

Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania

By the following proclamation from Governor BIGLER, it will be seen that Thursday, the 25th inst., has been appointed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, throughout our Commonwealth:

Pennsylvania, ss:
In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, WILLIAM BIGLER, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

Fellow-Citizens:—The Almighty and merciful God has continued His guardianship over our Commonwealth during the year that is past. Except in a single community, which claims our sympathies, "the pestilence that walketh in darkness, and the destruction that wasteth at noon-day," have not had His leave to smite.—Health has generally prevailed. The tumult of internal strife has not been heard. Unexampled prosperity has attended the peaceful pursuits of our citizens. "Seed-time and harvest have returned." Our garners have been filled with the finest of the wheat. Our cup of blessings has overflowed. The educational institutions of our Commonwealth are growing in the affections of the people, developing the youthful mind, and elevating our National character. General intelligence and morality are on the advance. Our holy religion, through its own institutions, continues to exert its sacred influence on the public mind—to administer its consolations to the contrite and the pure, and inspire them with the hopes of immortality.

As a nation, we are at peace with all the world, and eminently prosperous.—The free institutions of our government have been strengthened by the trials of the past, and a brighter promise dawns upon the future. To God, most great and good, we owe all our blessings. To Him our thanks are due.

Under this solemn conviction, and in conformity with the wishes of many good citizens, I, William Bigler, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania do hereby appoint Thursday the twenty-fifth day of November, next, as a day of general Thanksgiving and Prayer throughout the State, and earnestly beseech the citizens of the Commonwealth, of all classes, that setting aside all worldly business on that day, they unite in offering thanks to almighty God for His blessings, and invoke the continuance of His goodness.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and of the Commonwealth the seventy-seventh.
By the Governor, E. S. GOODRICH,
Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Cuba and the United States.

Madrid correspondent of the Kölnische Zeitung writes under date of Oct. 3, that he knows from a sure source that the American Ambassador at the Court has lately renewed the offer of $180,000,000 made under Mr. Polk's administration, for the island of Cuba. The Ministry, after having made the matter the subject of special deliberation, replied that Spain no longer thought of parting with the island, but would employ her utmost power to keep it. As for the attempts of the filibusters to which the Ambassador had alluded in making his proposal, he no longer feared them, but was ready to suppress them as they should be made. The army in the island was strong, loyal and trustworthy, and the civil officers would prove faithful to the last. The reply concluded by requesting the Ambassador not to renew the proposal. The general belief at Madrid, says the writer, is that the filibustering reports are got up by the American Government, in order to induce Spain to sell the island. Accordingly, this reply of the Minister gives general satisfaction to the public of that City.

The Boston Mail states that the yearly income of a certain rich citizen of that town would pay twelve hundred farms.—His income, six per cent on his entire wealth, would amount, daily, to more than the wages of two hundred hard-working men. His income would buy a bottle of schneider, or a pair of boots every minute. Every breath, the old man takes is worth another nine-pence. His enormous capital commands the toil of one thousand laborers and mechanics yearly, to pay the interest.

There is a Company of sixteen men, the Bay State Company, in Oregon Canon, El Dorado County, California, who have already tunneled some 400 feet thro' a solid ledge of rocks, and expect to penetrate a hundred feet further before they get through. They have kept constantly at work since last March, and have not as yet taken out one cent! At the same time, from the very first week, their weekly assessments have been ten dollars each.—And yet they are in fine spirits. What a queer animal a Yankee is!

Valuable Timber Land AT PUBLIC SALE.

Will be sold at public sale, on Saturday, the 27th day of November next, at the house of Abram and Simon Barry, in Stroudsburg, at one o'clock, P. M., all that valuable tract of timber land, situate in Popular Valley, Stroud township, containing 51 Acres and 8 Perches, adjoining lands of Solomon Groner Peter Keller, John N. Staples and others.

This land is well covered with the finest quality of cheenut and other timber, of such size as to make it very valuable at this time, and the land is good for cultivation. It will be sold altogether, or in lots of ten acres each, as will best suit the purchasers. Terms reasonable and will be made known on the day of sale.
DEPUÉ S. MILLER.
November 11, 1852.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For the benefit of both colored and white people, I give to the public at large the character of one PHILIP R. LUM, a colored Preacher.

He came to Stroudsburg on or about the 26th of February, 1851, and left on the second day of July last. He was appointed Minister and Charge of the Church at Stroudsburg. He went about collecting money to pay for the building of our Church at this place, and appropriated the same to his own use, and also got in debt, which still remains unpaid, to the amount of 40 or 50 dollars. I understand that said Philip is now in Hudson City, N. Y. and deem it my duty to warn all good people to beware of this "wolf in sheeps clothing." He is now, I understand a stationed Minister in Hudson City, and has left his wife in Philadelphia, and is now living with another woman.

From his conduct here, verily he cannot have a spark of righteousness in him. If he is collecting money for our Church I warn you, one and all, to put no confidence in him. He has not been here since he left, notwithstanding his promise to the congregation to return in the course of three or four weeks.

Editors will promote the cause of justice by publishing the above.

Your ob't. serv't.

THE ONLY TRUE PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON.

JUST PUBLISHED.

T. B. Welch's Magnificent PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON.
Engraved (by permission) from Stuart's only original portrait, in the Athenum, Boston.

This superb picture, engraved under the superintendence of Thomas Sully, Esq., the eminent and highly gifted artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever published. It has been characterised as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fidelity, we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, George Washington Park Custis, who says, "it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original," and to chief Justice Taney of the Supreme Court of the United States, who says, "As a work of art its excellence and beauty must strike every one who sees it; and it is no less happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fortune to have seen him in the days of my boyhood, and his whole appearance is yet strongly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have issued appears to me to be an exact likeness, representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face." And says Senator Cass, "it is a life-like representation of the great original—President Fillmore says, 'the work appears to me to have been admirably executed and eminently worthy of the patronage of the public.'" Says Marchant the eminent portrait painter, and the pupil of Stuart, "your print to my mind is more remarkable than any other I have seen, for presenting the whole individuality of the original portrait, together with the noble and dignified repose of air and manner, which all who ever saw him considered a marked characteristic of the illustrious man it commemorates."

For the great merits of this picture we would refer every lover of Washington to the portrait itself, to be seen at the office of this paper, and to the letters of the following Artists, Statesmen, Jurists and Scholars accompanying it.

Artists.—Marchant and Elliot, of New York; Neagle, Rothermel, and Landblod, of Philadelphia; Chester Harding, of Boston; Charles Fraser, of Charleston, S. C.; and to the adopted son of Washington, Hon. Geo. W. P. Custis, himself an artist. Statesmen.—His Excellency Millard Fillmore, Major Gen. Winfield Scott, Hon. George M. Dallas, Hon. William R. King, Hon. Daniel Webster, Hon. Lynn Boyd, Hon. Lewis Cass, Hon. Wm. A. Graham, Hon. John P. Kennedy, Hon. R. C. Winthrop, LL. D.—Jurists.—Hon. Roger B. Taney, Hon. John Duer, Hon. John McLean, Hon. Rufus Choate

Scholars.—Charles Folsom, Esq., the well known Librarian of the Boston Athenaeum, who says, "I would rather own it than any painted copy I have ever seen." E. P. Whipple, Richard Hildreth, Hon. Esq. Everett, LL. D.; Jared Sprick, LL. D.; William H. Prescott, LL. D.; Washington Irving, Ralph W. Emerson, Esq., Prof. T. C. Upham, J. T. Headley, Fitz Green Halleck, H. W. Longfellow, Wm. Gilmore Simms; and from Europe, Lord Talford, T. B. Macanley, Sir Archibald Alison, Lord Mayor of London, &c. &c. &c. The Press, throughout the entire Union, have with one voice proclaimed the merits of this superb engraving.

To enable all to possess this valuable treasure, it is sold at the low price of $5 per copy. Published by GEORGE W. CHILDS, N. W. corner of Fifth & Arch sts., Phila. D. D. BYERLY.

BY THE
Horse Owner's Secret,
Being a new and certain remedy for the speedy

Cure of Heaves,
By SIR JAMES LYNDONTON,
Principal Farrier to his Royal Highness Prince Albert.

THE great discovery contained in this little work procured Sir James his Honorary. It is really worth its weight in gold to all who own or use Horses. It prescribes a Certain and positive cure for Heaves which any person can prepare. The remedy is better and cheaper than any advertised Heave Powder, and is perfectly safe, as any one can know who tries it. Horse owners know that many a valuable Horse loses half its price by this prevalent disease. The remedy prescribed in this work will cure him and increase his market value, besides relieving the poor beast of a horrible complaint, similar to the Asthma in a man. The public can depend on this work; it is no cathepenny humbug. The articles prescribed by Sir James are all cheap and can be had at any store. To prevent imposition the work will be sent in sealed envelopes. English price four shillings and three pence sterling.—American price, $1 per copy. Persons ordering Sir James' Work, are expected to confine his instructions to their own animals.—It will be sent to none others.

An American Horse Doctor approves of the above System! Read what he says:
APPLETON, Ohio, July 21, 1851
Mr. DUNBERTON,—I have tried your Secret for the cure of Heaves, and approve of it very much.
Yours, truly,

Stroudsburg and Easton

STAGE LINES.

The Stroudsburg and Easton mail line of stages, consists of excellent four horse coaches, and leaves J. J. Postens' Indian Queen Hotel, Stroudsburg, Pa. every day (except Sundays) at 7 o'clock A. M. arriving in Easton before the departure of the cars for New York, or stages to Bethlehem and Allentown.

The following lines leaves Postens' Indian Queen Hotel; Stroudsburg, Pa. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning on alternate days:

A line to Port Jervis, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M. via Bushkill, Dingman's Choice and Milford. Returning leaves Port Jervis immediately after the arrival of the morning train of cars to New York, at about 8 o'clock A. M.

A line to Mauch Chunk, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M. via Brodheadsville, where it connects with lines to Wilkes-Bare and White Haven.

A line to Scranton, leaving at 7 o'clock A. M. via Bartonsville, Tannersville, where it connects with a line to Honesdale, and connecting at Scranton with the cars for the west.

These lines hold out strong inducements to the traveling public—passing through sections of the country which are as magnificent and picturesque as any in the Union.

Having provided themselves with excellent coaches, good horses, and careful drivers, they feel confident that they will be enabled to give entire satisfaction to all who will patronize them.
