JOHN KRIDER.
Philadelphia, July 17, 1851.—3m.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

THE undersigned has taken the store-house formerly occupied by Charles Boys, in Stroudsburg, with the intention of accommodating the public with a general assortment of DRY GOODS, at Easton Prices, for Easton pay, comprising all the latest styles and fashions. Also, anything in the HARDWARE line, from a three penny nail to a saw mill saw.

CROCKERY-WARE of all kinds, cheap. BOOTS & SHOES, CEDAR-WARE, &c. &c. &c.
And the greatest stock of GROCERIES in town—Coffee, tea, sugars, molasses, ma-kerel, smoked and pickled meat, smoked salmon, shad, codfish, herring, dried peaches, cherries, soap, rice, &c. &c. &c.

All of which will be sold at very reduced prices. We feel satisfied that all who choose to favor us with their custom shall have their goods to suit them. If not, we will guarantee to return their money.

We will have on hand at all times a good assortment of grain, flour, wheat, rye, corn, &c. feed and chop.

Lumber of all kinds, butter, eggs, honey and bees-wax, rags, grain, calf-skins, hides, tallow, shingles, sheep or cattle, and cord wood, taken in exchange for goods.

It is out of our line of business to boast or brag; we let our goods and prices recommend themselves, and our customers will spread the news.

Don't forget the first right-hand store as you enter the western end of the town. Get yourselves in the line, and stop where you see the first crowd. Don't get out of patience, our friends; you shall all be waited on when your turn comes.

If you only want to see our stock to satisfy yourselves of our goods and prices, all right—we charge nothing for showing. No danger of moths, for we cannot keep our goods long enough on hand.

To Mechanics, Inventors and Manufacturers.
SEVENTH VOLUME OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
MESSRS. MUNN & CO.,
American and Foreign Patent Agents,
And Publishers of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, respectfully announce to the public that the first number of Volume VII. of this widely circulated and valuable journal will issue on the 20th of September. The new volume will commence with new type, printed upon paper of a heavier texture than that used in the preceding volumes. It is the intention of the publishers to illustrate more fully, by introducing representations of prominent events connected with the advancement of science; besides furnishing the usual amount of engravings of new inventions. It is published weekly in form for binding, and affords at the end of the year a splendid volume of over four hundred pages, with a copious index, and from five to six hundred engravings, together with a vast amount of practical information concerning the progress of invention and discovery throughout the world. There is no subject of importance to the mechanic, inventor, manufacturer and general reader, which is not treated in the most able manner—the editors, contributors & correspondents being men of the highest attainments. It is in fact the leading scientific journal of the country.

The Inventor will find in it a weekly list of American Patent Claims, reported from the Patent Office, an original feature not found in any other weekly publication.

Terms:—$2 a year; $1 for six months. All Letters must be post-paid and directed to MUNN & CO.,
Publishers of the Scientific American,
238 Fulton-st., New-York.
