

was sickened at seeing the great destruction of property, viz: wagons, carriages and buggies, dead horses, mules, and cattle, whose carcasses lie thick all over the ground, in a state of preservation, the skins and a good deal of the flesh being dried to the bones—the water, marshes, and air being so strongly impregnated with alkali that it has a tendency to keep off the devouring insects and birds of prey. But the worst is not half told yet; to see every two or three hundred yards a grave, where a father, mother, brother, or sister, has been buried; but ere the train is out of sight the corpse is disinterred by the prowling wolf or the savage Indian—the bones to bleach upon the great American desert. Although I am rather a hardened sinner, yet when I saw the scene as just described I could not refrain from shedding tears, and feeling myself more submissive to that powerful God who rules the universe."

Dr. V. M. Swayze, SURGEON DENTIST,
Easton, Pa.
Respectfully offers his professional services to the public. Having studied and practiced with Dr. Crane, of Easton, for three years, and having spent three winters in the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, (two of which were after he graduated,) and from the experience of eight years practice, he hopes to merit the confidence of all, and receive a liberal share of the public patronage.
Parents cannot be too careful of their children's teeth, as a little care and attention in time, may save a great deal of suffering, trouble and expense, in the future.
There are few persons but who, with proper care and attention, could keep their teeth sound and comfortable through life; and thus avoid the necessity, as well as the trouble and expense of having artificial ones.
Regulating, as well as preventing irregular, or deformed sets of teeth, forms so important a part of the services required of an educated Dentist, that he has paid, in the last five years especial attention to the subject.—and the most successful means to be employed in all the various cases that may be presented.
His advice, or opinion, as to the use, result or the propriety of performing an operation, will in all cases where it is required, be freely and candidly given.
All operations that are faithfully performed require both labor and expense; and therefore, the cost of an operation will be according to the expense and time it takes to perform it. No metal will be used for any operation but gold.
All artificial work will be done with great care and neatness.

HORSES MADE SOUND
BY THE Horse Owner's Secret,
Being a new and certain remedy for the speedy
Cure of Heaves,
By SIR JAMES LYNDONTON,
Principal Farrier to his Royal Highness
Prince Albert.

THE great discovery contained in this little work procured Sir James his Baronetcy. It is really worth its weight in gold to all who own or use Horses. It prescribes a certain and positive cure for Heaves which any person can prepare. The remedy is better and cheaper than any advertised Heave Powder, and is perfectly safe, as any one can know who tries it. Horse owners know that many a valuable Horse loses half its price by this prevalent disease. The remedy prescribed in this work will cure him and increase his market value, besides relieving the poor beast of a horrible complaint, similar to the Asthma in a man. The public can depend on this work; it is no catchpenny humbug. The articles prescribed by Sir James are all cheap and can be had at any store. To prevent imposition the work will be sent in sealed envelopes. English price four shillings and three pence sterling.—American price, $1 per copy. Persons ordering Sir James' Work, are expected to confine his instructions to their own animals.—It will be sent to none others.
An American Horse Doctor approves of the above System! Read what he says:
APRINGTON, Ohio, July 21, 1851

Cure of Consumption,
Liver Complaint, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Complaints.

I have published a brief work on Consumption, which contains an invaluable recipe for the cure of these prevalent diseases, even in their worst stages, when friends and physicians have given up all hope. The Lung Balsam prescribed in this work Cures without the expensive aid of physicians or injurious use of patent medicines. In adopting this System of Cure the patient knows what he is using—knows that he is not shortening his days by the use of anodynes or mercurials, which may seem to relieve but never Cure. He knows when using this Life saving Balsam, that he is taking mild, pleasant, efficacious remedies, such as Nature prescribes for the ill her children suffer. The ingredients composing this Lung Balsam are obtainable (cheaply too) wherever consumption exists, proving that Every ill has its antidote. Consumptive patients may Rely on this receipt—(all Lung Complaints are removed by its use)—I would not attach my name to it, had I doubt of its efficacy. The directions for preparing and using the Balsam are perfectly plain. I prefer selling the Recipe to making the Balsam, as it enables people to Make their own Medicine at a Trifling Cost. I will impart the secret of making the Balsam, and the Family right to use it, for $1, but in no case will I sell it for speculating purposes.
Proof of its Goodness.
JACKSON, Mich., March 21, 1851.
Doct. S. TOUSEY.—Sir: You wished me to let you know what effect your preparation of Medicine for Consumption and other diseases had in my family. After the first ten days my wife gained in weight 3 lbs, relieved her cough, changed her countenance, and all appearances were better. My family would not be willing to do without it. It is a medicine much needed in Jackson—there is many cases similar to my wife's. The Rev. Mr. Blanchard will write you for a recipe. Respectfully yours,
O. F. POOL.
Address, post paid, (enclosing $1.) Dr. S. TOUSEY, 106 Nassau street, New York.—The work goes by mail under seal.

EXTRACTS FROM OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
Sacred Scenes and Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley. This work may very properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author.—Its object is to illustrate and render more life-like the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines and laws; to know its truth, to imitate its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.

The News, January 7th
Sacred Scenes Characters.—By the Rev. J. T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," &c. This work will add greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his "Sacred Mountains" and Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a rich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving tenderness of passion, and vigorous strength of expression, which are to be found in all the languages by which mortals declare their minds.—Daily Globe, January 5th
