

Mr. J. B. BATES, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING AGENT, 41 Park Row (Times Building), New York, is authorized to contract for advertising in the CITIZEN.

THIS PAPER was founded on the 1st of Nov. 1850, by J. B. Bates, and is now owned by J. B. Bates & Co., New York.

Local and General.

—Tramps are now called turnpike tourists.

—It will pay you to call at RITTER & RALSTON'S.

—Spring began Sunday, de jure, but de facto—scarcely.

—The "Prince of Wales" is still on exhibition at Pittsburgh.

—Venor, though he falls far short of winning affluence, compels respect.

—You will find everything as advertised, at RITTER & RALSTON'S.

A SOLID SILVER Case and a Genuine American Movement as low as $10, at RITTER & RALSTON'S.

—P. T. Barnum has recovered nearly all the flesh he lost. It pays to advertise.

SPECIALTIES in woadens at William Aland's Merchant Tailor establishment not to be elsewhere in the county.

—The Austrian Government has prohibited the importation of hog products from the United States.

—Farmers needing any plows—should call and examine the Ohio Chilled, at J. NIGGEL & BAOS.

WILLIAM ALAND, Merchant Tailor, has just opened the largest line of woadens for men and boys ever offered in Butler.

—The Governor of Minnesota has appointed General A. J. Edgerton to succeed Secretary Windom in the Senate.

—All the necessary papers have been signed and the holding of the next State Fair at Pittsburgh is a fixed fact.

—Our "ship" is on the way. It is expected that within a month twelve millions in gold will arrive from Europe.

—A Lancaster man drank a quart of alcohol and then committed a burglary. The wonder is that he didn't commit a murder.

—The World's Fair at New York promises to be a fizzle. Perhaps some other city can show more courage and put up more money.

—Mrs. Thomas McNair, of this place, slipped and fell on her porch last Friday morning, and broke her left arm above the elbow.

—The fate of a Pennsylvanian last Friday should warn all men that pistols are worth more than fists in a disagreement with a burglar.

—They are still drilling at the bald-ridge well, and are now about 40 feet in the sand. The sand is deep and is said to be improving in quality.

—About $40,000 went to the dead letter office at Washington last year. People who owe us money should address their letters more carefully.

—The combined ages of two brothers and three sisters living in Washington county, of the Ashbrook family are four hundred and thirteen years.

—See a woman in another column, near Spear's Vineyards with a small child, who is highly esteemed by the medical profession for the use of "herbals" and "herbs" and is said by all Druggists.

—It is estimated that over 500,000 cattle have perished by starvation on ranches west of the Missouri this winter, and their carcasses are still lying in the snow.

—A Rotten Rope compelled some reputable citizen of South Carolina last Friday to perform the most horrible and brutal slaughter that has been reported for years.

—For fear the "swell" pantalons would develop into bloomers the tailors or persons who set the fashions now announce fitting garments, and shorter cuts for men.

—Secretary Blaine, it is reported, has set his heart upon having an extra session of Congress, and it is therefore probable that Congress will be called together about the middle of May.

—A mail carrier in Montana has swam the Marais river with his horse and mail three times this winter, and the stage company whose employee he is have ordered him not to do so again.

—Chicago proposes to commemorate her great fire by the erection of a magnificent building, at a cost of $500,000, for her public library. No difficulty is anticipated in securing the money required.

—Women have cheek enough to wear men's hats on their heads, but there is one thing they dare not do. Not one of them dares to remove her hat in public and dust off the bald spot.

—This conundrum is sent us: "Why is main street like the Atlantic ocean?" and for the life of us we can't tell unless it is because if you fall in the middle of it you have to be fished out. Ask us a tough one.

—There was a party at Judge McCandless' residence last Friday evening, and quite a number were present. The most interesting features of the evening, were solos rendered by several of the persons.

—The trustees of the Pine Grove Normal Academy will purchase six hundred dollars worth of apparatus for the school, during the spring season which will begin Tuesday, March 29th, 1881. Isaac C. Kotler, Principal.

—A portion of a railway train in Connecticut, longer than an iron rail and chair which a would-be train wrecker had fastened in a frog, the wheels of the first sleeper in the train tearing it out of place and averting further risk.

—Bishop Simpson preached to a large congregation in the M. E. Church of this place last Sunday, and after the sermon, the congregation of the church and its friends in the other churches of the town, raised $3,400 on the church debt.

—All stories about young fishermen, organized and equipped for battle, leaving any of the parts of the United States to go to Ireland and begin the fight for freedom on Irish soil, must be taken with many grains of allowance.

—There is an unmistakable opposition growing up on all sides to the creation of "commissions" or "boards," &c., to do new work for the Government for which there is no necessity and no demand except by those who seek the sinecure places.

Wanted.
Contractors for a job of sawing. Inquire at the CITIZEN office.

—There will be a temperance meeting in the Butler United Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening, March 24th, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. D. C. Babcock, State Secretary of the Temperance Union will be present. All are very cordially invited to attend. Committee.

—Ludie E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the laws that govern the female system. Address Miss Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for circulars.

—A new steam cotton mill is to be erected in Charleston, S. C., at a cost of $400,000. This enterprise will more than make up for the political loss resulting from the defection of Mahone in the Senate. If it can get cotton mills the South can afford many political defeats.

—There is a growing feeling in New York that the crew of the Italian bark Alice, recently wrecked off Coney Island, did not meet their death, as alleged by their own hands, but were murdered by their fellows in some mutinous uprising, or in an effort to rob the vessel.

—Uncle Sam's head that wears a crown. The death of the czar has not given much uneasiness to the rulers of Germany, Italy and Spain, where the same influence of despotism prevails in regard to hatred of the Government which destroyed an Emperor in Russia.

—William Story found guilty at June and September terms 1880, of forging a judgment note and embezzlement, was last Monday sentenced to pay fines in both cases amounting to $635 costs of prosecution and to be confined in Allegheny Co. Workhouse for eighteen months.

—Venor's latest prognostications say that spring will be fairly early, hot and dry, and the midsummer cool and wet. The even promises to be open dry and fine. There is likely to be a great deal of sickness during the year, but the weather—except in a few isolated sections—will be favorable to agricultural pursuits.

—A Baltimore man is under arrest charged with saturating his wife's clothing with kerosene while she lay asleep on a lounge and then setting her on fire. The flames were extinguished before the woman was fatally burned. The husband intended to make it hot for his wife, and she now proposes to make it hot for him.

—A sensation was created through the oil country last Thursday by the announcement that the Standard Oil Company has bought the United Pipe Lines. They have worked together in the past, but sometimes the managers of the Pipe Lines have made the Standard yield to them, and it was said that the purchase was made to prevent this in the future.

—The United States Government by a concerted movement one day last week, secured the arrest of almost a score of so-called land agents, residents of Cleveland, Pittsburgh, New York and St. Louis, who are said to have been for years past engaged in transactions by which the Government has been defrauded out of several hundred thousand acres of land in Missouri.

—A young German who was witnessing the shoeing of a horse was struck by a small particle of iron, which penetrated the pupil of his eye burying itself deep in the body of the organ. The eye was hospitalized at which the extraordinary operation of withdrawing the iron by means of a magnet was recently performed with entire success.

—The cat show in New York is called a "Cat Congress." When the proprietor christened it he must have been laboring under the delusion that when cats are yelling "Me-ow, me-ow," in seven languages, they are calling each other liars and traitors and falsifiers and things. The proceedings in a Cat Congress are more harmonious.—Norristown Herald.

—The Kentucky moonshiners who loaded old six guns and carried to Liverpool in a frozen condition. One of the promptings of the English press to raise the cry about pleuro pneumonia among the beef cattle of America was to drive it out of the English market, and thus make room for the Australian article. It requires from ten to eleven days to make the voyage from New York to Liverpool, while from Australia it takes sixty.

—In no interest of labor has the country advanced more steadily than that of tanning hides. The leather business of the United States having risen to an importance second to that of no other productive industry, it is not really the most important. Without a doubt the tanning of hides has been more improved, so far as machinery and competition are concerned, than that of any other manufacturing interest in the country.

—The scarcity of fuel in the West is one of the noteworthy results of the severe winter. The heavy snow storms, some of them continuing days at a time, so generally imprisoned the farmers that in Iowa, Minnesota, and other Western States the roads have been impassable in many towns for weeks. Hay and corn is extensively used for fuel, but there is danger of exhausting even that material. Farmers say that the winter set in so early and severely that much of the corn still stands in the fields under the snow, and much of their regular fall work was of necessity left undone.

Wanted.
All kinds of grain for which I will pay the highest market price in cash at my mill. GEO. REIDER, Butler, Pa.

Nov. 3, 1880.
—Posey County, Indiana claims to have raised the largest cow in the world. Her name is Lady Posey; breed, mixed Durham and Big English. Her measurements are: Greatest height, 5 feet 10 inches; girth, 8 feet 9 inches; length, 10 feet 6 inches; or including tail, 17 feet. Her form is good; and, though not fat, she weighs 3,000 pounds. Her color is red and white, red predominating. Age, six years. Her present owner lives in Stark County, Illinois.

—Thirty-one men and women are on trial at Greenville, O., on a charge of conspiracy to murder. Jacob Long opened a beer saloon in Stark county, and the Palestine Crusaders, a total abstinence society, drove him away. He boldly returned, and was informed by a paper stuck on his door that his life would be taken if he sold a drop of beer. He presented proof to a grand jury that the threatening document had been voted by the crusaders, and they were indicted.

—SAD ACCIDENT AT A BLASTING.—While Mr. Lewis Rattig and some other men were blasting rock at 30 feet, in a quarry near Butler, an unexpected explosion broke his right arm below the elbow, shattered his right hand and injured his eyes. He walked to his home, where he received medical attention and is doing well. There were using loose powder for fusing, and supposing that the fuse had misfired, they approached the blast, when it exploded, injuring Mr. Rattig, but none of the others.

—The attention of Market Gardeners is called to the fact that the great inducements the Mohawk Valley seed gardens offer in seeds to the trade. The proprietor informs us that large quantities of both Vegetable and Flower seeds are grown there and sold direct to the trade. Home grown Onion and Cabbage Seed, a specialty. Samples to test, for a state stamp. Wholesale list free and by mail. Sample copy of his beautiful quarterly and packet of vegetable or flower seed to all for a 3c. stamp. Address, A. C. Nellis, Canajoharie, N. Y.

Notion.
At 5 cts, ladies hose.
At 5 cts, gents hose.
At 10 cts, ladies colored hose.
New buttons, new cords, new tassels, new laces, new collars, new ties, new fringes, new ribbons, new gloves. All the new things in early spring goods at RITTER & RALSTON'S.

—Mr. Robert R. McClung, formerly of this county, and who removed to Kansas in the year 1837 and settled in Jewell county of that State, writes us a very interesting and gratifying letter concerning some old events in this county. Mr. McClung is a brother of Wm. McClung, late of Oakland township, deceased, and an uncle of Robert McClung, Esq., of Buena Vista, this county. He and his family are prospering in their new home, and many of his old friends here, and a great deal of information about Kansas will be pleased if they write him. His address is Jewell City, Jewell Co., Kansas.

Wine for Invalids.
The Port Grape Wine of New Jersey is the best medicinal wine in the market, and it is said that the vintage of A. Speer far exceeds any other produced. It is heavy in body, rich in flavor and well adapted for sick persons and for general family use. For sale by D. H. Waller.

—A Washington news item says that five hundred applications for consulships have already been received since the new administration came into office. Now, the only consulships open to applicants is which pay a salary of $1,000 a year, or more, and as a considerable number of the men holding these offices may fairly be presumed to be doing their job so acceptably that there is no reason for displacing them, the prospects of the five hundred gentlemen ambitious to represent their country abroad are not particularly flattering. Probably most of them will be the gainers in the long run, however, if they do not succeed.

Priced on Better Goods.
At 50 cts, good white quilts.
At 25 cts, good white quilts.
At 65 cts, good black dress silk.
At 50 cts, good colored silks.
At 25 cts, double fold cashmere.
At 10 cts, all w. of cashmere.
At 75 cts, melange silk.
At 75 cts, brocade silk.
RITTER & RALSTON'S.

—Among the many curiosities of mail matter that pass daily through the New York Post Office are the letters that come from China to Chinamen in that city. They are written and addressed in Chinese characters. The address is on the left-hand corner of the envelope. Addresses are always translated into English in San Francisco. Of the names that the translator turns out from the curious little marks on the envelopes, the Lees are the most numerous. The superscriptions after being translated, read something of the following: "Sam Lee, laundryman, New York City." The Sam Lees are the most numerous; next come the Hop Lees, then the Wah Lees, and the Bung Lees. The Wahs are not far behind. The Lung family is not so numerous. The Wong Lees and the Ling Lees are the most notable. The Yiks, too, are quite a colony. Sam Yik is a prosperous laundryman. The Chin Chins are yet scarce, as are the Chow Chows.

It is surprising to notice the number of O'Briens and Cullins and other Irish names. This is accounted for by the fact that Chinamen sometimes marry Irish women and take their wives' names.

Terms of Township Officers.
The terms of all township officers, excepting School Directors and Justices of the Peace, ended this year on the first Monday of April, instead of the first Monday of April, as was the case in previous years. This change was brought about by an act of the Legislature, approved June 4, 1879, the first and second sections of which read as follows:

SECTION 1. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

The hog cholera scare has been the chief object of agricultural interest on both sides of the Atlantic during the past week. In the British Parliament a discussion arose last Thursday as to the danger to the community from eating American pork, and during the progress of the debate a forged telegram was received in the House of Commons, insinuating that the widespread prevalence of the disease here and the necessity for prohibiting the importation of hog products from this country. The author of the forgery has not yet been discovered. Secretary Blaine has protested against any hostile action by the British Government, insisting that the rumors of disease among our swine are grossly exaggerated.

—ELY'S CREAM BALM has cured me of Catarrh of several years' standing. I have recovered my sense of taste and smell by its use, and can truthfully say that this Balm has no equal as a cure for this terrible disease. Frank C. Ogden, Elizabeth, N. J., Aug. 14, 1876.—See Adv't.

During the past five years I have suffered from Catarrh and have used without relief remedies prescribed by various physicians. I was advised to try Ely's Cream Balm, and using it with beneficial results, and full confidence I shall be completely cured of a disease that has seriously affected not only my nostrils but also my eyes and hearing. W. A. Brintzinger, Jr., Wholesale Tobacconist, Newark, N. J., May 26, 1879.

Carpet for Spring.
At 18 cts, best hemp carpet.
At 25 cts, good cottage carpet.
At 30 cts, good carpet.
At 35 cts, good rag carpet.
At 40 cts, fancy ingrain carpet.
At 45 cts, extra heavy ingrain carpet.
At 60 cts, 70, 75, 80, 85, 90, and $1.00 beautiful new styles in carpets.
At 25 cts, good floor oil cloth.
At 25 cts, good stair carpet.
Everything kept in a first-class carpet house at less than city prices, at RITTER & RALSTON'S.

—The project to make everybody rich by making coffee from dates may seem a good one, but it has the grave fault of being too expensive. Where is the sense in spoiling a dried fruit that is so delicious to the palate of the small boy, and that is worth at least a few cents per pound, when other materials ready are ten times as cheap have already been sold by the ton under the name of coffee and at good prices? Beans, peas, sweet potatoes, mahogany, sawdust, dried liver, locust pods, various barks and roots, and dozens of other cheap materials, all of American production, have been roasted, ground and sold at a handsome profit as coffee. Why, then, should we go abroad for materials from which to supply the American breakfast table with the favorite morning drink?

How It Was Done.
—How was it done? It was done by a friend, "How" was happy and good natured all the time? "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic," he said, "and I feel like a new man. When I am well I always feel good natured." Read about it in another column.

—President Garfield's references in his inaugural address to the Mormon question and the necessity of dealing sternly and resolutely with the polygamists, has excited a small storm in Salt Lake City. The same old delusion is made by the organs and advocates of the "twain relic" that plurality of wives is part of the Mormon creed and that the supreme law of the land prohibits interference with religion. It would be idle to enter into a discussion of a subject upon which every argument that can be advanced has been said a thousand times. The country has made up its mind in regard to the Mormon inquiry, and the universal judgment is that its existence is a blot upon our civilization. President Garfield, if he shall succeed in wiping it out, will render a great service to humanity and make his administration one of the most memorable in our history.

Some Spring Prices.
At 5 cts, good calicoes.
At 5 cts, good muslins.
At 65 cts, best prints.
At 65 cts, soft finished bleached muslin.
At 65 cts, yard wide brown muslin.
At 65 cts, all linen crash.
At 65 cts, heavy dark dress goods.
At 8 cts, dark grey suitings.
At 10 cts, new fancy dress goods.
At 15 cts, double fold broadcases.
At 15 cts, good jeans for shirts.
At 15 cts, fine alpaca, at RITTER & RALSTON'S.

—Among the many curiosities of mail matter that pass daily through the New York Post Office are the letters that come from China to Chinamen in that city. They are written and addressed in Chinese characters. The address is on the left-hand corner of the envelope. Addresses are always translated into English in San Francisco. Of the names that the translator turns out from the curious little marks on the envelopes, the Lees are the most numerous. The superscriptions after being translated, read something of the following: "Sam Lee, laundryman, New York City." The Sam Lees are the most numerous; next come the Hop Lees, then the Wah Lees, and the Bung Lees. The Wahs are not far behind. The Lung family is not so numerous. The Wong Lees and the Ling Lees are the most notable. The Yiks, too, are quite a colony. Sam Yik is a prosperous laundryman. The Chin Chins are yet scarce, as are the Chow Chows.

It is surprising to notice the number of O'Briens and Cullins and other Irish names. This is accounted for by the fact that Chinamen sometimes marry Irish women and take their wives' names.

Terms of Township Officers.
The terms of all township officers, excepting School Directors and Justices of the Peace, ended this year on the first Monday of April, instead of the first Monday of April, as was the case in previous years. This change was brought about by an act of the Legislature, approved June 4, 1879, the first and second sections of which read as follows:

SECTION 1. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 2. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 3. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 4. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 5. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 6. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 7. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 8. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 9. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 10. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 11. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 12. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 13. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 14. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 15. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 16. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 17. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 18. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 19. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 20. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 21. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 22. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 23. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 24. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 25. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 26. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 27. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 28. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 29. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 30. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 31. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 32. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 33. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 34. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of every township officer shall begin on the first Monday of March, and shall continue for the duration thereof by existing laws.

SECTION 35. That the term of office of every township officer hereafter elected, whose term of office would under existing laws expire on the first Monday of April, of any year, shall expire on the first Monday of March next preceding said first Monday of April, and the term of office of