

BUTLER CITIZEN.

Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as second-class matter.

FOR PRESIDENT, 1880. Hon. JAMES G. BLAINE, OF MAINE.

Republican State Nominations. FOR JUDGE SUPREME COURT. Hon. Henry Green, OF NORTHAMPTON COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL. Hon. John A. Lemon, OF BLAIR COUNTY.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES, SATURDAY, MAY 29th.

Attention is directed to the communication upon the first page of this paper, headed, "Butler National Bank. Where some of the money went."

Mr. JACOB PAINTER, an old and very successful business man of Pittsburgh, died in that city on Friday last, aged 80 years.

Rev. WILLIAM P. BRADEN died at his residence near West Sunbury, this county, last week. We have not learned his exact age, but it is said he was about 66 years.

Another Polling Place. If Mr. Robinson, Chairman of the present County Committee, keeps on he will have the polling places for our coming primary election scattered over the county "thick as hops."

Mr. Robinson, Chairman of the present County Committee, keeps on he will have the polling places for our coming primary election scattered over the county "thick as hops."

THE canvass among the different candidates for the nominations at our coming primaries is progressing quite actively. Never was there a year in which the Republicans of the county should be more careful, particularly as to the candidates they vote for to make our laws, Congress, Senate and Assembly, are to nominate, and no man whose record is not clear, or who has neglected his duties as a legislator, or who has once been tried and found wanting, should again be trusted.

NO estimate of the first ballot in the Chicago National Convention can be entirely reliable as yet, but of the 750 delegates who will compose the Convention, it is now pretty well ascertained that, to this time, Blaine has about 300, lacking 79 of the half or a majority. The friends of Gen. Grant claim about the same number. Three or four other States are yet to speak, among them Illinois, whose State Convention is held to-day. The action of Illinois, the fourth State in the Union, with 42 delegates, may decide the contest, as between Blaine and Grant, unless Gen. Grant breaks away from his leaders and refuses further use of his name in a struggle so damaging to his fame as he is now going through.

WE have been enquired of as to the action of our County Committee at its late meeting on the subject of Democrats voting at our primary. As far as we can learn the matter was up and discussed in the Committee but if anything was done it was not furnished for publication by the Secretary, Craig. Our old rule however is unchanged and stands in force yet, and by it "some but Republicans shall be permitted to vote." We would therefore take this occasion to caution all Republicans to be on their guard and see that none but Republicans vote on the 29th inst. This caution may be necessary just now. Every party should make its own nominations. Let the Republicans of the county see to it that their primary is fairly held, fairly conducted and a fair and honest return made of Republican votes only.

WE received a dispatch last Thursday from the committee appointed by the late meeting of the Crawford county Republican committee, to confer with similar committees of Mercer and Butler counties, looking to the appointment of conferees in Mercer and Butler, to meet them in Mercer on last Friday. As this county had taken no action, and in fact had no knowledge at the time of our late committee meeting that such a conference was in contemplation, we could only answer the dispatch accordingly. This movement contemplated a new and district action, relative to our delegates to Chicago, and undoubtedly would have been the right course, if taken in time. But, as matters existed in this county, it was impossible to have such action, save by an appeal to the people themselves. And as to Mercer county, we presume our Crawford friends discovered there last Friday also that the people were not in command of the Republican forces. We do not suppose however for a moment that a new set of delegates would receive even a hearing at Chicago, and if Messrs. Gordon and Robinson are not now sufficiently instructed, then we agree that there should be a book written immediately upon the subject and with the title, "Do Instructions Instruct."

FOR no man who once sold himself or violated his promises before election.

Mercer County. The Mercer county Republican Committee had another meeting last Friday and, strange to say, a majority of it refused to give utterance to the well known sentiment of the county for Blaine. According to the account of the proceedings in the Pittsburgh dailies, a motion calling on Mr. Gordon, the other delegate from this district to the Chicago Convention, to give an expression of his intentions at the same, was opposed and finally voted down. There must be some strange influence exerted there. And, after all, may this matter not be understood? May not the word-of-mouth, or letter to Committee utterances for Blaine all be a sham even in this our own county? If it is so, as many now apprehend, that Messrs. Gordon and Robinson are, or will be tied at Chicago, hand and foot, by the "unit rule," passed at our State Convention, and they know it, and know how they are to escape from the commands of their district, may not this be an explanation of recent events here? It is cheap to say you are for Blaine, if you know at the same time you have masters who will not allow you to vote for him in the Convention, and that by this means your action at the Convention can be reconciled with your promises at home. As we said, long since, the outcome of this matter may yet be interesting.

Another Polling Place. If Mr. Robinson, Chairman of the present County Committee, keeps on he will have the polling places for our coming primary election scattered over the county "thick as hops."

FOR no man who once sold himself or violated his promises before election.

Congress—This District.

A sharp contest is going on in Crawford county for the Republican nomination for Congress between Mr. Dick, present member for this district, and Col. Roberts of Titusville. Mr. Pettis, of Meadville, who was also urged to be a candidate in that county, has withdrawn, it is stated, in favor of Col. Roberts, who is reported as a very strong candidate. The primary of Crawford is held on June 17th.

In Mercer county there are also we believe two candidates for the nomination of that county, Mr. Win. Acher, of Greenville and Mr. Thos. Cochran. The primary of Mercer is to be held on June 23rd.

In this county, as is well known, there are also two candidates for the nomination, J. D. McJunkin, Esq., and Thos. Robinson, Esq. Each county has therefore two candidates, and will have the right to present the successful one of each to the district conference when that meets. This county stands on an equal footing with the other counties for the present district nomination, and if we present a good man, with a good record, our claim may be recognized. Our primary takes place on Saturday a week, 29th May.

Census Enumerators. HOOKER, May 15, 1880. MESSRS. EDITORS—We notice that the list of Census enumerators is published in some counties, being the list for the different county subdivisions, as sent on by a Supervisor of a district. Can you inform us why it is the list of this county is not made public? A list for this county must have gone on to Washington some time ago and yet we have no knowledge of who the successful applicants are. Why are we kept in the dark? Is it that the unsuccessful ones may not know their fate until after our primary election, and in that way be blinded into voting at the primaries for certain men who are candidates at present? We would like to see, and think the people should soon know who are appointed. Can they not be published? Yours ect. AN APPLICANT.

WE can give no information on the above, or as to why the list of the successful applicants for enumerators in this county is not made known. As they have to commence their work by the first of June, we presume the matter cannot be much longer delayed or kept back for any purpose.

Since writing the above we learn that a number of these enumerators have been promised or offered to Democrats by certain parties of this place who have all along given out the impression that they had control of these appointments. This may account for the active part some Democrats are taking for Mr. Robinson's nomination for Congress, and shows a bargain going on in this matter. The above information comes to us from the most reliable sources, and is given here for the information some of the Republican applicants for enumerators, and may explain the cause of the delay in not having the list of the successful ones published before this time. The hope is to shove over the announcement of the appointed ones until after our Republican primaries.

Quay's Old Home. BEAVER, Pa., May 9.—The Republican County Committee, which met here yesterday, after a stormy session adopted a resolution giving the voters the privilege of expressing their presidential preferences at the approaching primaries. There was a protracted and heated debate on a resolution denouncing third-termism, presidentialism, congressionally and otherwise, resulting in its adoption by a vote of 24 to 16.

About Oil. Last Saturday was a big day in the oil market. For the past few months the bears have been lucky. The price of oil had steadily declined until it reached 71 1/2 cents per barrel, and a further decline was generally expected. But the oil fires in Bradford and the destruction of 300 rigs, gave the bulls a chance for a boom, and they improved it. A large majority of the speculators had sold short, and when the market advanced they became demoralized, and the bulls crowded the price up to 82 1/2, where it remained for a short time, and then receded to 78 1/2, at which the market closed. There has been a steady decline in the market this week, so far, and it is believed that the bottom has not been reached. At noon yesterday the market was quoted at 73 1/2.

Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette: "Is it not about time for a pamphlet on the question, 'Do Instructions Instruct?'"

Some one has presented Mr. Tilden with a "double-faced axe." The New York Sun says "the two faces of the axe represent two Presidential terms." The World suggests that some one has an axe to grind. Perhaps the present is merely intended as a hint that if Tilden wants to carry New York he must scalp the Tammany chief, John Kelly. Or it may mean that he is not out of the woods yet. If the present had been a little hatchet, it might be a delicate way of complimenting the sage for his veracity in the matter of the cipher telegrams and the income tax—for one so truthful has not been found since the days of the lamented G. W. Somers, who would have to axe Randall what it means.—Commercial Gazette.

Mr. JOHN I. GORDON, who is one of the delegates to Chicago from the Twenty-sixth district, is also editor of the Mercer Dispatch. People of the whole district have watched the paper with great interest ever since the Republican State Convention, just to find out how Mr. Delegate Gordon stood on the Presidential question. He has been very careful to conceal such ideas as he may have had until last week, when he committed his paper to a third term, it is difficult to see how the Republican party can be brought to unite and harmonize sufficiently to elect him.

THE Census Enumerators for Pittsburgh and Allegheny county and for the counties of the adjoining, 8th district, to wit: Westmoreland, Somerset, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Blair and Bedford counties, have all been made known and are published.
