HORSES MADE SOUND BY THE Horse Owner's Secret.

Cure of Heaves, By SIR JAMES LYNDONTON, Principal Farrier to his Royal Highness

Being a new and certain remedy for the speedy

Prince Albert. I'll E great discovery contained in this lit-L tle work procured Sir James his Baronetcy. It is really worth its weight in gold to 219 all who own or use Horses. It precribes a Certain and positive cure fort he Heaves which any person can prepare. The remedy is better and cheaper than any advertised Heave Powder, and is perfectly safe, as any one can know who tries it. Horse owners know that many a valuable Horse loses half its price 139 (by this prevalent disease. The remedy pre- 133 (scribed in this work will core him and in- 242 (crease his market value, besides relieving 104 ! the poor beast of a horrible complaint, simi- 1181 lar to the Asthma in a man. The public can depend on this work; it is no catchpenny humbug. The articles prescribed by Sir James are all cheap and can be had at any store. To prevent imposition the work will be sent in sealed envelopes. English price | 207 four shillings and three pence sterling .--American price, $1 per copy. Persons ordering Sir James' Work, are expected to con-

tine his instructions to their own animals .- | 140 1 It will be sent to none others. An American Horse Ductor appropries of 105 the above System! Read what he says: APPLETON, Ohio, July 21, 1851 Mr. DUNBERTON, -- I have tried your Secret for the cure of Heaves, and approve of it Yours, truly, [Witness, G. Long.] S. Lake, Horse Dr. To procure this valuable little work. Ad- 202 I dress, post paid.

Sacred Scenes and Characters - By the properly be considered a companion to the "Sacred Mountains," by the same author .-Its object is to illustrate and " render more life-like" the sacred writings. It is not the author's design to supersede the Bible. But his wish is to excite a solicitude to obtain, and to become intimately acquainted and perfectly familiar with its history, doctrines and laws; to know its truth, to imbibe its spirit, feel its power, and partake of its salvation; in a word, to priže in some measure as it de-500 planes assorted; the celebrated M. serves, this treasure which is indeed beyond Copeland's make of Planes are amongst price. We predict for it a circulation far beyond any of the author's former works.

A large assortment Ladies' any of his previously published works. There is not a dull cleapter in the work, filled as it adds much to the value of the book, which is got up in a very neat and attractive style by the publisher .- Portland Transcript, Dec. 15

Mr. Headley is one of the most promising writers of this country, and we have here one of his best books -- one on which he can safely rest his tame. It possesses the unfatiguing charms of perfect simplicity and truth .--There is a graceful transness pervading the composition, which engages the interest of the reader in the author as well as in the subject. His rambles about Rome, Paris and London exhibit a thousand lively traits of an ingenuous nature, upon which a man of taste will delight to linger. We predict for this a sale equal to that of any of the author's works. New York News.

The collection is one of which no author need be ashamed. It consists, indeed, of some of Mr. Headley's most brilliant and highly-finished compositions, of those specimens of his abilities by which he may be judged with the greatest safety to his fame as a word-painter and thinker. - NY Tribune-December 17, 189
