Most Revolting Murder. We believe we have never had occasion to notice an occurrance in our section of the State, that gave rise to general melancholy and indignant consternation, as pervaded the public mind on Saturday morning last, on the announcement that Mr. Louis Reese, a citizen of this borough, had been murdered, on the Kingston flats, during the afternoon of Friday, the day previous, Oct. 1st. Mr. Reese kept a Clothing Store, on the Public Square, next door to Steel s Hotel. We learn that on Friday afternoon a young man, named REES EVANS, who was indebted in a small amount to Mr. Reese, called at his Store and purchased a suit of clothes, saying that if Mr. Reese would accompany him to the House of Mr. Lazarus in Kingston, not quite one mile distant, he would get the money and pay both demands. They left together, between 3 and 4 o'clock P. M. and were seen by various persons on the road between this Borough and the residence of Mr. Lazarus' and by one person not far from the house. Mr. Reese not returning home that night, painful suspicious were entertained, and search was made for him. His body was found on Saturday morning in a hollow, or low spot of ground, shot dead. The Ball had entered the upper part of the neck, on the back side, and was found about three inches from the surface. The body had been dragged about 6 feet, into the hollow, in which was some brush. It had been robbed of a gold watch and some money. Near the body was found a pistol which was empty. The report of a pistol was heard about 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

This was the most cold blooded, and bold murder, we have ever recorded. It was committed at open day-in an openfield-within 80 rods of a dwelling, and almost midway between Wilkes-barre and Kingston, and so near that a gun or pistol could not be fired there without being' heard at both places. What took the debe imagined.

On Sanday the Coroner held an Inquest over the body. The jury readily came murdred by Rees Evans.

The murdered man was a quiet unobtrusive, respectable Jew. The anguish of the frantic wife cannot be described .- ple, Richard Hildreth, Hon. Edw. Everett, Jackson-at the house of John Osterhoudt, The only child is too young to share her sorrow. She has the sympathy, warmly, of an excited community.

Evans was first noticed at the place where he crossed the river, about four miles above this. He took Stage at Pittston, about 51 o'clock same evening, and rested near Dundaff by the Constable of Curbondale, and delivered into the custody of William R. Hoyt, of this Borough, on Saturday evening. Mr. Hoyt took from Evans the murdered man's watch, which he found about him, and some money, and brought him to near Hyde Park, when he made his escape. Such is the excitement in reference to the escape, that we forbear to give any of the flying rumors of particulars.

On Sunday evening, Evans was arrested in Benton Township by James Brundage, O. N. Halsted, and one or two others, at a house where he had put up .-He was brought to Wilkes-barre, on Monday afternoon, and after an examination before Justice Burrows, was committed

He is a young man; not over 18 years, of age. The deceased was aged 28 years.

PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON. Engraved (by permission) from Stuart's only original portrait, in the Athenum, Bos-

This superb picture. Engraved under the superintendence of Thomas Sully, Esq., the eminent and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been characterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to it indelity, we reper to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, George Washington Park Custis, who says, "it is a -faithful representation of the celebrated original," and to chief Justice Taney of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says, "As a work of art its excellence and beauty must strike every one who sees it : and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my boyhood, and his whole appearance is yet strongly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have issued appears to me to be an exact likeness, representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the lare." And says Senator Cass, it is a lifelike representation of the great original -President Fillmore says, 'the work appears to me to have been admirably executed and
