Cure of Consumption.

Liver Complaint, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all Throat and Lung Complaints.

I have published a brief work on Consumption, which contains an invaluable recipe for the cure of these prevalent diseases, even in their worst stages, when friends and physicians have given up all hope.

Proof of its Goodness. JACKSON, Mich. March 21, 1851. Doct. S. TOLSEY—Sir: You wished me to let you know what effect your preparation of Medicine for Consumption and other diseases had in my family.

LIVER COMPLAINT, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as a constipation, inward piles, fullness or blood to the head, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heartburn, disgust for food, fullness, or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swimming of the head, hurried and difficult breathing, fluttering at the heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency or perspiration, yellowness of the skin & eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs, &c. sudden fluxes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings of evil and great depression of spirits, can be effectually cured by Dr. Hoagland's celebrated German Bitters...

at the German Medicine Store, 130 Arch st. Philadelphia. Their power over the above diseases is not excelled—if equalled—by any other preparation in the United States...

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced. From the Boston Bee. The editor said, Dec. 22nd—Dr. Hoagland's celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver complaint, jaundice, dyspepsia, chronic or nervous debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day.

14 years Mr. John O'Neil, 10th Avenue and 21st street, suffered with a cough, raising of phlegm, and pain in his side. He could get no relief till he tried the All-Healing Balm, which drove the pain from his side, allayed the cough, and brought the disease upon the surface; and before he had taken three bottles, was entirely cured.

Mrs. Baggas, a lady upwards of 70, residing 88 Sheriff street, has for years been subject to attacks of Pleurisy, Raising of Blood, severe Cough, Shortness of Breath, Pain in her Head and various parts of her body. Her friends believed past recovery. The All-Healing Balm relieved her at once of all her alarming symptoms, and now she is able to attend to her work.

Mrs. Lucretia Wells, 95 Christie st.; L. S. Beals, 19 Delancy street; W. H. Youngs, 75 Walnut st.; know the value of this great remedy.

Ask for Sherman's All-Healing Balm, and see that his written signature is on each bottle. Price 25 cents and $1 per bottle. Dr. Sherman's Worm and Cough Lozenges for sale at this office. May 8, 1851.

Raising Blood And Consumption, pain in the side and night sweats, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Spitting of blood, Liver complaint, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat, lungs and liver cured by Sherman's All-Healing Balm.

Mr. Mi'ne, Builder, in Brooklyn, was attacked with raising blood, followed by a cough, pain in the side, and all the usual symptoms of consumption. He employed two of the best physicians; they did him no good, and told him he could not live.

Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Sherman's Balm, he sent at 10 o'clock at night to Mrs. Hayes, 136 Fulton street, and got a bottle; it operated like a charm, stopped the bleeding and cough! Before he had taken one bottle he was able to be about his work. It had saved his life. His daughter, residing at 127 Myrtle Avenue, can attest it.

Miss Ann Maston, of Williamsburg, living in Tenth, near South Fourth st., says—That she had been troubled with a hacking cough, and pain in the chest, for a long time, which at last became so bad that she was obliged to give up her school for more than a year. She then commenced taking the All-Healing Balm—which soon alleviated her symptoms.—She is now fast recovering, and has resumed her laborious occupation as a teacher.

OFFICE TO PROCURE Soldiers' Land Warrants. By a recent Act of Congress it is enacted, That each of the surviving, or the widow or minor children of deceased commissioned and non-commissioned officers, musicians, or privates, whether of regulars, volunteers, rangers or militia, who performed military services in any regiment, company or detachment in the service of the United States, in the war with Great Britain, declared by the United States on the eighteenth day of June, 1812, or in any of the Indian wars since 1790, and each of the commissioned officers who was engaged in the military service of the United States in the late war with Mexico, and shall be entitled to lands as follows:

Those who engaged to serve twelve months or during the war, and actually served nine months, shall receive one hundred and sixty acres; and those who engaged to serve six months and actually served four months, shall receive eighty acres; and those who engaged to serve for any or an indefinite period, and actually served one month, shall receive forty acres.

Under the above act, and the acts of Congress generally, the subscriber offers his services as agent to procure Land Warrants for those entitled to receive them, as above specified. He may be found at his office in Stroudsburg. S. C. BURNETT. October 27, 1850.

THE LIVING AGE. Extracts of Letters from Judge Story, Chancellor Kent, and President Adams.

I have read the prospectus with great pleasure, and entirely approve the plan. If it can only obtain the public patronage long enough, and large enough, and secure enough, to attain its true ends, it will contribute in an eminent degree to give a healthy tone, not only to our literature, but to public opinion.

It will enable us to possess, in a moderate compass, a select library of the best productions of the age. It will do more; it will redeem our periodical literature from the reproach of being devoted to light and superficial reading; to transitory speculations, and sickly and ephemeral sentimentalities, and false and extravagant sketches of life and character.

New York, 7th May, 1841. I improve very much of the plan of the "Living Age," and if it be conducted with the intelligence, spirit and taste that the prospectus indicates, (of which I have no reason to doubt,) it will be one of the most instructive and popular periodicals of the day.

WASHINGTON, 27 Dec. 1845. In all the Periodicals which abound in Europe and in this country, this has appeared to me the most useful. It contains indeed the exposition only of the current literature of the English language, but this, by its immense extent and comprehension, includes a portrait of the human mind in the utmost expansion of the present age.

J. Q. ADAMS. PROSPECTUS. This work is conducted in the spirit of Little's Museum of Foreign Literature, (which was favorably received by the public for twenty years,) but as it is twice as large, and appears so often, we not only give spirit and freshness to it by many things which were excluded by a month's delay, but while thus extending our scope and gathering a greater and more attractive variety, are able so to increase the solid and substantial part of our literary, historical, and political harvest, as fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The elaborate and stately Essays of the Edinburgh Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on Poetry, his keen political Commentaries, highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to Literature, History, and Common Life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the Judicious Athenaeum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University News Monthly, Fraser's, Tail's, Annswoth's Hood's, & Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers' admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wisdom from Punch; and when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of the Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

The steamship has brought Europe, Asia, and Africa into our neighborhood and will greatly multiply our connections, as Merchants, Travelers, and Politicians, with all parts of the world so that much more than ever it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the condition and changes of foreign countries. And this not only because of their nearer connection with ourselves, but because the nations seem to be hastening, through a rapid process of change, to some new state of things, which the merely political prophet cannot compute or foresee.

Geographical Discoveries, the progress of Colonization, (which is extending over the whole world,) and Voyages and Travels, will be favorite matter for our selections; and, in general, we shall systematically and very fully acquaint our readers with the great department of Foreign affairs, without entirely neglecting our own.

While we aspire to make the Living Age desirable to all who wish to keep themselves informed of the rapid progress of the movement—to Statesmen, Divines, Lawyers, and Physicians—to men of business and men of leisure—it is still a stronger object to make it attractive and useful to their Wives and Children. We believe that we can thus do some good in our day and generation; and hope to make the work indispensable in every well-informed family. We say indispensable, because in this day of cheap literature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is bad taste and vicious in morals, in any other way than by furnishing a sufficient supply of a healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

We hope that, by "renewing the wheat from the chaff," by providing abundantly for the imagination, and by a large collection of Biography, Voyages, Travels, History, and more solid matter, we may produce a work which shall be popular, while at the same time it will aspire to raise the standard of public taste.

The Living Age is published every Saturday, by E. Littell & Co., corner Tremont and Bromfield sts., Boston; Price 12 1/2 cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remittances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

Postage Free. To all subscribers within 1500 miles, who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication at Boston, the sum of Six Dollars, we will continue the work beyond the year, as long as shall be equivalent to the cost of postage—thus virtually carrying out the plan of sending every man's copy to him Postage Free; placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us; and making the whole country our neighborhood.

We hope for such future change in the law, or the interpretation thereof, as will enable us to make this offer to subscribers at any distance.

Complete sets of the First Series, in thirty volumes, to the end of September, 1851, handsomely bound, packed in neat boxes and delivered in all the principal cities, free of expense of freight, are for sale at $60.

Any volume may be had separately at $2, bound, or a dollar and a half in numbers. Any number may be had for 12 1/2 cents; and it may be worth while for subscribers or purchasers to complete any broken volumes they may have, and thus greatly enhance their value.

Binding.—We bind the work in a uniform, strong, and good style, and where customers bring their numbers in good order, can generally give them bound volumes in exchange without any delay. The price of the binding is 50 cents a volume. As they are always bound to one pattern, there will be no difficulty in matching the future volumes.

For sale in Stroudsburg, by T. Schick, E. LITTELL & CO., Boston.

Mutual Fire Insurance Comp'y.

The rate of Insurance is one dollar on the thousand dollars insured, after which payment no subsequent tax will be levied, except to cover actual loss or damage by fire, that may fall upon members of the company.

The net profits arising from interest or otherwise, will be ascertained yearly, for which each member in proportion to his, her, or their deposit, will have a credit in the company. Each insurer in or with the said company will be a member thereof during the term of his or her policy. The principle of Mutual Insurance has been thoroughly tested—has been tried by the unerring test of experience, and has proved successful and become very popular. It affords the greatest security against loss or damage by fire, on the most advantageous and reasonable terms.

Applications for Insurance to be made in person, or by letters addressed to JAMES H. WALTON, Sec'y.

MANAGERS. John Edinger, John S. Heiler, Andrew Storm, James H. Walton, Silas L. Drake, M. H. Dreher, Geo. B. Keller, Richard S. Staples, Robert Boys, Joseph Trach, Jacob Stouffer, Charles D. Brodhead, Michael Shoemaker.
