Register's Notice. Executor's Notice—Estate of Geo. Whitesides. Meeting of Butler Building & Loan Association. Notice of filing partial account in estate of Margaret Grander.

Local and General.

A lot of second-hand Watches cheap for cash, at E. Grieb's.

We hear that William Fleming, of Buffalo township, is down with small pox.

—Fine neck wear, large stock and low prices, at Heck & Patterson's.

—The school boys and girls are now sending complimentary valentines to each other.

A full line of all kinds of Dress goods, Trimmings and Notions of all kinds very low at the store of L. STEIN & SON.

—Diphtheria has been more fatal in its effects throughout the State than small-pox.

—Gents' fine white and colored shirts, low prices, at Heck & Patterson's.

—The prospects for a continuance of good times for the present year are very flattering.

—Blankets, Flannels and Yarns, wholesale and retail, at Union Woolen Mills, Butler, Pa. oct12tf

—Registrar and Recorder Christie had made some badly needed improvements in his office.

—Men's, Boys' and Children's overcoats, at less than cost, at Heck & Patterson's.

—At Kerr McBride's well on the Crow farm a strong vein of salt water was struck at the depth of 1,400 feet.

All wool dress goods, from 30 cents up, at L. STEIN & SON'S.

—Mr. George Wimmer of Slipperyrock township, Lawrence county, cut himself badly with an axe last week.

5,000 of new Embroideries and Insertings from 1 cent per yard up to first quality, at L. STEIN & SON'S.

—If any show starts out with the body of Guinean on exhibition, it would undoubtedly be mobbed on the first appearance.

—Carpet, oil cloths and matting, cheapest in Butler county, at Heck & Patterson's.

—The Swedes working on the new railroad, in this vicinity, have such fearful names, that the boss has been named the entire force.

—The Pearl shirt, the finest dress shirt in the market, only $1, at Heck & Patterson's.

—Contracts on the extension of the Shenango & Allegheny R. R. to Butler have been given out, the work to be commenced within six months.

—Clothing for Men's, Boys' and Children's wear, cheap, at Heck & Patterson's.

—Mercer county wants to borrow $300,000 at a rate of interest not exceeding four per cent, to pay expenses caused by last year's flood.

—Gents' Furnishing Goods, full stock and low prices, at Heck & Patterson's.

—Six men to be hanged in one day, March 24th, in Pennsylvania, will be an exhibition well calculated to make every honest and even dishonest man reflect.

—Ladies' Gossamer Gum Coats, cheapest in Butler, at Heck & Patterson's.

—In the case of the executions to take place in this State in March, some of the sheriffs whose duty it will be to do the hanging are compelled to have new gallows erected.

—Hock & Patterson are closing overcoats out, at less than cost to manufacture.

—A dispatch from Bradford states that John T. Shibley, formerly of this place, is again in trouble financially, being unable to make good his margins on 316,000 barrels of oil.

—Highest cash price paid for corn, oats and all kinds of produce at the store of Jacob Boos, nearly opposite the Willard Hotel, Main street, Butler, Pa. n16tf

—One thousand barrels of oil were run from the Bald Ridge wells last Friday and Saturday. The water in well No. 3 has been shut off and the well is pumping considerable oil.

—When you want anything in the line of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Spectacles, &c., do not fail to call at E. Grieb's and examine the stock; no trouble to show goods.

—As the triennial assessment will be taken next fall and winter, assistant assessors must be elected at the coming election on the 31st inst. These assessors should be responsible men.

—Four thousand barrels of petroleum a year was too much for the world's consumption twenty-five years ago. They are using it up now at the rate of about 50,000 barrels a day.

—New post offices have been established in the county as follows: Byers, Marion township, and William G. Smith as Postmaster; Wick, Slipperyrock township, and Jesse L. Bean as Postmaster.

—An explosion in a coal mine near Condit, Va., last Friday, caused the death of thirty-two men. The mine is over 1,200 feet deep, with galleries extending 3,000 feet, and is owned by Burrows & Co. of New York.

—The people of Armstrong and Westmoreland counties are in each others' wool, in regard to paying for the Apollo bridge. Armstrong county has paid more than her half and Westmoreland county refuses to refund.

—How James H. Graham, of Cranberry township, came to his death is still a mystery, and but for the Fluke envelope in his pocket, the scene of his death would have likely been as much of a mystery.

—One of our Ohio exchanges says that "the political fight in Pennsylvania is a regular animal war—Wolf against Beaver. The wolves are the strongest but the beavers are the quiet cunning."

—The New York Graphic published the design for Elmer's statue to Adam. It is a very good likeness of the old man—especially the big nose. The length of his hair, however, creates a suspicion that he was the original set-back.

—Mr. August Faller, the popular salesman in the Schenckensack clothing store, has bought all the interests in the old Faller property south end of town, where he is now living and intends to rent, in part, for boarding house purposes.

—The New York Graphic says Oscar Wilde is the author of 'Beautiful Snow.' This is the most terrible accusation yet brought upon the young aesthete, and if he doesn't sue the Graphic for $1,000,000 damages, we shall believe him guilty.

—Some forty pieces of the Edison Electric Music, a system by which tunes can be played without any knowledge of the notes, and which can be used by any person who can count, can be had at Heinemann's book store. Call and examine them.

—Out in Indiana they had a horrible story of a dancing bear eating two Italians, his keepers. If it was the same bear and the same keepers that gave a street exhibition in Butler, the wonder to us is how the bear could swallow so much dirt and live.

At a meeting of the American Association of Window Glass Manufacturers, lately in Washington, the product of the past year was reported to have been nearly 2,500,000 boxes, valued at about $6,000,000. The demand for consumption has taken the entire product.

—There are seven thousand coke ovens in Fayette and Westmoreland counties, and contracts have been let for the building to new ones, which will increase the number of about eleven thousand. In Pennsylvania there were between twelve and fifteen thousand men employed.

—Allegheny City has a business-like ghost. A young man, while returning home late the other night, suddenly beheld an object clothed in white coming toward him on all fours. Paralyzed with fright, he permitted the phantom to collar his watch and chain and revolver, whereupon his ghostly abductor disappeared in the darkness.

—Dr. A. V. Cunningham, of Zolietown, Pa., has been elected to the office of Sheriff of Cranberry township, G. W. Cramer, Esq. of Buffalo township; James M. Marshall, Esq. of Worth township; J. C. Breiden, of Clay, and a number of other well known citizens of the county were in town last week attending court or on legal business.

—The fact that Senator Edmunds, of the Senate Judiciary Committee, has introduced a bill to prevent bigamy and polygamy in the Territories, may be accepted as the beginning of legislation on the subject in which will not end until something practical has been accomplished.

—The census of 1880 shows that there are in Pennsylvania 146,138 children under ten years of age, who cannot read and 229,014 over ten years of age who cannot write. Until this strapping army of ignoramus is greatly reduced the attention of Pennsylvania may be profitably turned in the direction of the primary schools. They are not doing the work that was cut for them by the common-school system.

—An Indiana young man has eloped with his grandmother. Several weeks ago John C. Thurman, aged seventy years, married a Miss of twenty. His grandson, Elmer Thurman, was smitten by the beauty of his new grandmother, and before the old man's homestead was half over, the graceful young scamp was making love to the youthful bride. He succeeded so well that both were missing the other day and have not since been heard from.

—Quite an excitement was caused in Oil City, a few days ago, by the appearance of what represented a dead man floating upon the rising water. After much effort, the supposed body of a fellow mortal was rescued, when it proved to be only an effigy of Gut-tent. All present enjoyed the joke and started it again, hoping that others would incur the same feelings and make like exertions, only to find that they were 'sold.'

—Congressman Farwell, of Illinois, has introduced a bill which presents a way to know who are genuine and who are fraudulent pensioners, by simply providing for the printing and posting of the names of all pensioners in every pension district. But, as the honest pensioners would not object, while dishonest ones, if any, would soon be exposed by their neighbors, and the Government be warned against them. The plan seems practicable—why not try it?

—Mr. Adam Keighner, of Franklin township, lost his life in a peculiar manner last Friday. He and John Campbell were chopping down trees for R. E. at the late of Mr. G. Gut-tent. All present enjoyed the joke and started it again, hoping that others would incur the same feelings and make like exertions, only to find that they were 'sold.'

—The many friends of Mr. Will Stein will be pleased to learn that his father has taken him into partnership under the firm name of L. Stein & Son. They have a large stock of fresh goods on hand, and their prices are as advertised speak for themselves. During 1881 Mr. Stein's business was at least 50 per cent better than the previous year. The firm is now closing out its stock of Queensware and Glassware at cost and will carry a large lot of Dry Goods and Trimmings, than ever before.

—The old 'World Building' in New York city was destroyed by fire last Tuesday morning. Several lives were lost, and the printing materials of the Scientific American, N. Y. Observer, Scottish American, and Turf, Field and Farm, whose offices were in the building, were burned. The hero of the fire seems to have been a negro boot-black, who managed to save several lives.

—By the notice published in another place, it will be seen that the annual meeting of the members of the Building and Loan, of this town, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year will be held at the Opera House, on Saturday evening, March 4th next. Previous to the meeting it will be the duty of the present Board of Directors to appoint auditors who will have a report ready for presentation at the meeting. We hope that report made this year will be satisfactory; it is high time that the members of the Association had a detailed report of the receipts and expenses of the Association from its beginning.

—Mr. Will Marshall, formerly of this place, but who is now in the flour and grain business in Allegheny, met with an adventure in this country a few nights since. He was riding on horseback from Gibsonia station, on the Pittsburgh and Western Railroad, to Brownsville, when a man suddenly sprang from concealment on the roadside, and clutched the bridle of his horse at the same time, commanding him to dismount. Almost as quick as thought, Will struck the highwayman a terrific blow across the face with his whip, causing him to release his hold on the horse and stagger back in the road. The robber recovered himself in an instant, however, and, drawing a revolver, blazed away at Mr. Marshall. The ball passed through his clothing, just grazing the skin of his breast. Mr. Marshall had by this time also drawn a revolver, but his horse 'cut up' so badly with fright that his bullet failed to hit the robber, who suddenly disappeared. Large numbers of drivers travel over this road, and Mr. Marshall thinks the scoundrel may have mistaken him for some one else for whom he had been lying in wait. The bullet-hole in his clothing show it was a close call for his life, at all events.

—The census iron and steel statistics prepared by Special Agent James M. Swank make a most encouraging exhibit of the condition of this industry in the United States and show the rapid growth that has taken place during the past ten years. In 1880 there were in operation 1,000 establishments employing 141,000 hands, who were paid in wages during the year $55,500,000. The amount of capital invested in the business was $231,000,000. From materials costing $191,000,000, products were made weighing more than 1,000,000 tons, valued at $296,000,000. The marked growth of the industry since 1870 is shown by the fact that there has been an increase of 24 per cent in the number of establishments, 82 per cent in the number of hands employed, 90 per cent in the value of products and 99 per cent in the value of the product.

COURT NEWS.

CIVIL CAUSES TRIED AND SETTLED LAST WEEK.

K. Marshall, committee of Joseph C. Douthett, vs. W. A. Lewis and others, enjoinment. February 1, 1882, special verdict finding that Joseph C. Douthett was on the 12th of November, 1880, at the time of this sale and conveyance to W. A. Lewis, of unsound mind and incompetent to make such conveyance and that said Wm. McClelland had no knowledge or notice of said insanity and dealt with said Douthett, who was living on the land, in good faith and paid a good and reasonable fair consideration to said Douthett for said land.

D. A. Ralston vs. Daniel Evans, verdict for plaintiff for $5,386. Fredrick Barr, in right of Caroline Barr, vs. E. R. Boyer, executor of Henry Beiber, settled.

We can, without hesitation, say that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has given the best satisfaction. We have sold an immense amount of it during the past winter. WALLACE, HILTON & Co. Druggists, Lock Haven, Pa.

It may be interesting to take a bull by the horns, but it is always well to keep in mind that the horns belong to the bull.

Mrs. Charles Diley, Pittsburg, says, she cured her Catarrh badly. Peruna cured her perfectly.

Biblical Student: Of course, Ruth wanted a bean, but no one has ever been able to determine why she chose such a Boaz she did.

I was given up to die from a disease of my limbs. I took Peruna and it cured me. J. Irwin, Hope, Pa.

Don't throw away your old four-barreled. They are useful. It has been found that an ordinary four barrel will hold 678,900 silver dollars.

There is a story told of a fine old Cornish squire who only drank brandy on two occasions—when he had goose for dinner and when he had not.

'Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup' will ensure you a good night's rest. It is the best cough medicine in the world. Price 25c.

The factious postage-stamp clerk who told a man that asked for two twos that this was not an aesthetic office, is now looking for a new situation.

Boils, pimples, and all blood diseases are cured by 'Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher.' Sold by all druggists.

Searcher. We are sometimes so impressed by a fellow-man's estimate of his importance that we tremble at the mere suggestion of what might have been if the Lord had forgotten to make him.

Some believe that even this form of trial is not perfectly free from prejudice. But in our section, St. Jacobs Oil has been tried by that great jury—the public—and been judged the infallible cure for Rheumatism and all painful diseases.

Professor Riley says that the heat and drought of the past summer have killed the Hessian-fly, and that immunity from its attacks may be expected for some years to come. It's an ill wind that blows nobody good.

—Health, hope and happiness are restored by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a positive cure for all those diseases from which women suffer so much. Send for Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

Never set a hen in a box above the ground or floor of the chicken-house, if possible to do otherwise, as the eggs dry too fast and lose their vitality. Much better success may be expected if the nests are made upon the ground.

In Contagious Diseases, Small Pox, Diphtheria, Scarlet, Typhoid, Yellow and Malarial Fevers, exposed in the sick room Darby's Prophylactic Fluid. It will attack all impurities and odors. The fluid will draw to itself the germ poisons in the atmosphere and recharge it with ozone, the mysterious agency by which Nature vitalizes the air.

The fancy of Short-Horn breeders in this country is for red cattle. Many buyers won't look at a roan, or a white, or a white and red. And yet in four great annual shows in Great Britain from 1868 to 1881, out of a total of 1,235 cattle exhibited, 818 were roan and only 157 were red.

"A Girl's Choice." It was in a drug store of course. All interesting incidents occur in drug stores—that is nearly all. She was pretty, with blue eyes and golden hair, one of that kind of beauties the poet would have called an "angel," but for the fact that a colony of pimples on her fair forehead precluded all thought of a celestial being. Bowing timidly to the handsome clerk, she asked for "Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases," and upon receiving it, looked at the label and before the clerk could say the word "good-bye" she was gone.

A timely suggestion is given by The American Cultivator to those who contemplate draining their land, to place them beside the ditches already dug, or where they are to be dug, during the winter. At all events, they should be ordered early and hauled to the farm, so that there will be no delay when spring arrives.

"Euchupaisa." New, quick, complete cure 4 days, urinary affections, smarting, frequent or difficult urination, kidney diseases $1. at druggists. Prepared by express, $1.25, 6 for $5. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

Opinions differ widely as to the value of salt as a fertilizer. Some practical cultivators regard it as a very useful addition to the soil, while others, among them Mr. J. B. Lawes, of Rothamsted, England, are inclined to rate its value quite low. In Great Britain the use of salt as manure, which at one time was used very largely, has almost entirely ceased.

Skinny Men. Wells' Health Renewer. Absolute cure for nervous debility and weakness of the generative functions. $1. at druggists. Prepared by express, $1.25, 6 for $5. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.

Farmers Look Here. The undersigned are now taking orders for fruit trees for spring planting. We represent one of the most reliable nurseries in Rochester, N. Y. Please send your orders in immediately. n16tf WALKER & DEIDERMAN.

'Rough on Rats.' The thing desired found at last. Ask Druggists for 'Rough on Rats.' It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bed-bugs, 15c. boxes.

—To men desiring permanent employment we would refer them to D. H. Patty & Co.'s advertisement for men to sell trees, which appears in another column. 1feb6
