We learn that on Saturday last, Mr. P. Ready, a constable of the town of Hornellsville, being charged with the execution of process against certain lawless individuals for disturbing a religious meeting, was resisted by those accused, with axe-helves, whereupon he drew a revolver and fired upon his assailants, killing one, and wounding another severely, in the arm or shoulder. He succeeded in arresting three others, who are now in jail awaiting the due course of law. This tragedy occurred in the west part of the town of Howard, in the neighborhood where the first offence was committed .-Public sentiment, and from all we can learn of the circumstances of the case, fully justify the officer in recording to the extreme measures he adopted, in the execution of his process.

The above we take from the Steuben Courier of the 26th, published in Bath .--We have since learned of a gentleman from Steuben County, that on the Jailor entering the cell of one of the prisoners, he was knocked down with the iron bar which the Jailor had taken down on en- Storm tering the cell, and that the Sheriff, on hearing the noise, came up and found the prisoner (who is described as a large and powerful man) in the hall. The Sheriff ordered him to go back to his cell, which he refused to do, and struck at the Sheriff with the bar. The Sheriff then told him that he should not leave the premises alive; and warned him not to attempt to strike again. The prisoner, however, disregarded the warning, and made a second attempt to knock the Sheriff down-the Sheriff avoided the blow, and told the prisoner that if he raised the bar again to strike him he (the Sheriff) would shoot him down. The warning was not regarded, and as the prisoner raised the bar the Sheriff discharged his pistol, shooting him through the heartand, of course, killing him instantly .---Our verdict is-'served him right.'-Binghamton Republican.

Erie Railroad.

This Company has recently negotiated a lean of $10,000,000, on foreign account, secured by mortgage bonds. Of this sum three millions is to be used in constructing about two hundred miles of double track, a measure urgently demanded by the increasing business of the road. Four millions are to be reserved for the re-inbursement of the second mortgage bonds. This leaves still three millions unissued .-The negotiation of this loan has had a favorable effect on the prospects of the road, and has given a decided advance to its stock .- Honesdale Democrat.

IT Butter .- The speculators in butter have had the tables turned upon them .-The farmers of the West, anticipating a great rise from the sudden demand for butter last summer raised by the speculators, held on to their butter a little too tenaciously. The article is now coming into the market in quantities, which can- What can be got for Fve Dollars!! not fail to put down the price very materially. The Buffalo Express says: "We heard, the other day, that butter had been sold at Cleveland for one-eighth of a dollar. We notice a marked decline in the New York market;' and the Albany Evening Journal, of Monday, says; 'Butter speculators have the blues. Their two shilling contrets and three shilling hopes, are likely to end in smoke. The very best article brought to market sells at 20 cents.'

The Fredonia Censor, states that a great reduction has taken place in Chautauque county, and that some lots for which 26 cents per pound was lately refused, are now selling at 16 cents in trade.
