our brief opportunity, to see as much of them as we can with propriety."

The gold bubble in Maine has already burst. Many people flocked to the land of promise, but are generally returning without the stuff. The Kennebec Journal says a wagon load of the "miners" passed through Augusta a few days ago, on their way home, "with very large fleas in their ears."

The new Constitution is adopted in Ohio by a majority of not less than fifty thousand. The clause prohibiting hereafter all licenses to sell intoxicating liquors, which the Convention referred to a special vote of the people, has also been adopted.

There is a boy in Providence R. I., only 19 years of age, who is eight feet high, and weighs 400 lbs., and can carry a barrel of flour under each arm.

A GRAND MILITARY, FIREMEN, AND CIVIC PROCESSION!

And Fourth of July Celebration.

In the Borough of Stroudsburg: Proper arrangements having been made to celebrate the anniversary of our Nation's birth-day,—a day sacred to every freeman,—in a becoming manner, the citizens of Monroe and adjacent counties are respectfully invited to attend and participate in the exercises of the occasion.

The Monroe Artillery, commanded by Capt. Slutter, the Humane Fire Company, in uniform, and the citizens generally, will at ten o'clock, A. M., meet at the Court House, and form a line of procession to proceed to the Presbyterian Church.

THE STROUDSBURG BRASS BAND will perform during the marching of the procession, and at proper intervals during the other exercises of the day.

Marshal—Gen. Robert Brown. Assistant—Dr. A. Reeves Jackson. Standard Bearer—John Musch, Esq. Bearer of Cap of Liberty—Edward Postons.

Reader of Declaration of Independence—J. M. Rueckman. Orator—J. L. Ringwalt.

After the exercises at the Church, the procession will be re-formed, and will repair to Barry's Washington Hotel, where a sumptuous dinner will be prepared.

In the evening there will be a torch-light procession.

No pains will be spared to render the occasion a highly interesting one, and to make the celebration in every way worthy of the glorious event it is designed to commemorate.

By order of the Committee of Arrangement. J. N. Stokes, William Carey, S. C. Burnett, Esq.

"Independence Forever"!!!

The ensuing Anniversary of our National Independence will be celebrated at New Mount Pleasant, Coolbaugh Township, Monroe County, by the Jackson Artillerists, Spruce Grove Sabbath School, Citizens, &c.

The Committee appointed by the citizens, viz: John Yothers, Lambert Frey, Hiram Warner, John Gearhart, John Vliet and Peter Smoke, Esq., announce the following arrangements:—

The procession will be formed at 2 o'clock P. M. under the direction of David Cobb, Marshal of the day—assisted by S. Graber, Esq., Joseph Vliet and Nathaniel Houck, and will proceed to a beautiful Grove in the following order:—

- 1—Marchal and assistants.
- 2—Music.
- 3—Standard Bearer.
- 4—Orators of the day.
- 5—Reader of Declaration and Supporters.
- 6—Committee of arrangements.
- 7—Sabbath School.
- 8—Ladies.
- 9—Citizens.

The exercises at the Grove will be as follows:—

- 1—Address to the American Flag.
- 2—Music.
- 3—Reading of the Declaration.
- 4—Music.
- 5—Orators.
- 6—Music.

At the conclusion of these exercises, the procession will be re-formed in the previous order and proceed to Mr. Myers, where refreshments will be provided.

No SENATOR FROM CONNECTICUT.—After three ineffectual ballottings for U. S. Senator, by the Legislature of Connecticut, on Wednesday last, a resolution was adopted, 110 to 109, to indefinitely postpone the matter. So there will be no Senator elected by Connecticut this year.

WHO CAN BEAT IT!—We learn that our friend, Doctor Swayze, of this place, while fishing one day last week, on a small lake near Hope, N. J., caught the following fish in 13 successive bites, viz: ten pickerel, six perch and one eel, which weighed 2 1/2 pounds, making in all 17, only missing one fish out of the 15 bites. We have heretofore known but little of the Doctor's skill as an angler, but have long known him to be a decidedly skillful and successful Dental operator.—Easton Argus.

HARVEST.—The Frederick Examiner says:—Our harvest has fairly set in. The wheat and rye crops are very good, well filled, in excellent order, without blight or injury in any respect. Hands are much sought after, and the general complaint is the want of laborers. Verily, "the harvest is ready and the laborers few."

Competition on the North River has reduced the rates of passage to almost nothing. Two of the finest steamers on the river are taking passengers for twenty-five cents.

The happiest man in the world, next to a darkey at a dance, is said to be a country editor, trout fishing.

Among the curiosities just arrived at New-York, we notice a rattlesnake from Attakapas, which is 6 feet 2 inches in length, has seven rattles, and has been without food 11 months. Also, a boy from Nova Scotia named Angus McGaskill, aged 19 years, who is eight feet high, and weighs four hundred pounds. "A smart chunk" of a boy that.

To the Voters of Monroe county. Fellow Citizens:—At the solicitation of many friends I have been induced to offer myself as a candidate for the office of Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts of Monroe County, and respectfully solicit your votes and influence on my behalf. Should I be elected I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office with fidelity and to the best of my ability.

WILLIAM SCHOONOVER. M. Smithfield, July 1851.
