City and County of New-Vork, sx.
William Armstrong, of the said City, being duly sworn, doth depose and say that he is a practical bruggist and Chemist. That some time in the latter part of May, or first of June, 1848, a man by the name of Jacob Townsend, who at that time was a book and pamplifet peddler called upon deponent, at the house of Nr. Thompson, No. 42 Hudson-street, where deponent boarded, and requested deponent to write him a recipe by which to make a Syrup of Sarseparilla. Depotent further says, that he became acquainted with said Townsend at the office of Theodore Foster, For Book Publisher with whom said Townsend with That said Townsend had had frequent conversations with deponent respecting the manufacture of an extra least Sansaparilla to be said under the name of Dr. Jucob Townsend.

That said Townsend stated he was an old man, and poor, and was not fit for hard labor-and wished to ske some money, in order to live easy in his old tills under the name of Town sold so well, and so much money was made by it he could see no reason why he might not make something out of it too (his name being Townsend.) if he could get a canable person to prepare a recipe, and manufacture it for him. Deponent in one of the conversations asked said Townsend if he was related to Dr. S. P. Townsend, to which he replied, that he knew Dr. S. P. Townsend would be down on him after be should commence. But that he did not care for him, as he had formed a co-partnership with men who could furnish the requisite amount of capital—and was well prepared to delend himself against any attack

Occament further says, that pursuant to the request of said Jacob Townsend, he wrote a recipe for the manufacture of a Syrup of Sarsuparilla, and gave it to ism. Said Townsond observed that he wanted to approval, as he wished to gratify them in every thing, see he's furnished all the capital said Townsend also to se of the same size and shape as Dr. S. P. Townsend's and deponent, at the request of said Jacob Townsend, went to the office of Dr. S. P. Townsend,

And deponent further says, that he has been informed and yearly believes the Symp of Sarsaparilla, sold as feld Jacob Townsend's, is saide after the recipe furiched by deponent, to Jacob Townsend, as aforesaid, And further deponent soith not.
