County Ticket. FOR JURY COMMISSIONER, J. Wesley Monks,

OF MIDDLESEX. Oню election next Tuesday

THE coinage at the Philadelphia mint in September was: Silver dollars, $1,808,050; minor coins, $14,737.

A VERY slight mistake of a tele graph operator made President Hayes die the other day instead of dine at a town in Kansas.

REV. G. W. CRITCHLOW, of Pros pect, preached in the English Lutheran Church of this place, last Sunday week, two very acceptable sermons.

THERE is now but little doubt that Butler county will soon again come to the front as an oil county, and outdo McKean county and all other parts.

THE weather recently has been very pleasant and favorable to the farmers for gathering in their crops of corn, potatoes and buckwheat, all of which are good in this county. The fields of corn stand thick with shocks, now being husked and taken in. The buckwheat is being threshed and the flour put into market, a fact very pleasing out entering such bridge on record as them away. Their numbers, however, to all lovers of our world-renowned
