HEIRS WANTED.

Another estate is waiting in England Another estate is waiting in England for heirs to turn up in this or some other country. Heirs next of kin, are wanted of Ellen (or Helen) Blake, supposed daughter of Sarah and Richard Sheridan, who married Gen. Blake in Glasgow, in 1819, and died in England in 1876. It appears in the history of these families that Ellen was supposed to be the daughter of Sarah Cast posed to be the daughter of Sarah Cas-sidy and Richard Sheridan, a ship-ping merchant in Dublin, who was married about 1785, and had several children. Ellen was married in 1803 to James Walsh. He died in 1310, and Ellen continued the stationery busi-ness until 1814, when she sold out. Soon afterward she went with her maid.servant to Glasgow. In 1819 Gen. Robert D. Blake of the English army, a son of Sir Francis Blake of Irish Castle, fell in love with the widow, and she was married to him. Gen. Blake's family were opposed to his marriage. He was the possessor of large estates and the money incomes thereof, and when he made his last thereof, and when he made his last will and testament, in 1851, he bequeathed all his estate, real and personal, to his wife. She died intestate in September, 1876, leaving a large estate in Norfolk, England, worth, it is estimated, more than $1,000,000, and as no relatives or next of kin came forward to claim the estate, the Solicitor of the Treesury, took out letters of adof the Treasury took out letters of ad-ministration for the Crown on the es-tate, and it is now waiting for the proper heirs, the nearest relatives of Ellen Sheridan-Blake, as under the will of Gen. Blake his relatives have no

Solicitors in England and Scotland have sent the case to John P. Jayne, the old claim lawyer, on Murray street, but he has not been able yet to find the rightful heirs to this estate. "This is no humbug," he said. "The money is there and can now be recovered on the proper evidence before the court in London, and I think that the Sheridan London, and I think that the Sheridan families in this country have not taken the interest they should have done in a case of such importance to them as this one in examining the records of their families and sending them to
