In the Court of Quarter Sessions for the County of Monroe.
In the matter of the Corporation of Stroudsburg.

At a Court, as aforesaid, holden the 22nd day of September, 1851, S. C. Burnett, on behalf of the corporation, made application that the Borough of Stroudsburg may become subject to, and possess the powers and privileges conferred by the "Act regulating boroughs," approved the 3rd day of April, 1851. The Court order public notice to be given of the same.

Publication of which is hereby made, and if no sufficient reason be shown to the contrary, the Court of Quarter Sessions, at its next Term, will decree and declare that the "Borough of Stroudsburg" become subject to the act entitled an "Act to regulate boroughs," approved April 3d, 1851.

M. H. DREHER, Prothonotary.

American Repertory of Inventions.
To Mechanics, Inventors and Manufacturers.
SEVENTH VOLUME OF THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
MESSRS. MUNN & CO.,
American and Foreign Patent Agents,
And Publishers of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, respectfully announce to the public that the first number of Volume VII. of this widely circulated and valuable journal will issue on the 20th of September. The new volume will commence with new type, printed upon paper of a heavier texture than that used in the preceding volumes. It is the intention of the publishers to illustrate it more fully, by introducing representations of prominent events connected with the advancement of science; besides furnishing the usual amount of engravings of new inventions. It is published weekly in form for binding, and affords at the end of the year a splendid volume of over four hundred pages, with a copious index, and from five to six hundred engravings, together with a vast amount of practical information concerning the progress of invention and discovery throughout the world. There is no subject of importance to the mechanic, inventor, manufacturer and general reader, which is not treated in the most able manner—the editors, contributors & correspondents being men of the highest attainments. It is in fact the leading scientific journal of the country.
The inventor will find in it a weekly list of American Patent Claims, reported from the Patent Office, an original feature not found in any other weekly publication.
Terms:—$2 a year; $1 for six months.
All Letters must be post-paid and directed to Publishers of the Scientific American,

EXTRACTS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may very properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author.—Its object is to illustrate and render more life-like the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines and laws; to know its truth, to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation, in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.

The News, January 7th.
Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," &c. This work will add greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his "Sacred Mountains." Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a rich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving tenderness of passion, and rigorous strength of expression, which are to be found in all the languages by which mortals declare their minds.—Daily Globe, January 5th
Rambles and Sketches.—By Rev. J. T. Headley.—We have not for a long time at down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Napoleon and his Marshals" was, perhaps, as popular, and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles & Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as any of his previously published works. There is not a dull chapter in the work, filled as it is with an "infinite variety." The author has ample room and verge enough for the employment of his fine talents to great advantage, and most successfully has he accomplished the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and well considered, and adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher.—Portland Transcript, Dec. 15
Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books—one on which he can safely rest his fame. It possesses the unflagging charms of perfect simplicity and truth.—There is a graceful frankness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His Rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand lively traits of an ingenious nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's works.

New York News.
The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It consists, indeed, of some of Mr. Headley's most brilliant and highly-finished compositions, of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety by his fame as a word-painter and thinker.—N.Y. Tribune, December 17, 1849
N. B.—The above 100s will be forwarded to order, at the prices mentioned, free of postage, to any part of the United States, on the receipt of orders, with the money. Money may be sent by mail at my risk.
