City and County of New-Yorkess. William Armstrong, of the said City, being duly sworn, doth depose and say that he is a practical diamerist and Chemist. That some time in the latter part of May, or first of June, 1848, a man by the name of faceb Townsend, who at that time was a book and pampidet peddler, called upon deponent, at the house of Mr. Thompson, No. 42 Hudson-street, where depoment buarded, and requested deponent to write him a recipe by which to make a Syrup of Sarsaparilla. Deposit on further says, that he became acquainted with said Townsend at the office of Theodore Foscer, lisok Publisher, with whom said Townsend That said Townsend had had frequent conversations with deponent respecting the manufacture of an ocer, and was not fit for hard labor-and wished to take some money, in order to live easy in his old ad that, if Sarsaparilla under the name of Townsend sold so well, and so much money was made by it, he could see no reason why he might not make something out of it too, (his name being Townsend.) if he could get a capable person to prepare a recipe, and manufacture it for him. Deponent in one of the conversations asked said Townsend if he was related to Dr. S. P. Townsend, to which he replied, that he knew Dr. S. P. Townsend would be down on him after se should commence. But that he did not care for here, as he had formed a co-partnership with men who could farnish the requisite amount of capital—and was well prepared to defend himself against any attack that might be made on him.

Deponent further says, that parsonnt to the request at said Jacob Townsend, he wrote a recipe for the mountaintee of a Syrup of Sarsayardia, and gave it to him. Said Townsen! Conserved that he wanted to their make a specimen to exhibit to his partners for their approval as he wished to gratify them in every thing, as they furnished all the capital and Townsend also add deponent that the bottles they were to use were to result the same age and shape as Dr. S. F. Town-send's, and dependent at the request of said Jacob a meal, west to the office of Dr S P. Townsend,

And depended further says, that he has been inform actild Jacob Test mend's, it made after the recipe for noticed by deponent, to Jacob Townsend, as aforesaid. and further deponent with net William ARMSTRONG.
