Republican State Nominations.

FOR JUDGE SUPREME COURT,
Hon. Henry Green,
OF NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL.

Hon. John A. Lemon,
OF BLAIR COUNTY.

Mr. WILLIAM H. WALTERS has been appointed Postmaster at Mars, this county.

The matter which a friend writing from Peachville enquires of us about is in Court, and we cannot, therefore, give him through the paper the opinion he requests.

The Mercer Index, heretofore a Greenback paper, has deserted that cause, for, as it says, a want of support, and will now support any Republican candidate for President, except Grant.

"Go away from home to hear the news," is again illustrated by our cotemporaries of the Meadville Republican, in its issue last week, when it says, "A new postoffice just established somewhere out in the wilds of Butler county, has been christened 'Pinafore.' We are not aware of any new postoffice in this county bearing the above musical name."

The Jury Commissioners, Messrs.
Monks and McCrea, with Judge Bre-din, finished last week their work of selecting jurors for the present year, having carefully selected one thousand names from the county for that purpose. They also drew from the same two hundred and eight names to serve as jurors for the coming March Court and other special Courts to be held before June. The list for the regular March Term will be seen in this paper.

GEORGE W. DELAMATER, Esq., of Crawford county, is the Presidential Electors for this district. The whole list for the State we have not yet been completed. The State Convention very prudently directed an inquiry to be made into the legal qualifications of these officers. As soon as the list is completed they will be announced.

Mr. WILLIAM H. RITTER, of this place, is the member of the State Central Committee.

BLAINE 113, Grant 133, is the way the vote stood on the direct question in the State Convention for President, only twenty of a difference and requiring only ten or eleven of a change to have changed the result. It is said, that more than that number of delegates actually violated their instructions for Blaine, while others, like those from our own county, helped to break him down by voting for Grant men to organize, rule and control the convention. Hence the question has arisen, do instructions instruct?

The Philadelphia Press, in speaking of the delegates in the Harrisburg State Convention says, among other things, that, "a few men fell by the way," and "The powerful influences brought to bear detached several men from their duties and their instructions, etc."

We are sorry to have it that, that the delegates from this county are reported among those who "fell by the way," and were "detached from their duties and their instructions." They are reported as voting with the Grant men in the organization of the Convention, which no Blaine delegate could honorably and justly do without violating his instructions and without incurring his cause. Our county Committee instructed Messrs. Greer, Mc-Kee and Fiedler, "to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Blaine." This they did not do when they voted with the Grant delegates for a Grant Chairman of the Convention as against the candidate proposed by the friends of Blaine. Much very often depends on who is Chairman in a close contest, as by his rulings and decisions he can turn matters to the advantage of friends or disadvantage of opponents.

Who Obey?
John I. Gordon, Esq., of Mercer, and Thomas Robinson, Esq., of this place, are the delegates from this congressional district to the Chicago National Convention that meets in June next to nominate the Republican candidate for President. They had both been previously appointed by their respective County Committees and were both instructed for Blaine. These instructions, in the opinion of all disinterested Republicans, are still binding upon them, the action of the State Convention, in instructing them otherwise, to the contrary notwithstanding.
Mr. Robinson is on record as to the soundness and right of this principle, to wit, that a State Convention has no power to reverse or ignore the wishes and action of a Congressional district in its choice for President in the National Convention. And in fact the late State Convention recognizes the justice of the principle by recognizing the delegates named by the counties in six or eight districts as the delegates to go to the National Convention.
This being the case we will see how Mr. Robinson will act at Chicago.
He professed to be strong for Blaine when appointed here and if he is true to his own doctrine he must vote for Blaine when he gets there. True, there are not many who believe he will do so. They argue his future by his past, and say that as he has heretofore betrayed and misrepresented the people of this county he will do so again. They think that it is "chronic" with him to do so. But in this case, with the whole three counties of this district, Butler, Mercer and Crawford, instructing their delegates to Chicago for Blaine, we cannot believe those instructions will be violated in the National Convention, and the more particularly as the whole proceedings at the late Harrisburg State Convention show that the so-called "unit rule" is a trap, anti-republican in principle and not to be respected, and in fact was not respected. Besides, the rule in our National Conventions expressly allows a delegate to vote of the voice of the particular district of a State he may represent, regardless of any assumed power outside of his constituents to give him instructions different from what they have given him.

The Republicans of this county will therefore watch closely to see what will be the outcome of this matter.

Mr. Gordon, we believe to be an honorable man, and one who will faithfully carry out the feelings and instructions of his own county of Mercer as well as of this and Crawford counties. They all instructed for Blaine for President, and did and will assert their right to be directly represented in the National Convention.
This right they asserted by naming their delegates to the National Convention, two of whom were finally agreed upon among themselves as the delegates to represent the district.
Other districts in the State claim the same right, and the National Republican Convention will recognize that right.

County Finances for 1879.
The County Auditors' Report, of the Receipts and Expenditures of the County for last year, perhaps should have a more extended notice than given last week. For ten years past we have been urging that a more itemized or detailed account should be given the people of the county of their finances. Last year the Auditors recommended a more detailed report by the County Commissioners, particularly in the matter of bridges, and the good result of this, is that this year we have given us an itemized statement of the bridge account for the past year. This is the commencing that will likely and should lead to the itemizing of the other expenditures of the county.
There is no reason why it should be confined to bridges. The taxpayers want a detailed statement of all bills and claims, for which warrants of the county were issued and redeemed. By looking at the "Amount of Warrants Redeemed" it will be noticed that there are other items, such as the "Printing," "Fox Sculpins," "Interest," "Borrowed Money," etc., that the taxpayers are much interested in. Our county report has not been as full as that given by other counties, and we therefore hope, as we say, that this year's report is but the commencing of the getting out of the old rut and the giving in the future of more detailed reports.

The Meaning of It.
The proceedings of the Republican State Convention will be found in another place. While a bare majority of the delegates were induced to vote for an expression in favor of Grant, yet the vigorous fight made by the friends of Blaine, and the closeness of the vote, render it not only no triumph but actually damaging to the cause of Grant. All who understand the matter know and see that Pennsylvania was and is for Blaine, and would have said so if the people had got fair play.
The meaning of the whole thing, therefore, is not Grant, but a triumph of Senator Cameron. Allegheny county turned the scale, while we have not the slightest doubt that two-thirds of her Republicans are to-day in sympathy with the Republicans of other western counties. But her Republican masses were not permitted to be heard.
Such things must have an end and soon will. One more victory for the machine politicians and they will be broken up and undone.

Republican State Convention.
HARRISBURG, Feb. 4.—The Republican State Convention met in the Opera House to-day, and was called to order at noon by Col. Hooten, Chairman of the State Central Committee. In accordance with the programme arranged at the caucus last night, S. H. Miller, of Mercer county, nominated Russell Errett, of Pittsburgh, for temporary chairman. Gen. Albright moved that the name of Geo. V. Lawrence, of Washington county, be substituted for that of Errett. A vote resulted in the election of Errett, he receiving 153 to 92 for Lawrence.

A committee on resolutions was appointed, consisting of one member from each Senatorial district.
Committees were also appointed on contested seats and permanent organization.

John Cessna offered a resolution that a committee of nine be appointed to report, subject to the approval of the convention, a list of delegates with their alternates to the Chicago convention, and a list of electors, after consulting with delegations from various districts.

Mr. Stewart, of Franklin, offered an amendment as follows: Resolved, That a committee of one be appointed from each Congressional District, whose duty it will be to report to the Convention the names of four delegates at large to the National Convention, and two electors at large; that it will be the duty of the committee to report also a list of district delegates to the National Convention who are to be chosen by delegates from the respective districts, including in their report the names of those persons who have already been chosen as delegates from their respective districts by the action of the people thereof. Both of these resolutions, however, were withdrawn, and the convention took a recess for one hour.

Mr. Stewart spoke earnestly in favor of his amendment, basing his argument on the fact, as he put it, that the Convention had no more right to nominate delegates to the Chicago Convention than it has to select electors, and to represent the people of each district.
The amendment of Mr. Stewart was lost by 100 to 150, and then the resolution as originally offered was adopted.

The following resolution was then introduced by Mr. Herr: Resolved, That the delegates elected to the Republican National Convention from this State are hereby instructed to support for the Presidential nomination Gen. U. S. Grant, and to vote as a unit on all questions that may come before the convention.

Mr. Stone, of Crawford, offered the following amendment: Resolved, That while we pledge ourselves to support the Republican party, we see no good reason for abandoning the position taken by the party in our own and other States in 1876 of opposition to a third Presidential term, and refrain from the resolution passed by this State Convention held in this city in 1876 upon this question.

Mr. Stone, after arguing strongly in favor of this amendment, and providing for the selection of a State Central Committee were also contained in the platform, and adopted with it.

own representatives, and to attempt to steal the government of that State.
Our Republican form of government will be a signal failure when any political party can succeed in defying the public will as shown by the people at the ballot box.

Seventh—We deeply regret the growing tendency to throw elections aside on mere technicalities. The right of the people to choose their public servants is too sacred to be subverted upon any pretext that the returns of elections are deficient in some trivial matters of form.

Eighth—We thank our Senators and Representatives at Washington in the last Congress and in this for their firm adhesion to Republican principles and policy, and for their opposition to Democratic schemes to renew the obsolete doctrine of State rights and to cripple the Government by withholding needed appropriations in order to coerce legislation repealing all National laws that protect the safety of the ballot box.

Resolved, That the chairman of the Republican State Committee is hereby authorized and required to carefully examine whether any person today placed on the electoral ticket be legally disqualified from any cause from serving as an elector, and in case any such legal disability be found the State Committee shall substitute another name from the same Congressional dis-

Won't Do for a Ticket.
(Portland Me. Press.)
The Chicago Journal suggests as an appropriate Presidential ticket for the Democrats, Garcelon, of Maine, and Bartlesdale, of Yazoo, and the Aurora News thinks if they put Garcelon at the head of the ticket Bartlesdale will show him just after the inauguration, and if they put Bartlesdale at the head, Garcelon will steal it away from him after election. They had better fall back on Jeff Davis and Bob Toombs.

MR. JOHN SCHLEYER, the proprietor of the Chilton, Wis., Talksboro, a progressive German weekly, gratified us with the following:
With pleasure I add my testimonial to the many already given in favor of St. James Oil, which I had occasion to test personally. I suffered extreme pains in the back of my neck, which were almost unbearable. Having heard of St. James Oil I dispatched one of my men to the nearest drug store, provide him with the oil, and he returned with a bottle, and commenced to apply it at once. The pain subsided, and on the next morning I was all right again.

A Lady's Wish.
"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" Inquired the first lady. "By using Hill's Bitters," that makes pure rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me, as you observe."
