WILLING TO TAKE IT REGULAR.—Rude fun ought to cost the maker something—and it generally does. In this case the offender gets off easier than he had any right to expect, after his inexcusable assault. Says the Cape Ann Advertiser:

Not many months ago a party of Boston gentlemen came to this city and went on a fishing party. Some of them got pretty jolly, one in particular, who, seizing one of the codfish which they had caught, walked up the wharf. He soon espied a veteran fisherman who was sawing wood, and under the impulse of the moment fetched him a whack across the face with the codfish.

In a moment he was sobered. The generous impulse of a noble heart throbbed in his bosom. He felt that he had done a mean, ungentlemanly act, and he meant to atone for it then and there.

Taking out a ten-dollar bill, he proffered it to the veteran, saying:

"Accept this and let it wipe out any recollections of the cowardly blow I struck you, as I did not mean to do it, and am very sorry for it."

The veteran took the bill, his face beaming with mingled astonishment and delight, and making a bow, remarked:

"See here, stranger, you can wipe me over the face all day long with a codfish, at $10 a lick! I don't bear you a mite of ill-will, I don't. I rather like your style. When are you coming again?"

And that settled it. It was lucky for the gay joker that his victim was of thick material enough to take money for an insult.

WASHINGTON DINNER-TABLE ANECDOTES.—A veteran statesman, at a recent dinner, told an unpublished anecdote of the late Senator McDougal, of California. Taking dinner once with some fellow Senators in Washington, Roman punch was served during one of the courses of the dinner. A statesman asked Senator McDougal how he liked the punch. "Well enough," said McDougal, "but you have to eat altogether too much ice to get any liquor." The same statesman, who is something of a wag in a quiet way, made at the same dinner a rather brilliant remark upon the subject of music. He said that he was not educated enough to appreciate music. He believed he might possibly know the difference between "Old Hundred" and "Yankee Doodle." At the same time he remarked: "I am a very patient man, and can bear the music for a long time." A friend of his at the dinner-table, stirred by reminiscence of the punch anecdote, said that he remembered once entertaining a country cousin who never in her life had tasted ice cream. A dish of superb cream was served up at the close of the dinner, and he noticed that his country cousin touched upon it very daintily, at the same time without any particular expression of suprise as though she were not to be put down or impressed with anything which city people might offer her. Finally he asked her: "Sally, how do you like the cream?" "The cream itself," said she, "seems to be very good, but it appears a little tetched with frost."

AN exchange gives the law of finding as follows: The finder has a very clear title against all the world but the owner. The proprietor of a railroad car or shop has no right to demand the property which may be found on his premises. Such proprietors may make regulations in regard to lost property which will bind their employes, but they cannot bind the public. The law of finding was declared by the King's Bench one hundred years ago in a case in which the facts were these. A person found a wallet containing a sum of money on a shop floor. He handed the wallet and contents to the shop keeper to be returned to the owner. After three years, during which time the owner did not call for the property the finder demanded the wallet and money from the shopkeeper. The latter refused to deliver them up on the ground that they were found on his premises. The finder then sued the shopkeeper, and it was held as above stated, that against all the world but the owner the title of the finder is perfect. And the finder has been held to stand in the place of the owner, so that he was permitted to prevail in an action against a person who found an article which the plaintiff had originally found but subsequently lost. The police have no special rights in regard to articles lost unless those rights are confered by statute. Receivers of articles found are trustees for the finder. They have no power in the absence of a special statute to keep the article against the finder any more than the finder has to retain the article against the owner.

A RECENT decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania fixes the limit of the liability of the Pennsylvania Railroad for damage in case of death by an accident at five thousand dollars. This decision was rendered in the case of Mrs. Langston whose husband was killed in a railroad accident near Pittsburgh over two years ago. She sued the company, laying her damage at twenty thousand dollars. An Allegheny county jury gave her five thousand seven hundred and twelve dollars. From this verdict the company appealed, on the ground that under the Act of Assembly of 1868 there could be no recovery for a greater amount than five thousand dollars. The new Constitution provides that there shall be no limit to the amount to be recovered for injury; but it was claimed on the part of the Pennsylvania Railroad, that as they had never accepted the provisions of the new Constitution they were not amenable to any legislation under it. The Supreme Court decided in favor of the claims of the railroad company.

WITHIN a few days the following have been added to the prodigious catalogue of monument, statue, and picture bills now before Congress: To provide a monument to the memory of De Kalb; to pay Fisk Mills for a plaster model of Gen. Rawlins; to buy Trop's equestrian picture of Winfield Scott; to pay H. K. Brown for a mounted statue of Scott in Washington; to furnish a bronze statue of Gen. Morgan; to erect a monument to Gen. Herkimer; to aid in a monument to Gen. Stark at Bennington; to put up a $100,000 monument at Yorktown; to erect a monument at Schuylerville. If such bills can make or keep us an artistic and patriotic people, we need not fear for the future. But how in the world can the workers of the country work hard enough to meet all the bills that are constantly being piled up?

A Magnificent Family Bible.

The National Publishing Company of Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and Atlanta are doing a good work in this community by circulating among our people one of the most superb editions we have ever seen. The binding is elegant, tasteful and substantial. The press work is done in the best style, and the paper is of the finest quality.

Being determined that their Bibles shall not be surpassed by any other edition in print, the publishers have added to it an abridgement of Dr. William Smith's great Dictionary of the Bible. This is a complete book in itself, and would make an octavo volume of over six hundred pages. Its reputation as the best Bible Dictionary is world-wide, and each subscriber to this Bible thus obtains it free.

Another prominent feature is a History of All the Religious Denominations of the World. These accounts are clear and comprehensive, and are full of valuable information.

The additional matter which accompanies the books of the Bible covers a wide range of subjects and is exceedingly valuable. An accurate and detailed description of the Holy Land is given, followed by an interesting description of Jerusalem and its sacred places. The Life of the Saviour and the Lives of the Apostles are also given at considerable length, and in such a manner as to be of great service to every reader of the Bible. The Wanderings of the Israelites in the Wilderness are related, and the Tabernacle and Temple are described with great minuteness. Another feature to which we would call particular attention is a series of Scripture illustrations, remarkable for its completeness. It embraces a series of comprehensive descriptions of the Manners and Customs of the Nations of the Ancient World, of Biblical Antiquities, Scenery, Natural History, etc., etc. Then follow a large number of chronological and other valuable tables designed to promote and facilitate the study of the Sacred Scriptures. These tables are so numerous that we have not space even to give their names. So full and complete is the additional matter of this magnificent edition of the Scriptures, that the most careful student of God's word, the most exacting seeker after truth will find all his wants supplied in this single volume.

The book is magnificently illustrated. It contains over 2,000 fine engravings, many of which are by the great artist, Gustave Dore. These engravings are genuine works of art, and were made at a cost of over $30,000. The great number and high character of these engravings make this the most valuable art publication of the century.

Between the Apocrypha and the New Testament is a beautifully lithographed marriage certificate, which makes this Bible an especially appropriate wedding present. This is followed by a handsome Family Record, consisting of four quarto pages, finely lithographed. At the end of the volume is a photograph album, with spaces for sixteen portraits.

These magnificet Family Bibles are superior to all others that we have seen, in the following respects:

They contain the largest and finest engravings. They have the richest and most durable bindings. They contain the finest paper and the best printing. They are the cheapest and most complete, and they sell faster than any other Family Bibles.

The National Publishing Company's Bibles weigh from one to three pounds more than any other Family Bibles published in the United States. This is proof positive that they are more solid and substantial than any other Bibles. It proves that they are printed on heavier paper, and bound with heavier and more durable material. They are published in German also.

We cordially commend this Bible to our readers, and hope it may find a place in every family. It is one of the best Family Bibles ever published, and no home should be without it. The price is astonishingly low, and within the reach of all. It is sold by subscription only, and Mr. David Wilhelm, of Jefferson township, who is the authorized agent for this section, is now canvassing for it.

Grant's Tour Around the World.

Mr. Wilhelm is also agent for the National Publishing Co.'s edition of General Grant's Tour Around the World, written by the celebrated writer, James McCabe. The work contains over 300 pages, is handsomely illustrated and is considered the best account of the journey that has been written. Mr. W. will call at your home or place of business. 6t

Notice.

Mr. H. B. Weisz, of Butler, hereby gives notice that he has been appointed by the National Publishing Co., to be their agent for their Bible, and edition of "Grant's Tour Around the World," for Butler, Penn, Connoquenessing, Lancaster, Muddycreek, Franklin, Centre, Oakland, Clay, Brady and Worth townships, and that no other agent can deliver these books in these townships.

A WRITER in the American Naturalist refers to the popular statement that one can make an owl commit suicide by twisting its own head off if a person looks steadily at it, meanwhile walking rapidly around it. It is stated that the owl thus regarded will turn tis head quite around, and, forgetting to turn its body, twist its head off. The writer tried the experiment, walked around the owl three times, all the while intently looking at it, until he discovered what he had failed to notice before. "When I reached half way round from the front, which was as far as he could turn his head to follow my movement with comfort, he whisked it back through the whole circle so instantaneously, and brought it facing me again with such precision, that I failed to detect the movement, although I was looking intently all the time. I repeated the experiment many times afterwards on the same bird, and I always had to watch carefully to detect the movement of readjustment of his gaze. So rapid and precise was the movement that I failed several times to detect it, even when I was looking expressly for it and at the proper moment."

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.
The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife, pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

BEST IN THE WORLD:
ABSOLUTELY PURE. CHEMICALLY PURE.
ARM AND HAMMER BRAND.
CHURCH & CO'S
BI-CARB. SODA.
AND SALERATUS
Which is the same thing.
Impure Saleratus or Bi-Carb Soda which is the same thing is of a slightly dirty white color. It may appear white, examined by itself, but a COMPARISON WITH CHURCH & CO'S "ARM AND HAMMER" BRAND will show the difference.
See that your Saleratus and Baking Soda is white and PURE, as should be ALL SIMILAR SUBSTANCES used for food.
A simple but severe test of the comparative value of different brands of Soda or Saleratus is to dissolve a dessert spoonful of each kind with about a pint of water (hot preferred) in clear glasses, stirring until all is thoroughly dissolved. The deleterious insoluble matter in the inferior Soda will be shown after settling some twenty minutes or sooner, by the milky appearance of the solution and the quantity of floating flocky matter according to quality.
Be sure and ask for Church & Co.'s Soda and Saleratus and see that their name is on the package and you will get the purest and whitest made. The use of this with sour milk, in preference to Baking Powder, saves twenty times its cost.
See one pound package for valuable information and read carefully.
