An Unprecedented Failure! HOW IT OCCURRED. FACTS VERSUS FANCIES. Editors of newspaper men, as a rule, advertise merchants and their business because they are paid for doing so. The farmer who is a printer must earn for them their livelihood. This will account for the fact that a great deal of the advertising in newspapers and printing press must earn for them their livelihood. This will account for the fact that a great deal of the advertising in newspapers and printing press must earn for them their livelihood.

As we advance our paying price to-day for wheat, we must quote our flour a trifle higher: Oriental flour per sack.....$1 40 White flour same quality.....1 30 " shorts ".....1 00 Graham flour same quality.....1 00 Buckwheat flour and oat meal, former prices.....1 00

Farmer's advice. We would again call to the fact that we make the market on grain for this section, and on this account, if you appreciate the favor, you should sell your grain to us, and we will give you the highest price we can give for it. We have paid the highest price for it, and often from three or four days to a week before all others. We make our market on grain, and everybody knows that other dealers in grain only charge for their services. We have heard that you are paying. There are farmers who have closely watched our course and have seen us pay for their grain. We are always ready to pay the highest price we can give for it.

Wheat per bushel.....$1 10 Rye.....75 " Standard corn.....40 " Oats.....40 " Buckwheat ".....65

Butler, Pa., Nov. 26, 1880. -LAMB BLACK FACTORY BEARDED. The factory for the manufacture of lamb black, at Sagon station, this county, was entirely consumed by fire on Saturday morning last. The building was a large one, and it was a very valuable establishment and made lamb black from the gas of a well that had been drilled for oil some years ago. It was owned by gentleman who believed in the value of the gas of a well that had been drilled for oil some years ago.
