

BUTLER CITIZEN.

JOHN H. & W. C. NEBLEY, PROP'RS.

The proceedings of the Teachers' Institute has prevented the appearance of several other matters this week.

At the opening of the polls yesterday morning the Democrats were first upon the ground, "to vote early," but not "to vote often," we hope.

As generally it takes the election officers of this borough until late in the night to complete the count of votes, we could not delay publication for results.

The vote in this State for Governor last year, was: Republican, 319,490; Democrat, 297,137; Greenback, 81,758; Prohibition, 3,757; making an aggregate of 702,144.

October 31st was the anniversary of the great Reformation, or rather of the day on which Luther nailed his celebrated 95 protests to the door of his church, on Oct. 31, 1517, being 362 years ago.

We have received the first number of the Atwood Pioneer, published at Atwood, Kansas, by the Rev. A. S. Thorne, formerly of the Millerstown Review, this county.

About the first of November the weather began to change here, finding us on Monday morning of this week with two or three inches of snow upon the ground and the winds blowing.

Death of Gen. Hooker. Gen. Joseph Hooker died at his residence near New York City, on Friday last, 31st ult. He had been an invalid for some time, and his death was not unexpected.

In addition to Pennsylvania elections were held in the following States on yesterday: New York, Massachusetts, Maryland, Mississippi, Minnesota, Wisconsin and New Jersey.

We had the pleasure of seeing in this place last week the gentleman whose name heads this article. He came as State Superintendent of our Common Schools to make an address before the Teachers' Institute, of this county, then in session, and on Thursday evening last spoke in the Court House to a large audience as ever assembled in that building.

Senator Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan, died suddenly in the city of Chicago last Saturday morning, at the age of 66 years. He had been actively engaged in the pending elections of this year and had made one of his characteristic and able speeches in that city the evening before.

Brain Postoffice Case.

William Humason was tried in the U. S. District Court, at Pittsburgh, last week, on a charge of taking $27 from a registered letter mailed at the Brain office, Martinsburg, this county.

Thanksgiving Day—November 27. TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Proceedings of the Institute for '79.

Teachers' Institute of Butler county met in the Court House, Butler, Oct. 27, 1879. Supt. McKee acting as Chairman, and after music by the choir, Rev. Stauffer led in prayer.

Dr. Mr. English send me some medicine to numb my male I feel just as I did when I was in last Sunday.

Institute met and was called to order by the Chairman, Superintendent McKee. Opened with a song by the choir, entitled, "Opening Glee," after which a paper was read by Mr. Murphy, of Freeport, styled the "School-room Journal."

Meeting opened with Scripture reading and prayer by S. M. Croen. Roll call by Secretary, J. H. Murland. Music by choir. Questions for discussion, "Are Public or Private Schools to be Preferred?"

At 11 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Supt. McKee. Opened with a song by the choir, entitled "Lullaby." Recitation by Miss Ella Murtland, subject, "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight."

At a little after three o'clock yesterday morning the cry of fire—always terribly ominous of evil—was heard in hot haste from their beds, and soon the streets were swarming with half-clad humanity, while a lurid glare in the very heart of the First ward drew the people to that spot, where the building owned by lawyer J. T. Smullen, and occupied by J. Walrobenstein as a wholesale liquor store, and located on a lot bounded by the streets of Munn & Co., 27 Park Row, New York.

Terrible Fire at Parker.

A great fire broke out at Parker City last Thursday morning about 3 o'clock. It was discovered by the buildings of John Smullen and Jacob Walrobenstein. The first alarm was given by Nightwatchman Cummings, and in a very few minutes the fire companies were on hand with hose laid, but could not get water enough to supply one steamer.

On the south it swept C. Ahlquist's tailor shop, M. Riedinger's saloon, the drug store of W. B. Krossop, the residence of J. Smaulen, J. O'Brien's hotel, J. Normie's residence, the Pittsburgh Hotel, and the office of the Union Express Company.

On the other side of the railroad seven small frame buildings, including the large barn of the Union Express Company, were also destroyed.

At 11 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Supt. McKee. Opened with a song by the choir, entitled "Lullaby." Recitation by Miss Ella Murtland, subject, "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight."
