THE UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE, ANNUITY, AND TRUST COMPANY.

Charter perpetual-Cash System-Capital $250,000.

OFFICE NO. 28, MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE

THIS Company is organized upon the "mixed principle," stock and mutual, which combined features offer to insured members double the usual security. The cash system of payments has also been adopted, thus avoiding the heavy drawtacks created by unpaid premium notes. The table rates of premium, upon which its policies are being issued, is the only scale experience. has proven should be adopted as affording requisite security to the insured, and an undoubted guaranty of the perpetuity of such institutions. Life insurance, very properly, is arresting the attention of the world. The public however, in their commendable willingness to em-brace and employ its wise and salutary provisions, crace and employ its wise and satulary provisions, should make ultimate security the primary and inost important object, which can only be attained by so adjusting the premiums as to anticipate unexpected losses and fluctuations of every kind. It is the purpose of this company annually to credit, upon the policies of the holders and books of the company such an amount of profits as shall not affect the stability or impair the sacredness of its contracts. or impair the sacredness of its contracts;—thus the holder of a policy of severally ears standing may be entitled to an amount considerably exceeding the original insurance. Premiums may, at the option of the insured, be made annually, semi-annually, or quarterly. Policies will at all times be purchased by the company at a fair valuation. Married women can insure the lives of their husbands free from the claims of creditors. A creditor may insure the life of a debtor. Insurance may be effected for a term of years of for life; also on two joint lives, the money to be paid on the death of the first or last. The following is a sample of the rates per annum:
