On Monday morning, says the Eastan Sentinel, Sheriff Bachman left town with Barnet Andrews, Julius Miller and Augustus Boyer, who were sentenced, at the recent term of Court, to the Eastern Penitentiary. The former for twelve years, and the other two for one year each.

REV. ORIN FOWLER, M. C., from Massachusetts, just deceased at Washington, was born in Lebanon, Conn., in 1791, and so is 61 years old. He graduated at Yale College, in 1815, and was ordained as a clergyman at Plain-field, Conn., soon after. He thence removed to Fall River Mass., where he was a Pastor of the first Congregational Church over twenty years, until he was elected to Congress. He married the daughter of Rev. Dr. Payson who survives him. Their child died infancy. He was an upright, conscientious, industrious man, and very highly esteemed.

A parson in preaching on the depravity of the age, said that little children who could neither speak nor walk, were to be seen running around the streets cursing and swearing.

The present price of Soldiers' Land Warrants (40 acres,) in New-York is from $32 to $35. They have at no time since they were first issued brought less than $29. They are worth in Sussex county at least $30. We give this information in order that the holders of those warrants, who are generally poor men, may not be cheated any longer by swindling speculators. We did not know until within a few days past that certain persons, who profess to be great friends of the poor, have driven a brisk business in buying up warrants, at from $9 to $20, by deceiving the holders as to their real value; or we should have given notice before this, to the parties interested to be on their guard against imposition and extortion.—Sussex Register.

We see in a newspaper a quack medicine advertisement, headed, "Have you the Fever and Ague?" This is an important question, and if any of our readers can answer it in the affirmative, let him steep a quarter of a pound of wild cherry bark in half a gallon of water, and drink a wine glass full three times a day. It is a sure and cheap remedy, and worth all the quack nostrums ever invented or concocted.—Lewisburgh Chronicle.

A late writer says, that although the fashionable world flock to Saratoga for its water, the first thing they call for is "Bandy and Water."

STAGE LINES.

The Stroudsburg and Easton mail line of stages, consists of excellent four horse coaches, and leaves J. J. Postens' Indian Queen Hotel, Stroudsburg, Pa. every day (except Sundays) at 7 o'clock A. M. arriving in Easton before the departure of the cars for New York, or stages to Bethlehem and Allentown.
The following lines leaves Postens' Indian Queen Hotel, Stroudsburg, Pa. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning on alternate days:

A line to Port Jervis, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M. via Bushkill, Dingman's Choice and Milford. Returning, leaves Port Jervis immediately after the arrival of the morning train of cars to New York, at about 8 o'clock A. M.

A line to Mauch Chunk, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M. via Broadheadsville, where it connects with lines to Wilkes-Barre and White Haven.

HORSES MADE SOUND

By SIR JAMES LYNDONTON,
Principal Farrier to his Royal Highness Prince Albert.

The great discovery contained in this little work procured Sir James his Baronet. It is really worth its weight in gold to all who own or use Horses. It prescribes a certain and positive cure for Heaves which any person can prepare. The remedy is better and cheaper than any advertised Heave Powder, and is perfectly safe, as any one can know who tries it. Horse owners know that many a valuable Horse loses half its price by this prevalent disease. The remedy prescribed in this work will cure him and increase his market value, besides relieving the poor beast of a horrible complaint, similar to the Asthma in man. The public can depend on this work; it is no catchpenny humbug. The articles prescribed by Sir James are all cheap and can be had at any store. To prevent imposition the work will be sent in sealed envelopes, English price four shillings and three pence sterling—American price, per copy. Persons ordering Sir James' work, are expected to confine his instructions to their own animals.—It will be sent to none others.

An American Horse Doctor approves of the above System! Read what he says:
APPLETON, Ohio, July 21, 1851
Mr. DUNBENTON,—I have tried your Secret for the cure of Heaves, and approve of it very much.
