Table with columns: Year, Collector, Township, Amt of duplicate, Balance at last settlement, Pay-ments, Exemptions, Com-mis-sions, O'r pay-ment, Bal-ance due, Total each year

The amount of checks outstanding and unpaid, including Judgments, up to January 7, 1852, is $2896 10. We, the subscribers, Auditors of the County of Monroe, having carefully examined the accounts of the County Treasurer, and all books, papers, vouchers, &c., relating thereto, do certify that we find the above account correct. Witness our hands, at Stroudsburg, this tenth day of January, A. D. 1852.

H. D. SHAFER, CHARLES S. DIETRICK, Auditors.

ABRAHAM FENNER, in account with the County of Monroe, as claimed by him for Commissioner's services. CR. by 494 days at $1 50 per day $741 00, DR. to amount of checks received from the County $676 26

Balance due Fenner from the County $64 74, ABRAHAM FENNER, in account with the County of Monroe, as allowed him by the County Auditors. Cr. by services as Commissioner in 1849, including the building of the Stroudsburg Bridge $200 00, do do do 1850 & 1851, at $150 per year $300 00, Total $500 00, Dr. to amount of Checks received $676 26

Amount due the county of Monroe from Abraham Fenner $176 26. We, the subscribers, Auditors of the County of Monroe, having carefully examined the accounts of John Miller, Melchoir Dreher, John Kern and others, find that none of them claimed or have drawn the amount of Five hundred dollars for their services, and in our opinion Fenner's account should not exceed that amount, in justice to the County. We therefore find the above amount of one hundred seventy-six dollars and thirty-six cents over drawn by Fenner, and direct the County Commissioners to collect the above amount of him in like manner as other debts of the County are collected.

C. S. PALMER, H. D. SHAFER, Auditors.

This work may very properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author. - Its object is to illustrate and "render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines and laws; to know its truth, to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to prize in some measure as it deserves, this treasure which is indeed beyond price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works. The News, January 7th. Sacred Scenes Characters. - By the Rev. J. T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," &c. This work will add greatly to the reputation of the author. In literary merit it more than equals his "Sacred Mountains." Mr. Headley excels in his glowing style and vivid descriptions. His works are a rich treasury of all the sublimity of thought, moving tenderness of passion, and vigorous strength of expression, which are to be found in all the languages by which mortals declare their minds. - Daily Globe, January 5th. Rambles and Sketches. - By Rev J T Headley. - We have not for a long time sat down to a book with more pleasing anticipations, or found those anticipations more fully realized, than in the perusal of the work before us, and we know it will be hailed with gratification by the many admirers of the talented author. His "Napoleon and his Marshals" was, perhaps, as popular, and found at least as many enthusiastic readers as any book that can be mentioned. We think the Rambles & Sketches are destined to be as popular at least as any of his previously published works. There is not a dull chapter in the work, filled as it is with "an infinite variety." The author has ample room and verge enough for the employment of his fine talents to great advantage, and most successfully has he accomplished the task. The biographical sketch of the author is interesting and "well considered," and adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher. - Portland Transcript, Dec. 15. Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books - one on which he can safely rest his fame. It possesses the unflagging charms of perfect simplicity and truth. - There is a graceful frankness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand lively traits of an ingenious nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's works. - New York News. The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It consists, indeed, of some of Mr. Headley's most brilliant and highly-finished compositions, of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety by his fame as a word-painter and thinker. - N Y Tribune, December 17, 1849. N B - The above books will be forwarded to order, at the prices mentioned, free of postage, to any part of the United States, on the receipt of orders, with the money. Money may be sent by mail at my risk. JOHN S. TAYLOR, Publisher, 113 Nassau st. New York, July 24, 1851 - 3m. C. U. Warnick, Painter and Glazier, RESPECTFULLY announces to the citizens of Stroudsburg and the surrounding country, that he still continues the above business, and may be found at his establishment on Monroe street. All orders for House and Sign Painting, Glazing, Paper Hanging, &c. will be punctually attended to, and executed in the best style, upon the most reasonable terms. N.
