

ROOFED COUNTRY ROADS.

To a large extent in the South and Southwest the highways are of two distinct sorts...

The former title covers the main State roads, often constructed with great care and cost...

An exception to this rule appears in Bossier Parish, Louisiana, where an attempt has been made to keep an important road...

While the uncovered roads were arch deep in many places with soft mud, the shed roads were firm and dry.

In building the road, the bed, 18 feet wide, was thrown up just enough to keep out the surface water...

Quassia water is, according to a correspondent of Nature, a protection to peach trees against insect biting.

At the approach of winter, when flies and gnats get into houses and sometimes bite venomously...

When a deep sleep falls on a man he does not mind it so much as when a few square yards of plastering come down...

"Silence is golden." Aunt--"Has any one been at these preserves?" (Dead silence.) "Have you touched them, Jenny?" "Jenny--"Pa never "jows me to talk at dinner."

A correspondent of an eastern paper writes: "Last season I kept the striped bugs from my cucumbers by saturating asbes with kerosene..."

An upturn jeweler hung a watch in his window and labelled it "This watch for $10," and the unsophisticated gentleman from Africa who stared at the article...

When a deep sleep falls on a man he does not mind it so much as when a few square yards of plastering come down or a chimney tumbles over on him--Kookuk Galey City.
