It is always during one of these "good old-fashioned winters" that our doctors get no rest, day or night. We have heard of but few cases of diphtheria in this town this winter, but the lung and throat diseases that the children are attacked with after having had the measles, will run into diphtheria if not properly treated. Speaking of diphtheria, some one suggests that the immense fruit crop of last year, part of which was undoubtedly left to rot on the ground and thus pollute the air, may have had something to do with its prevalence this winter.

License Court. The Court fix Wednesday the 9th day of March, A. D. 1881, for the hearing of applications for license to sell intoxicating liquors, and direct notice thereof to be given by publication.

Notes from the Schools. Forward township has seven schools, with 330 pupils enrolled. The teachers are John A. Brandon, John W. Cline, B. L. Dunbar, W. W. Dickey, Annie Brown, Samuel W. Douthett and Clara B. White. The schoolhouses are not the best, but are quite comfortable; and the furniture is not of the modern style, but answers the purpose. The schools are all provided with out maps, and also a large map of the State. No 2 has a map of the county, and the desk of No. 5 was graced by a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary procured with the proceeds of an exhibition given by the scholars. The schools are quite prosperous, and the parents are all well pleased with the progress of their children.
