

BUTLER CITIZEN.

JOHN H. & W. C. NEBLEY, PROP'RS. Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as second-class matter.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For State Treasurer. GEN. SILAS M. BAILY, of Fayette county.

Associate Judge. A. D. WEIR, Buffalo township.

Sheriff. FERGUS M. SHIRA, Parker township.

Prothonotary. M. N. GREEK, Buffalo township.

Clerk of Courts. W. B. DODDS, Muddy Creek township.

Register & Recorder. HENDERSON W. CHRISTIE, of Butler.

Treasurer. J. HARVEY MILLER, of Butler.

County Commissioners. CHARLES COCHRAN, of Concord township. GEORGE W. HAYS, of Middlesex township.

County Auditors. G. W. CROW, of Forward township. J. H. SHANNON, of Franklin township.

Coroner. WILLIAM KENNEDY, of Penn township.

Hon. EDWARD McPHERSON, of Adams county, this State, will address a Republican meeting at Petrolia on tomorrow, Thursday, evening.

Gen. JAMES A. BRAVER, of Centre county, will address a Republican meeting in the Court House on this, Wednesday, evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Major JAMES M. BREIDIN, formerly of this place but of late years a citizen of Franklin, Venango county, was back among his old friends here last week attending to some business.

The present Post Master General, Hon. Thomas L. James, of New York, and appointed by President Garfield, has been reappointed by President Arthur to the same position in his Cabinet.

The Huntingdon County Republicans, at their convention last week, recommended Hon. Wayne MacVeagh for Governor next year, and instructed their three delegates to the State Convention to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

Col. DUDLEY, Chief of Pension Bureau, estimates that there will be a deficiency this year in the Arrears of Pension appropriations, amounting to nearly or quite $20,000,000. This is very unsatisfactory, but the law is itself to blame for the enormous disbursements.

Judge C. J. FOLGER, of New York State, has been appointed by President Arthur and confirmed by the Senate of the United States, as Secretary of the Treasury, in place of Windom, resigned. The position had previously been tendered to the Hon. E. D. Morgan, also of New York, who declined the same.

At the election next Tuesday the question of State Treasurer need not in any way affect the Republican county ticket. Every tub it is said should stand upon its own bottom, and as the Republican county ticket is composed of well known citizens they should be judged upon their own merits without regard to other questions.

GROUND BROKEN.—Ground was broken last week on the railroad from this place to Evansburg. A large force of workmen are now rapidly grading the line of the road below this place and the favorable weather continues much progress will be made this fall yet.

Our citizens are taking a lively interest in the improvement and already its effects upon the business interests of the town are visible. We have the workmen and skilled labor here to supply nearly every want the road management may require.

Last week we published the address of the Republican State Central Committee in the interest of Gen. S. M. Baily for State Treasurer. This week, at the earnest request of many Republicans, we publish the letters of Doctor A. V. Cunningham, of Zelenople, this county, and of Thomas W. Phillips, Esq., of New Castle, Lawrence county, in favor of Hon. Charles S. Wolfe.

We have afforded all a full and fair opportunity to be heard, and in so doing we have not only given the news that a public journal should give to its readers but have performed a public duty as well.

Dr. J. G. Holland, the popular writer, and successful editor of Scribner's Monthly, died suddenly of heart disease at his residence in New York city on the 12th inst. Dr. Holland was born in Belchertown, Mass., on July 24, 1819. Having practiced medicine for a short time, and afterwards edited a literary journal for a few months, he passed a year at Vicksburg as superintendent of public schools. In May, 1849, he became Associate Editor of the Springfield Republican, with which he was connected until 1866. He afterwards entered the field of book writing and was quite successful among his best works being "Timothy Titcomb's Letters to the Young," "History of Western Massachusetts," "The Bay Path," a novel, "Miss Gilbert's Career," "Letters to the Joneses," and "Bitter Sweet" and "Katrina," dramatic poems. Of late years he has devoted himself almost entirely to magazine writing, having in 1870 become editor of Scribner's Monthly, which position he held at the time of his death.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOV. 8. THREE TICKETS.

There are three tickets to vote in this county at the election next Tuesday, to wit: one headed "State," on which the words State Treasurer, and the name of the candidate for that office that the voter wishes to vote for, should be on; one headed "Judiciary," on which the words Associate Judge, and the name of the candidate for that office that the voter wishes to vote for, should be on; and one headed "County," on which the words Sheriff, Prothonotary, Clerk of Courts, Register and Recorder, Treasurer, Commissioners, Auditors and Coroner, should be on, with the names of the respective candidates for those offices that the voter wishes to vote for.

The words State, Judiciary and County should be on the outside of a ticket when folding it to vote.

These tickets as printed are all upon one slip or sheet of paper and must be cut into three parts as above indicated. The whole of the county ticket, being one part, is voted all together. Frequently a voter will hand to the officers of the election by mistake the whole of a ticket as printed, which will have to be returned to him to be separated. By noticing the above letter in this county will save trouble not only to himself but to the election board.

Every year, each measure advocated, and every speaker made, by the legislative forum will be inspected. No man can show a better record than he, and it is concluded by the voters, that the man who has acquired himself well, is an honor to the State, a glory to his native county, and a blessing to his fellow citizens.

STATE TREASURER.

ZELIENOPLE, October 25th, 1881. MISSES. EDITORS CITIZEN:—It affords me great pleasure to know that you are generous enough to publish the views of others on the political situation of our State, notwithstanding the fact that you are not in sympathy with the views which call forth such expressions. All good citizens will certainly commend your liberality and extend to you their sincere thanks. Let no one fear their own understanding, but let all read, meditate and judge for themselves. A good cause courts investigation; and good men come out of the fiery furnace to shine brighter and grow stronger and better. As I am personally concerned, I am infinitely obliged for the opportunity to tell my friends through the medium of your columns, why I have espoused the cause of Mr. Wolfe, or the first place, regard Mr. Wolfe as a model man; as a gentleman of honor and integrity; as a man of great moral strength and religious principles; as a man who has spent his life in the most precious than riches. Nine years ago he entered our State Legislature, a very young man, and soon, however, he was appointed within his brief term of office and the principles which enabled him to discharge his duties with honor and credit, and to be a young man of brilliant parts, and unswerving integrity, he was soon recognized as a leader in the House. He was not long in the presence of the mercenary members of the House, before he discovered the fact that they were engaged in a quarrel with the people. These consciences never trouble them and they are continually winking at corruption, say Mr. Wolfe is a very good man, but he is not a good man, never content unless engaged in a career of selfishness. They cry out against him as a man who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country.

He is a man who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country.

He is a man who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country.

He is a man who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country, and who is not a party man, but a man who is a citizen of his country.
