

The locooco presses, to prepare the public mind for the large expenditures of the public money which they contemplate for electioneering purposes, charge that Gov. Johnston has left debts for Bigler's administration to pay. This allegation is made without any authority and is one of those despicable expedients to which scoundrels are ever ready to resort when the unvarnished truth will not answer their corrupt purposes. If any debts have been contracted, of which the public are ignorant, they have been made by the Locooco Canal Commissioners in direct violation of law and in the face of their official oaths. Since 1848, Gov. Johnston paid $373,861.48 of debts which were illegally contracted by the Locooco Canal Board prior to Dec. 1, 1848, but were subsequently assumed by the Legislature and consequently paid. If the Canal Commissioners have continued in their disregard of law and the interests of the Commonwealth, all the blame belongs to the guilty perpetrators of these outrages, and not to Gov. Johnston, who, with all his party friends, was especially active that these plunderers might be thwarted.

We know of no set of men more corrupt and unscrupulous than the Locooco editors and politicians of this State. They are pursuing the late Administration with most bitter falsehoods and most malicious misrepresentations—falsehoods and misrepresentations which have no parallel save in the unholy crusades of the same slanderers against other honest men honored by the people with their confidence. Until these fellows learn honesty, and will discuss facts instead of making reckless and truthless assertions, no public man can expect his actions to be fairly represented or himself to be free from the calumnies of the base. —Independent Whig.

Elopement—Bigamy—the Bird Caught.

An elopement or run-a-way match took place in this vicinity a few days since. The parties are a young lady, about eighteen years old, whose parents reside in Swedesburg, a short distance below this borough, on the opposite side of the river, and a man named Thomas Midland, who has a wife and two children, living in the city of Reading. Midland, it appears, has been employed for some months back, in peddling stoves, and was in the habit of stopping at the 'Union Tavern,' where he met the young lady alluded to, who for convenience sake, we shall call Miss C, her sister being married to the gentleman keeping the house. He afterwards visited her at her father's house. Some time after, her parents were informed that he was a married man, when they forbid him coming to the house.—Midland, however, who it would appear is an accomplished villain, was not daunted, but laid his plans still deeper to accomplish the ruin of his unsuspecting victim. In order to counteract the report, he brought a person from Reading, who drove his horse and (Midland's) wagon to her father's house, on pretence of selling a stove, while Midland remained at a public house in the neighborhood.—Upon being informed that they had recently purchased a stove of Midland, he manifested much interest in him, stating they were old acquaintances, and represented him as a single man, of unexceptionable character.

On the first of February, Midland came to the "Union" in a one horse wagon, where he met Miss C. They then went on to Radnor, where they were married by the Rev. Mr. Brown. After which they proceeded to Lancaster, where they remained two or three days.

Before leaving Reading, Midland took about $20 of his wife's money, her gold watch and chain, and left her a penny on the table, telling her to live upon that until he returned. Upon these things being made known, Mr. Jacob Hurst, and — started in pursuit. They overtook them at Bollefonte, in Centre county where they had put up for the night. They were brought back, and Miss C. returned to her parents, while Mr. M. was furnished with lodgings for the present, in our new jail.

The Reading Journal states that he purchased the horse and wagon on credit, under the pretence that he was going to the South to sell patents at a salary of $800 per annum. It is also stated that he borrowed considerable money, and purchased numerous articles of clothing &c., on credit, besides committing numerous frauds upon his former employers.—Montgomery Watchman.

Gen. Scott—An Offer Declined.

The New Orleans Delta, a Democratic paper, refers to a fact of which it says it has been some time cognizant, that Gen. Scott, when in the city of Mexico, after its capture, was offered by several of the wealthiest citizens of the Mexican Republic to be made President of that country; and, as an inducement to the offer, they bound themselves to settle upon him the sum of one million of dollars.—"The splendid offer," says the Delta, "was declined by the General, with scarcely a moment's consideration. The brave old soldier could not be tempted by such inducement to abandon the flag under which he had achieved so much renown and honor."

A fellow who attended a temperance meeting a few days since, went home and beat his wife almost to death, to let her know that he went in for the tick her law.

A New Sect.

We have lately had some startling accounts of the progress of polygamy among the Mormons of Utah, but they are distanced entirely by a society calling themselves "Perfectionists," and who, like the Mormons, claim to be Christians. The centre of this sect is in the town of Lenox, Madison County, New York, where about 150 men, women and children live together in one house, with no distinction of property, family or authority. Each one does what seems good in his own eyes. The Bible is their nominal constitution, and how curiously must they follow its teachings, is evident from the fact that they disavow all separate or individual right in property "wives or children." This is a progressive age.

The people of the United States eat every year thirty-two millions of pounds of maple sugar. So the census says. Not quite a pound and a half a piece.

The last 'live Yankee' feat is the pumping the water out of Harlem lake with three big steam engines. By this means 30,000 acres of good land have been exposed to sunshine and cultivation, and by next year will probably be seeded down with onions.

Extensive Robbery of Silver Ware.

A mysterious robbery at New York was perpetrated on Saturday night, between the hours of seven and twelve o'clock, at the silverware manufactory owned by F. M. Cooper & Co., from which the rogues carried off silver goblets, pitchers, trumpets, napkin rings, sugar baskets, two masonic medals, bread baskets, &c., valued in all at $2,592. The property was taken from the iron safes by means of false keys. The young man who was in charge of the premises visited the theatre on Saturday night, and during his absence the premises were entered and robbed. He has been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the robbery.

More Pardons.

On Saturday evening last, ISRAEL STREETER and JAMES HOSKINS, convicted in this county, at February Sessions, 1851, for Burglary and Larceny, in Maryland township, and sentenced to the Penitentiary in labor for three years, were discharged from the Montgomery County Prison, on a pardon granted by Gov. Bigler. The names set forth in the pardon and on whose application the same was granted, are "Ephraim Fenton, Associate Judge of the Court, Hon. John McNair, A. H. Tippen, clerk of the Court, Wm. D. Lewis, Collector of the Port of Philadelphia and John W. Ashmead, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania."

The principal instrument in obtaining the Pardon above referred to, was JOHN J. McCAREN, of Philadelphia. This business of securing pardons has become one of profession, and is carried on as a system, under the motto that "the laborer is worthy of his hire," and there is no case, however desperate, that cannot be run through—providing always that the consideration is forthcoming. Gov. BIGLER is making a good beginning, and if he continues as well through his term, his particular friends will feel the benefit in their pockets.—Norristown Herald.

HORSES MADE SOUND BY THE

Horse Owner's Secret,

Being a new and certain remedy for the speedy

Cure of Heaves,

By SIR JAMES LYNDONTON,

Principal Farrier to his Royal Highness Prince Albert.

THE great discovery contained in this little work procured Sir James his Baronetcy. It is really worth its weight in gold to all who own or use Horses. It prescribes a certain and positive cure for Heaves which any person can prepare. The remedy is better and cheaper than any advertised Heave Powder, and is perfectly safe, as any one can know who tries it. Horse owners know that many a valuable Horse loses half its price by this prevalent disease. The remedy prescribed in this work will cure him and increase his market value, besides relieving the poor beast of a horrible complaint, similar to the Asthma in a man. The public can depend on this work; it is no catchpenny humbug. The articles prescribed by Sir James are all cheap and can be had at any store. To prevent imposition the work will be sent in sealed envelopes. English price four shillings and three pence sterling.—American price, $1 per copy. Persons ordering Sir James' Work, are expected to confine his instructions to their own animals.—It will be sent to none others.

An American Horse Doctor approves of the above System! Read what he says:

APPLINGTON, Ohio, July 21, 1851

Mr DUNBARTON.—I have tried your Secret for the cure of Heaves, and approve of it very much.

Yours truly,

[Witness, G. Long.] S. LAKE, Horse Dr.

Hover's Ink Manufactory,

REMOVED TO

No. 144 Race Street,

(Between Fourth and Fifth, opposite Crown St.)

Philadelphia.

WHERE the Proprietor is enabled, by increased facilities, to supply the growing demand for HOVER'S INK, which its wide spread reputation has created.

This Ink is now so well established in the good opinion and confidence of the American Public, that it is scarcely necessary to say anything in its favor, and the manufacturer takes this opportunity to say that the confidence thus secured shall not be abused.

In addition to the various kinds of Writing Ink, he also manufactures Adamantine Cement for mending Glass and China, as well as a superior Hair Dye; a trial only is necessary to insure its future use, and a Sealing Wax, well adapted for Druggists and Bottlers, at a very low price, in large or small quantities.
