EXTRACTS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may very properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author.—Its object is to illustrate and "render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines, and laws; to know its truth, to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.

The News, January 7th Sacred Scenes Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," &c. This work will add greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his "Sacred Mountains," and Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a rich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving tenderness of passion, and vigorous strength of expression, which are to be found in all the languages by which mortals declare their minds.—Daily Globe, January 5th.

Rambles and Sketches.—By Rev. J. T. Headley.—We have not for a long time sat down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Napoleon and his Marshals" was, perhaps, as popular, and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles & Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as any of his previously published works. There is not a dull chapter in the work, filled as it is with "an infinite variety" The author has ample room and verge enough for the employment of his fine talents to great advantage, and most successfully has he recomposed the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and "well considered," and adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher.—Portland Transcript, Dec. 15

Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books—on one which he can safely rest his fame. It possesses the unflagging charms of perfect simplicity and truth.—There is a graceful frankness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand lively traits of an ingenious nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's works.

The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It consists, indeed, of some of Mr. Headley's most brilliant and highly-finished compositions, of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety to his fame as a word-painter and thinker.—N.Y. Tribune, December 17, 1849.

N. B.—The above books will be forwarded to order, at the prices mentioned, free of postage, to any part of the United States, on the receipt of orders, with the money. Money may be sent by mail at my risk.

Monroe county, ss.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of said County, Greeting: WHEREAS, James Place, late September, 1850, before our Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, at Stroudsburg, at our said Court then and there held, recovered against John L. Caffrey, administrator of the estate of Silas Flower, deceased, a certain debt of Seventy-nine dollars and Fifty-four cents, as also Six dollars and Thirty-five cents, which in our said Court were adjudged to him for his damages and costs, which he had sustained by reason of the detention of that debt, whereof the said John L. Caffrey, administrator as aforesaid is convict as appears of record, &c. Nevertheless execution of the said Judgment remains still to be made as we have received information from the said James Place.—Whereupon he besought us to provide for him a proper remedy in that particular, and we being willing that those things which are right and just should be done, therefore, we command you that by honest and lawful men of your bailiwick you cause to be made known unto the said John L. Caffrey, administrator of Silas Flower, deceased, which said John L. Caffrey is intermarried with Amelia, one of the daughters of said deceased, Elizabeth Flower, widow of said deceased, and Daniel Ostrander and Rachel his wife, Bly Courdry and Mary his wife, James McKinney and Rebecca his wife, William Flower, Depeue Flower, Alfred Flower, and Abraham Flower, heirs and legal representatives of Silas Flower, deceased, that they be and appear before our Judges at Stroudsburg, at our Court of Common Pleas, there to be held the 22d day of September next, to show cause why the said Judgment shall not be made out of the Real Estate of the said Silas Flower, deceased, according to the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, and have you then there this writ, and the names of those by whom you shall make it known.

Witness the Honorable Nathaniel B. Eldred, Esq., President of our said Court at Stroudsburg, the eleventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

THE undersigned has taken the store-house formerly occupied by Charles Boys, in Stroudsburg, with the intention of accommodating the public with a general assortment of

DRY GOODS, at Easton Prices, for Easton pay, comprising all the latest styles and fashions. Also, anything in the HARDWARE line, from a three penny nail to a saw mill saw. CROCKERY-WARE of all kinds, cheap. BOOTS & SHOES, CEDAR-WARE, and the greatest stock of GROCERIES in town.—Coffee, tea, sugars, molasses, mackerel, smoked and pickled meat, smoked salmon, shad, codfish, herring, dried peaches, cherries, soap, rice, &c., &c.

All of which will be sold at very reduced prices. We feel satisfied that all who choose to favor us with their custom shall have their goods to suit them. If not, we will guarantee to return their money.

We will have on hand at all times a good assortment of grain, flour, wheat, rye, corn, &c., feed and chop.

Lumber of all kinds, butter, eggs, honey and bees-wax, rags, grain, calfskins, hides, tallow, shingles, sheep or cattle, and cord wood, taken in exchange for goods.

It is out of our line of business to boast or brag; we let our goods and prices recommend themselves, and our customers will spread the news.

Don't forget the first right-hand store as you enter the western end of the town. Get yourselves in the line, and stop where you see the first crowd. Don't get out of patience, our friends; you shall all be waited on when your turn comes.

If you only want to see our stock to satisfy yourselves of our goods and prices, all right—we charge nothing for showing. No danger of moths, for we cannot keep our goods long enough on hand.
