SHE COOKED FOR WASTINGTON.—
Mrs Miller, of Philadelphia, who claims to be 104 years old, has been giving some recollections of a visit of Washington to be house. She said she found him one morning alone, kneeling behind a thornbush near the stable, with an open Bible before him. It was jet before a great battle won by the Americans. The name she could not remamber. They brought him in and she cooked a breakfast for mr. but he put aside everything but him, but he put aside everything but bread and butter. After breakfast she packed his satchel with pies, dried beef, etc, When he was going away he made her take out everything but read and butter, saying that the other they asked him why he had not come they asked him why he had not come they other house and spent the night there, Washington said: 'Oh, well I was so tired I just went into the barn last night, and I fell down on a pile of hay, and I haven't slept so good for months as I slept there.'
