Bay. Taylor and the Arab Governor. In the Orphan's Court of Monroe co.

In one of Taylor's letter from Ethiopia, he gives the following account of his interview with the Governor of Meroe and Ambukol: I wanted to change some of my gold into small money, and was told that Achimedar Kashif, the Governor, was the only who person could do it. We ac- where all persons interested may attend. cordingly rode under the imposing stone piles of the old kings to the residence of the Kashif, a two-story mud house with a portico in front, covered with matting .-It was the day for the people of the neighborhood to pay their tulpch, or tax, and some of his officers were seated on the himself in his shawl for dinner, which his slaves had just brought up. He received me cordially, and I took my seat beside him on the floor, and dipped my fingers into the various dishes. There was a pan of baked fish, which was excellent, after came a tray of searlet watermelon slices, coffee, pipes, and lastly a cup of hot sugar syrup. He readily promised to change me the money, and afterward accepted my invitation to dinner. I stayed an hour longer, and had an opportunity of witnessing some remarkable scenes,-A woman came in to complain of her husband who had married another woman, leaving her with one child. She had a cow of her own, which he had forcibly taken and given to his new wife. The Kashif his seal from his button-hole, gave it to an attendant, as a summons which the delinquent dare not disobey. A company of men afterwards came in to adjust some dispute about a water-mill. They spoke so fast and in such a violent and excited manner, that I could not comprehend the nature of the quarrel; but the group they made was most remarkable. They leaned forward with flashing teeth and eyes, holding the folds of their long mantles with ous combustion. The Kashii was calmness itself all the while and after getting Esq. the particulars—a feat which I considered marvelous-quietly gave his decision. - July 15, 1852. I have a horse in my possession now that July 15, 1852. was badly afflicted with heaves all of last winter, and I had given up his case as hopeless, until some time in March, when I tried it again:-I gave the horse a handful of fine salt dissolved in a bucket ofwater, for three or four successive mornings, and then divided one quarter of a pound of blue stone into ten doses and gave him one powder or dose every morn- the 2pg of August, 1852, when and where ing, on a half peek of wetted wheat bran, all persons interested can attend. and fed the horse but little else during the experiment, but some moistened hay. He is now apparently as sound in wind as he was at five years old, and has done full work ever since; is free from cough, and can stand a drive as well as he ever did, and requires no care as to feed, watering, &c.

American Citizenship—The Savannah Republican states an instance of impressment practiced upon an American citizen and three contiguous tracts of land that quite matches the most flagrant eases containing about in the annals of the navy. Frederick kens of citizenship from the office of the Secretary of State, and relying upon them, entered the Kingdom of Hanever, and was arrested, pronounced a defaulter from milseven years in the ranks of the army .---Efforts have been made by our Prussian residents to procure his discharge, but comes a matter of properiety to ascertain hides per year. how long they are to be suffered.
