

A BAG FULL OF GOLD.

WASHINGTON, October 29.—An old gentleman here a few days ago with $17,000 in United States 5 per cent. bonds, which he purchased in 1861 and which were called in July last. He first visited the Lora Division, where he said he came to obtain gold for his bonds, as he had paid gold for them. When told that a draft on the United States Treasury was as good as gold, he insisted upon the gold and would not listen to any explanations regarding an equivalent in another form. To-day, a little before noon, he appeared with a large leather valise in which he carried of the full amount of his claim in twenty-dollar gold pieces, weighing in all about seventy-five pounds. He became very much provoked with Treasurer Gilliam when that officer endeavored to persuade him to accept drafts and have them cashed when he reached home, reiterating that he came here for gold, and declining to take anything else. He staggered under his heavy load as far as Assistant Treasurer Wyman's room, where he expressed a wish to count his treasure before leaving town. A room was assigned to him for that purpose. After the entire amount had been carefully counted and found to be correct, the old gentleman was persuaded to express the coin to his home. During the time he was engaged in counting the money a city detective, who had been summoned, remained, who had would have kept watch over him had he insisted upon carrying the money away.

The poor sufferer that has been dosing himself with so-called Troches and thereby upset his stomach without curing the troublesome cough, should take our advice and use at once Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and get well.

The lion is generally regarded the king of beasts; but the Romans called the ox the bos.

When a man makes a rye face it is natural to suppose that he is a little cross-grained.

The purest, best and cheapest remedy is that simple compound Feruna.

A hangerman who did not wish to disclose his vocation, said that he was traveling for a sunder company.

'Not this evening,' cried the young Flathead Indian, when his mother tried to put a board on his head.

No one can be healthy with a torpid liver and constipation. Take Manalin.

'No, sir,' said he, 'I never beat my wife. When I think she needs to suffer physical pain, I persuade her to drive a nail.'

'You have sent for me and I am here,' as the mustard remarked to the Limberger cheese. Spread yourself if you're strong enough,' growled the cheese.

'I have come to the conclusion,' said Brown, 'that the less a man knows the happier he is.' 'Allow me to congratulate you, Brown,' said Fogg.

'Twenty years ago,' says a colored philosopher, 'niggers was wuf a thousand dollars apiece. Now dey would be dead at two dollars a dozen. It's 'stonishin' how de race am depreciatin'!

'Will you tell me,' asked an old gentleman of a lady, 'what Mrs. ———'s maiden name was?' 'Why, her maiden aim was to get married, of course,' exclaimed the lady.

'I say, Jenkins, can you tell a young tender chicken from an old, tough one?' 'Of course, I can,' 'Well, how?' 'By the teeth.' Chickens have no teeth.' 'No, but I have.'

'Who was first into the breach?' asked Professor Stearns, when the class in history was up. 'The patch,' said the new smart boy. But the Professor marked him one minus and said no. The hole was in before the patch.

'Have you 'Watts on the mind?' solemnly asks a clerical old gent of the roguish dandy behind the counter. 'No, sir, he answered, 'but I have nine on one hand and two on the other. Are you a wart doctor?'

'Your husband is not in to-day?' 'm'am?' said a collector who called at the door. 'No, he is not.' 'Do you know where I can find him?' 'I guess he's gone fishing.' He carried a glass bottle with something he called bait.

Uncle Mose asked Gus de Smith why it was that the weather was so much warmer in summer than in winter. 'I thought every darned fool knew that,' growled Gus. 'So did I, boss. That's why I puts the question to you on purpose.'

'Decom,' said a widow, as she heaved a long drawn sigh, and softly raised two tear bejeweled eyes to his, 'don't you sometimes have a yearning for the sweet companionship of a kindred soul to share the joys and sorrows that walk, twin-like, with us through all the varied scenes of life?' 'Well, widow,' sighed the decom, in reply, 'I've kinder had a yearning all the evening, but I thought maybe it was them beans I eat for supper.'

[Port Huron Commercial] Charles Nelson, Esq., Proprietor Nelson House, speaking to us recently, observed: I suffered so much with Rheumatism that my arm withered, and physicians could not help me. I was in despair of my life, when some one advised me to try St. Jacobs Oil. I did so, and as if by magic, I was instantly relieved, and by the continued use of the Oil entirely cured. I think heaven for having used this wonderful remedy, for it saved my life. It also cured my wife.

The Mississippi has fallen back into its old bad habits in the neighborhood of Quincy, Ill., and gone off on an excursion after a new channel. There seems to be some division of purpose, however, and the river has spread itself out to a width of nine miles, apparently unable to determine just what route it will take for a change. The damage done is indeed serious and pathetic. An immense volume of water pouring through the crasse south of Quincy, and inundating the surrounding country. The crops are wiped out, and the devastation will be lasting.

Rheumatism Neuralgia. Sprains, Pain in the Back and Side. This is nothing more painful than these diseases; but the pain can be removed and the disease cured by the use of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER. This remedy is not a cheap Benzine or Petroleum product that must be kept away from the fire or lest to avoid danger of explosion, nor is it an untried experiment that may do more harm than good. PAIN KILLER has been in constant use for forty years, and the universal testimony from all parts of the world is, IT NEVER FAILS. It not only effects a permanent cure, but it relieves pain almost instantaneously. Being a purely vegetable remedy, it is safe in the hands of the most inexperienced. The record of cures by the use of PAIN KILLER would fill volumes. The following extracts from letters received show what those who have tried it think. Edgar Cady, Owatonna, Minn., says: About a year since my wife became subject to rheumatism in the stomach. Our resort was to the PAIN KILLER, which speedily relieved her. G. H. Walworth, Saco, Me., writes: I have used your PAIN KILLER for rheumatism, and have found it a never-failing remedy for the same. Mr. Burdick writes: I have used your PAIN KILLER in cases of rheumatism. It is the best medicine I can get. Mr. Gilbert, Somerset, Pa., writes: I have used your PAIN KILLER in the most successful manner. It is the best medicine I can get. PERRY DAVIS & SON, Proprietors, Providence, R. I.
