

Brutal Assault and Murder.

On Sunday night 7th inst., at Newark, N. J., a shocking and brutal assault upon a female was perpetrated by two or three ruffians. Early in the evening, Catherine, a German girl, who was a domestic in the family of Mr. Alexander Eagles, of No. 103 Orange-st., went to visit her sister. At about 9 o'clock that evening she was found in an open lot, on the west side of high-st., near Orange-st., insensible, her head badly cut with stones and bloody, and her person violated. She had evidently been first assaulted on the east side of the street by the villains; as a sharp stone, with clotted blood and hair, was found lying there, a pool of blood was upon the ground there, and her bonnet was found near the spot. There were marks showing that she had been dragged from that spot to the place where she was found. Some neighbors, hearing her groans, found her in that situation. The police were sent for, and physicians obtained. There were six cuts through the scalp. It was found necessary to remove ten or a dozen pieces of the skull bone.—She continued in an insensible condition until Tuesday morning, when she died.—It has been ascertained that she left the residence of her sister in Academy-st., to return home, in company with her brother, who went as far as the inclined plane; and on account of the rain she said she would go the remainder of the distance alone. No discovery has been made which may lead to the detection of the murderers, so far as is publicly known.

A Family in the Penitentiary.

Our readers will many of them recollect old ABRAHAM HAUSE, of Montour county, who had been for many years notorious as a dealer in Counterfeit money, and had previously been twice convicted of the offence and incarcerated into the Eastern Penitentiary of this state, was convicted in December for a third time, and sentenced to seven years in the Penitentiary, where he now is. About the same time his son-in-law Dr. GILTNER, was convicted of a similar offence, and sentenced to two years imprisonment in the Penitentiary—and last week his son LEWIS HAUSE, another member of the gang, was convicted in the Quarter Sessions of Montour county, and sentenced to an imprisonment of fifteen months in the same prison. In addition to these, JIM BRASS another son-in-law of Abraham Hause, has an indictment pending against him in the Quarter Sessions of Montour county, as one of the same gang, on which he is to be tried at the April term of that Court. Officers Bennett, Mirkel and Moser, who were instrumental in the arrests of these counterfeiters, brought with them yesterday, says the Philadelphia "Ledger" of Thursday, plates upon which the $2 Lancaster Bank, and $5 York Bank counterfeit notes were executed. The plates were recovered a few miles from the place where the party was taken into custody and brought to the city.

To whom it may concern--To the intelligent, the thoughtful, the philanthropic. Your attention is respectfully invited to a new, original, peculiar, and important work, of 450 pages 18 mo., and containing nearly one hundred engravings, and entitled,

ESOTERIC ANTHROPOLOGY,

BY T. L. NICHOLS, M. D.

PRINCIPAL of the American Hydropathic Institute, Educational and Therapeutic, at Portchester, N. Y., one hour's distance from New York city on the New York and New Haven Railroad. A comprehensive and confidential Treatise on the Structure, Functions, Passional Attractions and Perversions, True and False Physical and Social Conditions, and the most intimate Relations of Men and Women.

The title, Esoteric Anthropology, will seem strange to many, but it is thoroughly appropriate. Anthropology is from Anthropos, a man, and Logos, a description. Esoteric, from Eso, within, signifies private, secret, interior, and was used by the ancient philosophers to distinguish their private lectures, given in the interiors of their dwellings, upon the sacred mysteries of science and philosophy, to their chosen disciples, from their Exoteric discourses, which were given to the public. Esoteric Anthropology is, therefore, a private treatise on Human Anatomy, Physiology, Therapeutics and Obstetrics--on the whole science of man--plain in language, full and faithful in illustration, and written with all the frankness of a private letter, under the seal of professional confidence. It contains the highest and deepest truths in every department of Human Physiology, with their individual and social application; the true nature and hidden cause of Disease; the conditions of Health, physical and passional; all that information which every human being needs, which few dare ask for, or know how to obtain, but which, amid the discordances and deprivations of civilization, is of priceless value.

There are many subjects connected with the broad science of Human Life, of the deepest and most vital interest to man and the race, in regard to which a terrible ignorance every where prevails; an ignorance which is destroying the healths, shortening the lives, and sacrificing the happiness of millions--which threatens the power of nations, and the perpetuity of races.

Professional works on Physiology are dry, mechanical, or chemical, astonishingly ignorant, as well as technically incomprehensible. The popular works are superficial, meager, and necessarily wanting in the most important matters. The quack books are full of errors, false in science, absurd in philosophy, mischievous in morals, and basely mercenary in their motives. In most cases these books are the advertising medium of some specious charlatan, who wants patients, or letters of consultation, or who has some instrument to sell, or some nostrum to palm off upon the credulous.

The world has need of a different book from any of these--such a book as has never been written, and as cannot now be published in the usual way, sold by booksellers, or hawked by agents or peddlers. The author of Esoteric Anthropology, a Teacher, a Physician, a public and private Lecturer on all branches of Medical Science, has written this book with a frankness he never could have used in a work for the public, or one open to criticism. It is for his pupils and patients, for intelligent men and women, who wish to understand the deepest mysteries of life; especially it is for the noble and heroic few, who are brave enough to examine and accept new truths, and wise enough to profit by them. There can scarcely be any important question, which any man or woman can ever need to ask a physician, to which this volume does not contain an answer. It is so complete in this respect, that the author hopes and believes that no one who reads it will ever need to trouble himself with a professional consultation. It is henceforth his chosen method of medical instruction and practice, and in it he has performed the duty he owes mankind as a healer of the sick, a preserver of health, and a teacher of the Laws of Life.

Among the subjects treated of in this work, are the following: Man, and his relations to the Spiritual and Material Universe; Human Anatomy; the Chemistry of Man; Principles of Physiology and the Active Forces of Nature; The Three Groups of Functions, Organic, Animal, and Generative; The whole Philosophy and Processes of Reproduction; The True Law of Marriage The Conditions of Health; Causes of Disease; Curative Agencies; Processes of Water-cure; Diseases and Treatment; Passional Diseases; Diseases of the General System; Brain and Nerves; Respiration; Digestion; Generation; Gestation and Parturition; Lactation and the Management of Infancy, etc., etc., including every important condition and process from the beginning to the close of life, and containing especially--

- 1. A clear and amply illustrated view of the structure of the human body, and all its complex organism, male and female.
- 2. A full account of the functions of life, with such an illustrated description of the evolution of the embryo, as has not before been given.
- 3. All that is known of health and disease, with the means for the preservation of the former, and cure of the latter.
- 4. So careful an explanation of the whole process of gestation and childbirth, as will enable every woman to dispense with the services of a physician or professional midwife.

ESOTERIC ANTHROPOLOGY is plain and simple in language, full in illustration, as comprehensive as the utmost curiosity can wish, and without one line of quackery, or the remotest hinting at a fee. It must be evident that such a book, written with the necessary freedom, and illustrated with fullness and fidelity, must not be profaned. It is not for the counter, the book-stall, the library shelf, or the center table. It is not to be offered for curious examination, nor urged upon those who can not appreciate its value. It is advertised, that every one who needs it may obtain it, if he will. Whether the social proprieties be true or false, the author can not violate them, and he feels compelled to keep this book truly esoteric, a private work, to be sent as a confidential answer to a professional consultation, and he trusts that no person will apply for it who will not make it a point of honor to so consider it.

To all such persons it will be sent BY MAIL, to any designated address, POST PAID, on the receipt of One Dollar, sent, free of postage, to T. L. NICHOLS, M. D., Portchester, N. Y.
