Cure of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Colds, Coughs, Asthma,

Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Com-

I have published a brief work on Consumption, which contains an invaluable recipe for the cure of these prevalent diseases, even in their worst stages, when friends and physicians have given up all hope. The Lung balsam prescribed in this work Cures without the expensive aid of physicians or injurious use of patent medicines. In adopting this System of Cure the patient knows what he is using-knows that he is not shortenning his days by the use of anodynes or mercurials, which may seem to Relieve but never Cure. He knows when using this Life-saving Balaway, otherwise he will be disposed of accor- sam, that he is taking mild, pleasant, efficacious remedies, such as Nature prescribes for the ills her children suffer. The ingredients composing this Lung Balsam are obtainable (cheaply too.) wherever consumption exists, proving that Every ill has its antidote. Consumptive patients may Rely on this receipt -(all Lung Complaints are removed by its use)-I would not attach my name to it, had I doubt of its efficacy. The directions for preparing and using the Balsam are perfectly plain. I prefer selling the Recipe to making the Balsam, as it enables people to Make their own Medicine at a Trifling Cost. 1 will Including Overcoats, common and fine at all impart the secret of making the Balsam, and the Family right to use it, for $1, but in no coats, business coats, &c.; a large assortment | case will I sell it for speculating purposes.

Proof of its Goodness.

price. We prodict for it a circulation far bewond any of the author's former works. The News, Lonuary 7th Sacred Scenes Cha. acters .- By the Rev. J T. Headley, author of the "Excred Mountains," &c. This work will and greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his 'Sacred Mountains.' Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a nich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving ten-languages by which mortals declare their minds .- Daily Globe. January 5th Rambles and Skeiches-- By Rev J T Headley .-- We have not for a long time sat down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His 'Napoleon and his Marshals' was, perhaps, as popular, and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles & Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as ment of his fine talents to great advantage, and most successfully has he recomplipsely thor is interesting and 'well considered,' and P. S .- Be particular to mark goods adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher .- Portland Transcript, Dec. 15

Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books -- one on which he can safespectfully call the attention of his per- ly rest his fame. It possesses the unfatiguthe reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand lively traits of an
