

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

Per year, in advance, $1 50
Otherwise, 2 00

No subscription will be discontinued until all arrears are paid. Postmaster's notice to notify us when subscribers do not take cut their papers will be held liable for the subscription.

All communications intended for publication in this paper must be accompanied by the real name of the writer, and for publication, but as guarantors of good faith.

Marriage and death notices must be accompanied by a responsible name. Address: THE BUTLER CITIZEN, BUTLER, PA.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE.

BUTLER, KANSAS CITY AND PARKER RAILROAD (Butler Time). Trains leave Butler for St. Joe, Millerstown, Kansas City, Petrolia, Parker, etc., at 7:25 a.m., 9:55 a.m., and 2:05 and 7:15 p.m.

THE MORNING LETTER. Trains leave Butler for St. Joe, Millerstown, Kansas City, Petrolia, Parker, etc., at 7:25 a.m., 9:55 a.m., and 2:05 and 7:15 p.m.

EXPRESS. Trains leave Butler for St. Joe, Millerstown, Kansas City, Petrolia, Parker, etc., at 7:25 a.m., 9:55 a.m., and 2:05 and 7:15 p.m.

MAIL. Trains leave Butler for St. Joe, Millerstown, Kansas City, Petrolia, Parker, etc., at 7:25 a.m., 9:55 a.m., and 2:05 and 7:15 p.m.

FINANCIAL. Invested in Wall St. stocks makes fortunes every month. Book sent free explaining everything.

PHYSICIANS. JOHN E. BYERS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, BUTLER, PA.

EDUCATIONAL. Allegheny Collegiate Institute FOR YOUNG LADIES. ALLEGHENY CITY, 30 Stockton Ave.

Pennsylvania Female College, EAST END, PITTSBURGH. A first class college for women. Educational standard high. Advantages complete.

JEFFERSON ACADEMY, CANONSVILLE, PA. Thorough preparation for college; good English and business education.

Thiel College OF THE Evangelical Lutheran Church. 1014 COLLEGIATE YEAR BOOKS SEP. 11th, 1879.

DENTISTS. WALDRON, Graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College, is prepared to do anything in the line of his profession in a satisfactory manner.

Dr. Quincy A. Scott, SURGEON DENTIST. HAS REMOVED TO SIX FINE OFFICES, AT No. 30 FIFTH AVENUE.

JOS. BRUFF, WITH Schmidt & Friday, 384 & 396 PENN AVE., PITTSBURGH.

WINE AND LIQUORS. Foreign Wines and Liquors.

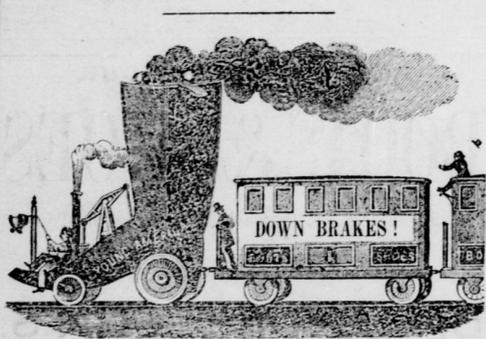

Butler Citizen

Citizen

VOL. XVI. BUTLER, PA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1879. NO. 42.

WE HAVE THE TRACK!

This Train Unloads Its Immense Cargo OF BOOTS AND SHOES

AT THE NEW STORE OF JOHN BICKEL, UNION BLOCK,

Main Street, - - - - - Butler, Pa.

Having just returned from the East with one of the most complete assortments of

Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers, &c.,

ever brought to Butler, I will be enabled to dispose of the same at greatly REDUCED PRICES.

It is unnecessary to designate the different qualities and makes of the Boots, Shoes, &c., to be found in my store, in an advertisement. A personal inspection will enable all to see that my stock is inferior to none in Butler.

Suffice it to say, I have all kinds of guaranteed to be equal in make, quality and finish to any found elsewhere.

Men's, Women's and Children's Wear,

Leather and Findings of all qualities, which will be supplied to Shoemakers at unexceptional prices.

CALL AND SEE US.

1870. THE THIRD 1870.

Pittsburgh Exposition.

Will open at their Buildings and Grounds in the City of Allegheny,

September 4th, 1879,

and continue open Day and Evening, Sundays excepted, to OCTOBER 11th, 1879.

Greater attractions than any previous year. A perfect reflex of the

NEW AND STAFFLING ATTRACTIONS.

THE COLLOSSAL MAMMOTH, or Siberian Elephant, standing 16 feet high and 26 feet in length; together with an immense collection of Wild Beasts and Skeletons.

PROF. GEO. B. CHAMBERLAIN, THE FAMOUS AMERICAN TRAVELER, will give Illustrations each evening, illustrating the beauties of European and American scenery, the most famous scenery of the Old World, rivaling the wondrous beauties of nature, and the splendors of nations in great variety.

CAPT. BOGARDUS & SON, Champion Shot Gun and Rifle shops of the Nation, will shoot Day and Evening, from SEPTEMBER 18th to OCTOBER 2nd. A GRAND SHOOTING TOURNAMENT FOR PRIZES, premiums to and after the engagement of Capt. Bogardus and Son.

A QUARTER MILE BICYCLE TRACK on the enlarged grounds has been constructed for daily tournaments and races.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT will illuminate Park Hill and the Grounds each evening.

FLORAL HALL transformed into a fairy like grotto, with cascades, fountains, Alpine scenery planted with the rarest of flowers and exotics, forming an enchanting scene.

THE BULLDOGS filled to overflowing with Exhibits, surpassing any thing of the kind ever seen in Pittsburgh.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC CONFORT.

Excursion Rates.

General Admission to the Exhibition, 25 Cents.

Children less than Twelve Years of Age, 15 Cents.

E. P. YOUNG, GEN. MANAGER. J. C. PATTERSON, SECRETARY.

Can. Bulk. OYSTERS. and Shell.

E. REINEMAN & SON, Oyster Packers and Game Dealers.

Sole Agents for the following celebrated and reliable brands of Game Oysters:

CANS—JAMES R. STANBURY'S SEA SIDE FISH BRAND; W. L. ELLIS & CO.'S SPAN BRAND; FROST'S BRAND'S SEA SIDE FISH BRAND; W. E. ELLIS & CO.'S SPAN BRAND; SCHLEGEL & JAMISON'S CAPE MAY SALTS; CAPT. GEORGE A. RAYSON'S HUNGAN'S GREENS AND CHERRY SPICES.

The season for Oysters is now open, and from present indications the quality and supply will be good.

We will at all times be prepared to ship them in Cans, Tubs, or in the Shell, to any point where there are facilities for delivery.

The greatest care will be taken in preparing Oysters for shipment, so that they will be in good condition.

Our facilities for handling FRESH OYSTERS are the best in our city, having large cooling room and refrigerator, built after the latest and most approved pattern, thoroughly completing our already ample arrangements for filling orders, large or small.

Parties ordering from us can depend on getting strictly fresh stock at all times, as we receive by Express daily our supply of pure LITON of our well-known brands, which we sell at all times, supply to the trade at BALTIMORE PRICES, freight added.

We are determined that our brands shall not be excelled, either in quality or bill of cans, by any other, during the season.

Elaborate and attractive posters featuring grades on application.

We take the liberty of soliciting your patronage, promising that no exertion shall be spared to maintain the reputation won in past years.

Yours respectfully, E. REINEMAN & SON, 129 LIBERTY STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA.

SCHOENECK & GLOSE, FURNITURE!

Are offering this Fall Extraordinary Inducements to Purchasers.

As they manufacture every article in their line, they are enabled to sell at much lower prices than any other house west of New York.

Do not fail to call in before purchasing elsewhere, and examine their large and well displayed assortment of Parlor, Chamber, Office and Dining Furniture.

Kitchen Furniture of every description always on hand. Also, Mattresses of all kinds. Furniture made to order and satisfaction guaranteed in every particular.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH JUBILEE

THE LAW OF 1792—THE GERMAN WAY—THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY—HISTORICAL FACTS—THE DECORATIONS.

In the month of April 1792, subsequent to the subjugation of European troops in America, was enacted a law that opened out to emigrants the magnificent territory north and west of the Ohio—a territory long previous the scene of battle between the French and English soldiers.

These thirty Germans had no sooner conquered the giants of the forest than true to the spirit of their education and loyal to that Church which had secured for them liberty of thought and act in accord with the dictates of a pure teaching of the Word of God, they sought to have their children separated from the great masses of them.

As a multitude was too immense to find room inside the historian, Rev. D. Luther Roth, of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, to whom the work of collecting the history had been entrusted, mounted a log cabin and read in a loud clear voice a history of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Lancaster township, Pennsylvania.

The history was a most interesting and amusing incident. According to the historian, the first Lutheran minister was one named Moeckenhaupt, who was a veritable Melchisedek, having no previous, no subsequent history. The first organization was made in the year 1820, shortly after the advent of Rev. Christian Gottlieb Schweizerbarth, who served this people for twenty-nine years.

This pastor, who makes the following quaint record: "In the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Bishop Schweizerbarth" was a bright and shining light, whose luster added radiance to the glory of the Day of Judgment.

On Thursday evening, the evening previous to the Day of Jubilee, a sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by Rev. T. B. R. of Leica, N. Y. The theme was "The Divine Word of Christ is the foundation of all things and of the Church."

The Jubilee Day dawned fair and favoring. The rains of the previous days instead of dampening the ardor of an enthused people tempered the atmosphere and settled the dust. The elements conspired with the occasion to perfect the joyous emotions of those coming to join in the celebration.

After this service the boys from Prospect with horns, drums, and cymbals sounded a call to dinner. It was a call considerable more harmonious than the shrill voice of some provoked dame calling the good man to the burnt brock.

Heeding the call we surrounded a table that was fit for a king. Arranged with consummate skill it was preeminently the best of its kind. In shape an L, which letter represented the initial letter of the word LIBERTY.

During the general melee at the table the writer undertook to view the decorations, in which, though extensive without and within, scarce a fault was found. The rough stone walls of the front were draped from foundation to roof with festoons of evergreen. In the gable was the old marble slab and the inscription

WHAT CONSTITUTES LIBEL?

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS—CAN A MINISTER'S ACTIONS BE CRITICISED, LIKE ANY OTHER PUBLIC MAN?—THE CASE OF REV. LLOYD MORGAN.

The most interesting libel suit that has been on trial for some time is that of Rev. Lloyd Morgan vs. the Pittsburgh Leader. Sessions are being held day and night in Kittanning.

The prosecution is of unusual interest, as it brings prominently into public notice questions concerning the meaning of that clause in the Constitution which relates to the press.

The defendants claiming that they can prove the truth of most of their statements rely upon this fact and expect to justify their course both as to the facts and the absence of malice and negligence.

It was clear from the great extent of testimony gotten up by the defendants, from their pleadings and from the opening of Judge Painter that they intended to ask for the fullest scope in being allowed to prove that the charges published against the prosecutor were true, and that they were not published with any malicious intent.

We offer to prove by the witness on the stand that the matter alleged to be libelous was published by him in the Leader in good faith, with care, and the jury should so find, it would be a proper matter for the Court to know to what extent they have been maliciously or lightly made.

"How fast do you think we are traveling?" Charley Fraser, one of the oldest engineers of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railway, asked a San reporter as they were standing together on the foot board of Locomotive No. 309, rushing over the meadows toward Rutherford Park.

"I should think we were going nearly a mile a minute," said Fraser. "I doubt if you ever rode a mile a minute. Few locomotives have the driving wheels over five feet, and I have my doubts if a five-foot wheel can be pushed a mile a minute."

"A mile a minute!" said Fraser. "I doubt if you ever rode a mile a minute. Few locomotives have the driving wheels over five feet, and I have my doubts if a five-foot wheel can be pushed a mile a minute."

Two CHRISTIAN NAMES.—The custom of persons bearing two "Christian names" is of comparatively recent origin in England. An author, who has had occasion to search many volumes of old country records, and who has seen "many thousands and tens of thousands of proper names belonging to men of all ranks and degrees," says that in no instance, down to the end of the reign of Anne, has he found a mention made of any person having more than one Christian name.

It has been decided long since that Christianity is a part of the common law of this Commonwealth. It is at the foundation of the law of all Christian governments. The teaching of its principles is encouraged by express

THE OLD-FASHIONED GIRL.

(Selected for the Citizen.)

The old-fashioned girl that flourished thirty years ago was a little girl until she was fifteen. She used to help her mother to wash the dishes and keep the kitchen tidy, and she had an ambition to make pies so nicely that papa could not tell the difference between them and mama's; and yet she could fry griddle cakes at ten years of age, and darn her own stockings before she was twelve, to say nothing of knitting them herself.

She had her hours of play and enjoyed herself to the fullest extent. She had no very costly toys, to be sure, but her baby doll and little bureau and chair that Uncle Tom made, were just as valuable to her as the $20 wax doll and elegant doll furniture the children have nowadays.

She never said "I can't," and "I don't want to," to her mother, when asked to leave her play and run up stairs to get her school books, because she had not been brought up that way. Obedience was a cardinal virtue in the old-fashioned little girl.

She rose in the morning when she called, and went out into the garden and saw the dew on the grass, and if she lived in the country, she fed the chickens and hunted up the eggs for breakfast. We do not suppose she had her hair in curl papers, crimping pins, or had it "banged" over her forehead, and her flowers were no trouble to her.

She learned to sew by making patchwork, and we dare say she could do an "over and over" seam as well as nine-tenths of grown up women do nowadays.

The old-fashioned little girl did not grow into a young lady and talk about beaux before she was in her teens, and she did not read dime novels, and was facing a hero in every plow boy she met. She learned the solid accomplishments as she grew up. She was keeping the arts of cooking and house-keeping. When she got a husband she knew how to cook him a dinner.

She was not learned in French verbs or Latin declensions, and her near neighbors were spared the agony of hearing her pour out "The Maiden's Prayer," and "Silvia's Threats." Among the "Godey's" twice a day on the piano, but we have no doubt she made her family quite as comfortable as the modern young lady does hers. It may be a vulgar assertion, and we suppose that we are not exactly up with the times, but we honestly believe, and our opinion is based on considerable experience, and on opportunity for observation, that when it comes to keeping a family happy a good cook and housekeeper is to be greatly preferred to an accomplished scholar.

When both sets of qualities are found together, as they sometimes are, then is the household over which such a woman presides, and she stands modest in her demeanor, and she never talked slang or used by-words. She did not laugh at old people or make fun of cripples, as we saw some modern girls doing the other day. She had respect for elders, and was not above listening to words of counsel from those older than herself. She did not think she knew as much as her mother, and that her judgment was as good as her grandmother's.

She did not go to parties by the time she was ten and stay till after midnight playing euchre and dancing with any chance young man who happened to be present in the parlour. She went to bed in season, and slept the sleep of innocence, and rose up in the morning happy and capable of giving happiness.

And if there was an old-fashioned little girl in the world to-day may heaven bless her and keep her, and raise up others like her.

A MILE A MINUTE.

How fast do you think we are traveling? Charley Fraser, one of the oldest engineers of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railway, asked a San reporter as they were standing together on the foot board of Locomotive No. 309, rushing over the meadows toward Rutherford Park.

"I should think we were going nearly a mile a minute," said Fraser. "I doubt if you ever rode a mile a minute. Few locomotives have the driving wheels over five feet, and I have my doubts if a five-foot wheel can be pushed a mile a minute."

"A mile a minute!" said Fraser. "I doubt if you ever rode a mile a minute. Few locomotives have the driving wheels over five feet, and I have my doubts if a five-foot wheel can be pushed a mile a minute."

Two CHRISTIAN NAMES.—The custom of persons bearing two "Christian names" is of comparatively recent origin in England. An author, who has had occasion to search many volumes of old country records, and who has seen "many thousands and tens of thousands of proper names belonging to men of all ranks and degrees," says that in no instance, down to the end of the reign of Anne, has he found a mention made of any person having more than one Christian name.

It has been decided long since that Christianity is a part of the common law of this Commonwealth. It is at the foundation of the law of all Christian governments. The teaching of its principles is encouraged by express

During the general melee at the table the writer undertook to view the decorations, in which, though extensive without and within, scarce a fault was found. The rough stone walls of the front were draped from foundation to roof with festoons of evergreen. In the gable was the old marble slab and the inscription

Underneath, in large characters en-

ADVERTISING RATES.

One square, one insertion, $1; each subsequent insertion, 50 cents. Yearly advertisements exceeding one-fourth of a column, $5 per inch. Figure work double these rates; additional charges for weekly or monthly changes are made. Local advertisements 10 cents per line the first insertion, and 5 cents per line for each additional insertion. Marriage notices published free of charge. Obituary notices charged as advertisements, and not when handled by Auditors' Notices, $3 each; Extraordinary and Administration Notices, not exceeding ten lines, $2 each.

From the fact that the CITIZEN is the oldest established and most extensively circulated Republican newspaper in Butler county, (a Republican county) it must be apparent to business men that in the medium they should use in advertising their business.

THE OLD-FASHIONED GIRL.

(Selected for the Citizen.)

The old-fashioned girl that flourished thirty years ago was a little girl until she was fifteen. She used to help her mother to wash the dishes and keep the kitchen tidy, and she had an ambition to make pies so nicely that papa could not tell the difference between them and mama's; and yet she could fry griddle cakes at ten years of age, and darn her own stockings before she was twelve, to say nothing of knitting them herself.

She had her hours of play and enjoyed herself to the fullest extent. She had no very costly toys, to be sure, but her baby doll and little bureau and chair that Uncle Tom made, were just as valuable to her as the $20 wax doll and elegant doll furniture the children have nowadays.

She never said "I can't," and "I don't want to," to her mother, when asked to leave her play and run up stairs to get her school books, because she had not been brought up that way. Obedience was a cardinal virtue in the old-fashioned little girl.

She rose in the morning when she called, and went out into the garden and saw the dew on the grass, and if she lived in the country, she fed the chickens and hunted up the eggs for breakfast. We do not suppose she had her hair in curl papers, crimping pins, or had it "banged" over her forehead, and her flowers were no trouble to her.

She learned to sew by making patchwork, and we dare say she could do an "over and over" seam as well as nine-tenths of grown up women do nowadays.

The old-fashioned little girl did not grow into a young lady and talk about beaux before she was in her teens, and she did not read dime novels, and was facing a hero in every plow boy she met. She learned the solid accomplishments as she grew up. She was keeping the arts of cooking and house-keeping. When she got a husband she knew how to cook him a dinner.

She was not learned in French verbs or Latin declensions, and her near neighbors were spared the agony of hearing her pour out "The Maiden's Prayer," and "Silvia's Threats." Among the "Godey's" twice a day on the piano, but we have no doubt she made her family quite as comfortable as the modern young lady does hers. It may be a vulgar assertion, and we suppose that we are not exactly up with the times, but we honestly believe, and our opinion is based on considerable experience, and on opportunity for observation, that when it comes to keeping a family happy a good cook and housekeeper is to be greatly preferred to an accomplished scholar.

When both sets of qualities are found together, as they sometimes are, then is the household over which such a woman presides, and she stands modest in her demeanor, and she never talked slang or used by-words. She did not laugh at old people or make fun of cripples, as we saw some modern girls doing the other day. She had respect for elders, and was not above listening to words of counsel from those older than herself. She did not think she knew as much as her mother, and that her judgment was as good as her grandmother's.

She did not go to parties by the time she was ten and stay till after midnight playing euchre and dancing with any chance young man who happened to be present in the parlour. She went to bed in season, and slept the sleep of innocence, and rose up in the morning happy and capable of giving happiness.

And if there was an old-fashioned little girl in the world to-day may heaven bless her and keep her, and raise up others like her.