his chant.

him and he leaned his head on the shoulder of Dr. Hicks and sobbed pitifully. Still he went on:

pitch that he could command )

The attendants then pinioned his about his neck. Mr. Strong placed the so. Guiteau called out in loud tones:

not the slightest perceptible movement

For at least forty seconds after the drop fell the body hung motionless;

then there was a slight motion of the contraction. Three minutes after the drop fell the body was lowered, to be

When the drop fell a yell was sent up by some persons inside the jail, and this was echoed outside by the voices of a thousand or more people, who hurrahed lustily. There was general on slaught by the populace upon the jail

There was a decided action of the which was waiting for it under the removed and the face exposed. The features were pallid and composed.

About the mouth there was consider-

THE AUTOPSY.

The result of the autopsy, so far as they can be learned from the surgeons, may be stated as follows: After sur-was found to weigh forty-nine and one-from dislocation of the spinal vertebræ.

completed at the time the autopsy was suspended. The spleen was found to be considerably enlarged, its weight being fifteen ounces, or more than twice that of a normal spleen. Other abdominal organs, as far as examined

Judge Agnew on State Politics.

"The power of the Independent the Republican party in the State. In the language of my letter to Mr. Mapes, "This is inevitable, for the Democracy, who are wise as serpents, will take advantage of division.

Democratic success gives that party a four years' lease of power in the State.

This includes the Presidential election of 1884. Now who taught you that the defeat of Bossism, by a deep-seated schism in the party, is not fatal dis-happy resurrection in 1883? You are gard your tragic heroism, simply suicide, to be punished by a stake through the body at the cross-roads.

Could you not tell us something of publican defeat, the heart burning of not equal to his hindsight" will find many besides myself will re-

The physicians decided the examined by the physicians.

crowded into the office.

able moisture.

of the limbs.

BUTLER CITIZEN

IONN H. & W. C. NEGLEY, PROP'RS. Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as

Republican State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR, JAMES A. BEAVER, of Centre county FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT, WILLIAM H. RAWLE, of Philadelphia.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, WILLIAM T. DAVIES, of Bradford county FOR SECRETARY INTERNAL AFFAIRS, JOHN M. GREER, of Butler county. FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE
MARRIOTT BROSIUS, of Lancaster c

COUNTY TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS, J. D. McJUNKIN, Butler. ubject to District Conference. FOR ASSEMBLY. WILLIAM P. BRAHAM, Mercer

JOSEPH T. DONLY, Butler.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER, ROBERT McCLUNG, Fairview township.

FIRES were comfortable here on the 4th and 5th of July.

An account of the cyclone in Slipperyrock and Cherry townships, from been visited by us and hence does not continue his favors

THE Karns City Telephone of this county will this week be removed to trouble we have taken this ground and Pine Grove, Mercer county, and publare pleased to see that it is now so lished there in the future. This, it is said, will make fifteen weeklies publish- tions from either wing should be caned in Mercer county, besides two or three monthlies. Our friend Borland of the Telephone will therefore have plenty of competitors, but he has the energy equal to the occasion, and we

WE had the pleasure the other day of meeting the Rev. John Graham, who was on a visit to his mother and friends in this place. He is the only son of the late John Graham, Esq. a distinguished member of our Bar, who died some years ago and whose memory will he ever green with all who knew him. Rev. Graham is a member of the Episcopal ministery and is now stationed at Haverstraw, on the Hudson river, New York. His many friends here are always glad to greet him when back

THE Democrats of this State, in Convention at Harrisburg, on the 28th ult. nominated the following State ticket: For Governor, Rolbert E. Pattison, of Philadelphia; Lieut. Governor, Chauncy F. Black, of York county; Judge Supreme Court, Silas M. Clark, Indiana county; Secretary Internal Affairs, J. Simpson Africa. of Huntingdon county: Congressman-atlarge, Mortimer F. Elliott, of Tioga county. The ticket is regarded as an electromagnet of a "new grocers" of the sum of Affairs, J. Simpson Africa. of Huntmprovement on many former ones, and they seem to have taken great care in selecting it, both as to its personal strength and its geographical lo-occupy among her sister States. Putonly remedy for all this.

THE CROPS

and much will probably be harvested this week and next. Rye is equally good. Potatoes are very promising, as also the oats. Corn is the only one so speak confidently for it yet. An un-

DEATH OF HON, WILSON MCCANDLESS. Many here were grieved to learn of the death of the Hon. Wilson McCandless, which event took place at his residence, Allaquippa, Pittsburgh, on of the Sentinel, Sullivan organ, and the the morning of June 30th ult. in the in the 72nd year of his age. Judge McCandless was no ordinary man. Indeed he had many of the elements of a great man. His personal character and appearance, with his fine social qualities, made him a general favorite wherever he might be. Here in Butler, where he often visited, he had many friends, and for the people of this place, and of this county, he had a warm attachment. His estimable wife, who survives him, is a daughter of the late Sarah Collins, and with her and his family Judge McCandless delighted to come here, and particularly to enjoy the company of their old and faithful friend, the late David Dougal Esq. No one ever came in contact with Wilson McCandless without recognizing his constant courtesy and high sense of honor. He was a gentleman in the best sense of the term Many here regret his loss and bear tribute to his memory. His surviving

A NEW CONVENTION.

Now that there is, this day, to be a neeting of one of the Republican State Committees, to consider the political situation in the party in this State, we right direction and we have no doubt it will be met half way by the Philadelphia State Committee. There is no mistaking what the Re-under the new rules, that provide for the election of delegates to State Con-Conventions were made in the manner they might and should have been. And so the real question is one as to the methods in making State nominations. The complaint is not so much against the tickets, as against the methods used in nominating them-Hence there is no remedy but a new convention and the people taking the matter in their own hands. Plenty of our special correspondent in Mercer time remains for this, and it will well township, came after the scene had be worth all the trouble. In New time remains for this, and it will well York the Republicans do not nominate appear. We hope, however, he will their State ticket until about the first of October. Pennsylvania can have but one ticket in the field before that time. From the first of the present generally concurred in. All proposidid, fair, square and without humiliation to either. We hope to hear of favorable action in this direction by the committee that meets to-day. There should be no jugglery, or attempts to trap and deceive. This would only make matters worse and prevent union

OLD PAPERS.

Mr J. Patten Thompson, of Kittaning, favors us by sending some old newspapers of Western Pennsylvania. Among them is a copy of the Butler Sentinel, of the issue of October 15, 1825, and published, it says, "every Saturday morning by Stewart & Buffington." The Mr. Stewart here meant is the Hon. William Stewart, yet living, and now in Pittsburgh, and the Mr. Buffington meant is the late Hor. Joseph Buffington, of Kittanning, Pa.

per, said to be made of the tark of the slippery elm tree. The issue sent is evinced increased nervousness and the uncertain movements, distracted manner this morning, and held it before him, while Dr. Hicks was arranging the store," by J. Buffington and S. A. Puryiance. William Ayres, Esq., recompair of navy blue trousers.

At half past ten the guard came out loud tone and with a distinct and demends Mr. Purviance, who he says is a student at law with him, to all who wish deeds, articles of agreement, etc,

An intelligent gentleman from a mends Mr. Purviance, who he says is a student at law with him, to all who wish deeds, articles of agreement, etc, to come." Another guard who took a message hurried off and soon returned to be drawn. In that year, 1825, there neighboring county the other day ex- was an election and the voting districts pressed, in a nut shell, the political sit- in this county were but 14 in number. uation in the Republican party of this being 13 townships and the borough of State at present He said: Don Butler. The Congressional district bound to go down-is. was Allegheny, Beaver, Butler and down now in fact, and should be. His Armstrong counties, and Robert Orr, ways were in the interest of a few of Armstrong county, was elected over men in the party, and they third-rate Abner Lacock of Beaver county. The men at that, who he could use for his vote in Butler county being 930 to 576 own selfish purposes. This debarred and the vote in the whole four counties the better Republicans in the State was less than is now polled in Butler the better Republicans in the State from position and prominence, and was a disgrace to Pennsylvania, taking from her that place she was entitled to occupy among her sister States. Puttrict composed of Allegheny, Beaver ting Cameron out of the Senate is the and Butler; aud John Brown, William Beatty, James Power and William B. In this county the crops never look- ler counties. Robert Scott, John Poled better. Wheat is especially good, lock, David Dougal, Nathan Skeer and Henry Evans were the candidates for County Commissioner, and Robert Scott was elected, having 494 votes. Maurice Bredin, William McLean and far retarded by the weather, but farmers Robert Martin were the candidates for County Auditor and Mr. Bredin was usual amount has been planted, as well elected. Rev. John Coulter and Joseph as of potatoes. Much buckwheat is McQuistion were elected Trustees of the being sown. The hay crop will be then Butler Academy. A vote it seems was taken that year for a convention to reform the State Constitution and it was beaten in this county by a vote of toast and a quart of coffee. 612 for to 696 against. The only polit-

> Messrs. Bredins, editors of the Repository, Beatty organ. The same issue contains the marriage notice of Daniel Kreitler and Miss Maria McCollough, then of this place. The most interesting announcement in the Sentinel, however, is one that says "Wool and rags will be received in payment of subscriptions at this office." Sales of lots in Whitestown are advertised by Edward White. A stray cow, a stray mare and several other advertisements also appear. The motto of the Sentinel was, "Error ceases to of the Sentinel was, "Error ceases to of the rotunda and brought their mus- ed to indicate my feelings at the be dangerous when Reason is left free kets to parade rest at that time. moment of leaving this world. If set to combat it"-a very good and true ical editorial in the paper shows a controversy going on between the editors

If we can find any old papers that we think will be of interest to Mr Thompson we will send them to him in return for his favors.

The undersigned has for sale 10,000 partner and family have the sympathy of this community.

His surviving celery plants of all varieties, which he will sell at the lowest market prices.

MARTIN EISLER, Butler, Pa.

UNITED STATES JAIL, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30-9:45 A. M.-Guiteau was very restless during most of the look for something definite to be done. latter part of the night, not sleeping eager attention. All the committee of the Harrisburg Convention has to do, is to lead in the sleep from sheer exhaustion. He rose heartily at 6:30. When the cook took near the jail.

new State ticket, thus placing before sultation on religious subjects with the iron gates at the end of the corri ventions to be made "by the people, of the people and for the people." The complaint is—and it is true—that the delegates to neither of the late State to go out and see the scandid. Guiteau and doleful muscles about his face moved nervously; other than this there were no signs twelve o'clock as possible. He also twelve o'clock as possible. He also twelve o'clock as possible anxiety lest some accident should occur, and insist-the scaffold and Guiteau ascended the scandid delegates to neither of the late State to go out and see the scandid. Guiteau ascended him to arrange with the warden lust and doleful properties. The procession moved quickly to the people and for the people and for the people."

The procession moved quickly to the people and for the people. The twelve o'clock as possible. He also the people and for the people and for the people and for the people. The twelve o'clock as possible and the people and doleful properties and doleful properties. The procession muscles about his face moved nervously; other than this there were no signs of faltering.

The procession moved quickly to the people and doleful properties are people and for the people and doleful properties and doleful properties are people and for the peop

God inspired me."

Guiteau subsequently asked that in istration be eliminated. Then he presented Hick3 the books that have been the companions of his lonely hours. read his favorite scriptural passage, the tenth chapter of Matthew, and offer a and all heads were bared. prayer on his own account. Then he intended, he said to read his poem, "Simplicity." He desired to have the execution so arranged that just as he uttered the last word the drop should at nine o'clock and was followed in a liver him at this supreme moment of few minutes by Warden Crocker. his life. Let Thy light descend upon the corridor and exercised for fifteen mercy on us. Christ have mercy on minutes. He walked very briskly, us. Lamb of God that takest away making it rather difficult for his guards the sins of the world, have mercy on to keep pace with him. At 10 o'clock Guiteau expressed desire to take a bath, and a large tub him. Guiteau nervously disrobed and Guiteau in a firm tone said : bathed. It was quite apparent to the We once had a bound copy of the Sentinel, which we believe is now in the possession of the Herald office of this place. It was a small paper, about twice as large as an 8 by 10 pane of glass, and printed on very coarse paragraphs and printed on very coarse paragraphs. It was quite apparent to the guald who was closely watching his object in asking the possession of the Herald office of some employment which might distract his thoughts for the dread contemplation of his approaching death. He evinced increased nervousness and his magning and held it before him.

with Hicks, who went into the cell.

11:35 A. M.

fidence. I think he will show some At several points he half paused and emotion because his nervous strain is endeavored to impart increased empha-

Guiteau seemed to break down com- This was particularly noticeable when pletely and burst into tears and sobbed he alluded to President Arthur and hysterically. Dr. Hicks sat by his side fanning him and vainly trying to calm him. About half past eleven preparations began to be made for the execution. At 11:50 a detachment of with a firm voice, "I am now going artillery was formed on the east side to read some verses which are intend About two hundred and fifty people to music they may be rendered effec-were in the rotunda. Dr. Hicks was tive. The idea is that of a child babheard the rattle of the muskets on the verses in a sad, doleful style : stone floor of the rotunda. From that "I am going to the Lordy, was expected his passage to the gallows would present a very distressing sight. The movements of the officers about the jail door were watched with

TO THE SCAFFOLD. At 12:25 the loud steam whistle was a few minutes after five and breakfasted blown at the work house, which is This whistle usually his breakfast into the cell Guiteau told blows at 12 o'clock, and by it Guiteau him to bring his dinner in at eleven was in the habit of gauging time. The delay to-day was by spec There is no mistaking what the Republican people of the State want and Dr. Hicks, who remained at the jail rangement, so that its startling sum rangement, so that its startling sum of the startling demand. They demand a new State all night, was called into the prisoner's mons might not come before the officell soon after he rose and held a concers were ready: Two minutes later the party but one ticket. This to be him. At eight o'clock Dr. Hicks saw dor clicked, when Warden Crocker the prisoner again when he made a request to have a bath and asked Hicks to go out and see the scaffold. Guiteau seen. His face was pallid and the > ed that Hicks should see that the somewhat steep steps with as much scaffold and its appurtenances were all in a proper condition.

>
> After Guiteau had disposed of these At the last steps he faltered for a matters, he read a poem composed by moment, but was assisted by the offl-himself, which he calls "Simplicity, or cars who walked upon either side. moment, but was assisted by the offl-Religious Baby Tolk." After reading Upon reaching the platform Guiteau it alone he attempted to sing it, but was placed immediately behind the broke down in the effort. Guiteau then talked for some time about his future. He remarked that his heart was tender. "I don't think," he said, was tender. "I don't think," he said, and Woodward directly behind "I can go through the ordeal without him. Jones took position on weeping, not because of any great the north side near the upright weakness, for the principle in me is strong, but because I am nearer the took his position at the southeast corother world. I hold to the idea that slight delay while the spectators were pushing and jostling through the door his book all complimentary remarks leading from the rotunda to the corriabout President Arthur and his adminder, at the lower end of which the gallows was placed. Guiteau meanwhile gazed upon the crowd, looked up at the beam over his his head. He told Hicks that he wanted him to and quickly made a survey of all the offer the first prayer on the scaffold, dread paraphernalia. As soon as the saying that he (Guiteau) would then crowd had gained access General

Dr. Hicks then prayed in thes words: 'Father, out of the depths we cry to Thee. Hear Thou our supplication for the sake of Jesus Christ the savior who has made full propitiation for us. Behold this Thy servant. John W. Guiteau arrived at the jail We humbly pray that Thou wilt de-These two gentlemen, with Hicks, had him. Liberate his soul from prison a consultation as to the disposition of May he appear before Thee absolved by Thy great mercy, from blood guilti-At 9:15 the prisoner came out into ness. Deliver him and us. God have us. Amen and amen. THE ASSASSIN PRAYS.

During the prayer Guileau stood was taken into his cell. At this hour no one but the "death watch" was with Dr. Hicks opened the Bible, and "I will read a selection from the > manuscript, Guiteau exhibited a slight nervousness, and moved several times from one foot to the other. He soon sea of upturned faces and said:

too happy to go to Thee. The world Guiteau was then reported by his does not yet appreciate my mission, Guiteau was then reported by his guard to be apparently very composed. Guiteau's message about the flowers referred to his expectation that Mrs. Scoville would send some flowers to him but none had arrived at the time he asked for them. After a short conference with Cracker John W. Guiter and the set it forth in my book that all men may read and know that Thou. during all the wretched hours of the in the same way. The diabolical morning. She brought with her the spirit of this Nation, its Government flowers which Guiteau had asked for, and its newspapers toward me, will jus-Foster were elected to the Assembly and they were taken to the prisoner.

In a district of Allegheny and But Mrs Scovile also brought two handthat Thy divine law of retribution is some flower pieces, a cross and anchor, inexorable. I therefore predict that which she will place upon her brother's this Nation will go down in blood, and the murderers, from Executive to hangman, will go to hell. Thy laws canism in 1882, will be followed by a While Dr. Hicks was in the prison-er's cell at 11 o'clock, Guiteau made Judge, woe unto men that violate Thy some requests as to the execution, and, laws; only weeping and gnashing of having made copies of his "last prayer," the teeth awaits them. The American poem and other writings, tore up the originals. He then sent for the jail boot-black, and gave him his shoes to dictiveness in this matter. Nothing be shined. His dinner was brought as but blood will satisfy them, and now the doctor was leaving, and he ate my blood be on them and this Nation with much relish. His dinner consisted of a pound of broiled stake, a dent, is a coward and ingrate. His dish of fried potatoes, four slices of ingratitude to the man that made him and saved the party and land from Dr. Hicks, when he came out from overthrow has no parallel in history, the cell, said the prisoner had not the but Thou righteous Father, will judge slightest fear. "We have had a pleas- him. Father thou knowest me, but ant religious talk. He feels now that his preparation is made, and he is ready for the last formality. He commits himself to God with the utmost con-

the victors, stimulus of victory to arsenals and munitions of war, and the strongholds of power, and the control which possession of the State gives over the election of 1884? Your quackery would use the knife, though you endanger the Union by the loss of Pennsylvania. It reminds me of a Nobody, Dr. Hicks said, sis to his words by the peculiar facial had seen the prisoner at that time except himself and the jail officers.

Shortly before twelve o'clock something which was said or done. the Republican policy of twenty years —is dangerous to the doctrine of protection-to the system of national currency, the revival of free trade notions. the resumption of Bourbonism, the renewal of Bossism in the South and of many dangers which, when you was a common sense Republican, you once Bossism. You are right. I would hit every head that pops up. But your detestation of it reminds me of the

with the prisoner engaged in prayer. | bling to his mamma and his papa. Guiteau showed great nervousness wrote it this morning about 10 o'clock. and appeared greatly startled when he He then commenced to chant these stone floor of the rotunda. From that moment Guiteau appeared to be thoroughly overcome with emotion. He wept freely and seemed to be in great anguish. The scene in the rotunda, while waiting for the prisoner, was one long to be remembered. The soldiers were drawn up on one side in

Geo. W. Shaffer, Agent — office with K. Marshall Esq., Brady Block, Insurance.

Two Persons Killed and Many Others Injured and much Property Destroyed. but he rallied a little and went on with The cyclone, or tornado, that passed I saved my party and my land.

Glory hallelujah!
But they have murdered me for it,
And that is the reason I am going to the Lordy, Glory hallelujah! Glory hallelujah!
I am going to the Lordy.
Here again his feelings overcame over part of Slipperyrock township and nearly across Cherry twp., this county, taking Coalville in its route, on Friday evening, June 30th, last, was not only an unusual one, but such as never known before in the county, so far as we can learn.

On Monday, 3d inst., we visited the scene and learned about the follow-"I wonder what I will do when I get with the Lordy,
I guess that I will weep no more,
When I get to the Lordy;
Glory hallelujah! ing facts. The first symtoms of the wind storm were seen about 7 o'clock in the evening at Keister's mill dam, Slipperyrock twp., in which the water Here there was another interruption is said to have been whirled up from the very bottom. From there it went caused by the sobs and emotions which he was unable to repress. He wept about a mile almost directly east, tobitterly, and then with quivering lips ward Coalville, in Cherry twp. The citizens of Coalville saw and heard it and doleful tones he went on to finish coming, and describe it in appearance "I wonder what I will see, when I get to the Lordy;
I expect to see most splendid things beyond as two white clouds, resembling steam, and the noise as resembling that made by an approaching train of cars. These clouds came together about a half mile west of Coalville (Raising his voice to the highest and settled immediately over the store house of Bard Bros., and the "Glory hallelujah! I am with the Lordy." house and shop of Mr. Seth Myers, This closed the chant and then Rev. which were the first struck and were Mr. Hicks gave Guiteau his final bene-

Mr. Hicks gave Guiteau his final bene-diction and farewell, saying, "God, the Bard store were eight men, two were Father, be with thee and give theep are injured, Mr. Frank Clutton being perhaps the most severely hurt of any of all those injured. Mr. L. L. Cannon, the other injured man, has but slight wounds. Here the cloud seemed to legs and carefully adjusted the noose black cap over his head, and as he did toward the village, and then first so Guiteau called out in lord tones: which it tore into shreds and killing "Glory, glory, glory." Instantly the spring was touched, the drop fell, and Guiteau hung in the air. The body Mrs. Barron. She was carried son ten rods from where the house stood. with her two chidren, one a babe and turned partly around, but there was the other about three years old, which, strange to say, were not killed, but both are severely injured. The place where the house stood could not be recognized afterwards, so completely was it and all about it blown away. shoulders and legs, due to muscular

The next house struck, near by, Henry Hendley, who was up stairs writing a letter at the time. He was carried out of it and over another house and against the top of a barn and found with the roof of the same some distance off and so badly hurt that he died next day. These two were the only persons killed. Several other houses and buildings in this door. The officers were unable to withstand it, and hundreds of people vicinity were also blown down in whole or in part, among them those of heart for fully fourteen minutes and two men named Craig and one named the pulse fluttered two minutes longer. This brought the track of the storm just touching the ground for over half to Coalville proper, where the followan hour it was lowered into the coffin ing houses, shops or stores were leveled to the ground: Sample & Elliott store, in which were fifteen persons, but none badly injured; shoe shop of neck had been broken. When the body was lowered the black cap was Korn bruised and two ribs fractured Book & Shannon store, racked, twisted and out of shape; Walker's drug store completely down; Stewart's shoe shop, completely down; Stewart's shoe shop, a barber shop; Dr DeWolf's office; William A. Kelly house; the Kelso House, only public house, roof off and otherwise damaged; Kiester Hall, built by Mrs John Kiester, completely blown down; then the Leonard J. McQuistion house and meat shop, blown to price and Mr. McQuistion. veying the body externally, the sur-geons proceeded to lay open the brain carity and thorax and examine the organs therein contained. The brain blown to peices, and Mr. McQuistion half ounces, which is a little more than ton in extent of his injuries. He had the average, and was well formed, and presented no external evidence of disease or lesion. The neck was not disbut he himself was for some time burnels. located or fractured, as surgeons sup-posed, but there was a rupture of the muscle on both sides, as well as the ied beneath the parts of his house and is said to be internally hurt.

Among others bruised or injured we membrane. It follows therefore, that learned the names of Geo. McQuistion, Mrs. Fred Stewart, John McElwaine, death resulted from suffocation and not Joseph Kerr, George Masterton, Thos. Campbell and Theodore Earhart. A partial examination was made of the abdominal viscera, but it had not been The storm then struck a dense forest, on the hill east of Coalville, and tore up by the roots or twisted off the tops of trees immense in size and number, making a complete track through same. On the top of the hill it struck a school house, known as the Pigeon presented no unusual feature. The report of the surgeons will probably not be ready before Wednesday next. Wing school house, of Cherry twp., and blew it to pieces. Next it struck the farm house of James Armstrong and completly tore the same to pieces Mr. Armstrong was reported as badly cut and otherwise injured in person. ticket can be felt in the defeat only of Then still passing on eastward, through Cherry twp., it went immediately north of the residence of John Smith, Esq., and done much damage to his orchard and fences. The farms of Samuel Glenn and — Russell were passed and some injury done, and then it struck severely that of Mr. Charles Tinker, whose orchard was completely leveled to the ground, barn partly blown down and much other injury done. The storm spent itself on leaving this place, in the valley in which David, Charles and Levi Stewart reside, doing some damnot the first one whose "foresight is age to their farms, and making a You track of about four miles in all, and ill re. all along which the largest trees were uprooted or their tops twisted off. From the top of the cyclone, as it passed along, there issued an immense Could you not tell us something of the other side—the humiliation of Retwo. Many curious incidents ar clashing leaders, the bickerings and animosities of factions, the rejoicing of man being found eight miles away from where it was taken from his head future effort, the transfer of the 'spoils,' Altogether it was a most singular and the advantage of the possession of the fearful storm and one long to be remembered in that vicinity. The most wonderful part of the whole matter is that so few lives were lost. Considering the destruction to other ani-mals, fowls, hogs, etc., and to buildings in which people had gathered, it is almost a miracle there was not more loss of human life. Some twenty-five case of malpractice tried before us, where a heroic surgeon extirpated the liver as a hugh tumor. Did he kill the patient? Certainly. A Demo- stroyed. The total-loss is estimated cratic victory in 1884 is a reversal of at $15,000. The track of the cyclone in some places was quite narrow This was the case at Coalville, where it was not more then two hundred feet wide and taking in only the busi ness part of that new and business place. Had it passed two hundred feet further south it would have passe over the extensive coke ovens and the dwellings (two rows) of the miners, You refer to my detestation of all of which are uninjured.

The Hoop-Snake of Politics.

The hoop-snake takes its tail in its mouth and rolls rapidly along the fable of the bear who would kill a fly ground toward the object of attack, on the face of his sleeping master. The blow of the paw broke the jaw, striking it when near enough. The spoils system is the hoop-snake of politics. These rings of political in-Beaver, June 8, 1882. D. AGNEW." fluence in which the tail reaches around to the mouth must be smash ed.

Advertise in the CITIZEN.

a long line, the spectators facing them on the other. It was understood Guiteau was very much depressed and it may going to the Lordy—Here Guiteau's voice failed, and he Two Persons Killed and Many Tolkers Tolkers and Many Tolkers Tolkers and Many Tolkers Tolkers and Many Tolkers Tolke A. TROUTMAN,

Dry Goods. Notions and Trimmings!

STOCK AND LOWEST PRICES.

Goods. Radama Silk, Satin De Lyon, Black and Colored Silks and Satins, Cashmeres and

TRIMMINGS in all the new things. Marie Sat ins, Fringes, Ornaments, Cords and Tassels. Ribbons in all shades to match. LACE CURTAINS and Lambrequins. I have

FRESH GOODS and choice designs which I am selling at Low PRICES. .

THE SPECIAL ATTENTION of housekeepers It is called to our Linen and Domestic Goods.

I keep all kinds of Table Linen—full bleached, half bleached and Turkey Red—in all qualities. Towels, Napkins, Crashes, Tickings, Bed Quilts, Sheetings, Muslins, &c., &c. |

Stock, Largest Assortment, Greatest Variety.

LACES, LACES, LACES, LACES. — Blace Spanish, Guipure, French, Laces of a Spanish, kinds, HOSIERY, HOSIERY. — Special attention is invited to our line of Childrens', Misses', Ladies', and Gents', Hosiery, best value to be' had.

WHITE GOODS.—White Dresses for Infants, White Robes for Infants, Merino Cloaks for Infants, Lace Caps for Infants.

A. TROUTMAN,

Butler, Penn'a,

N. B.——It will pay you to visit my astablishment. My inducements are to slargest Stock to select from. My Prices ARE LOW. Please call and examine. Apr. 12, 1882.

MENDELSSOHN PIANO CO. Grand Offer for the next 60 days only.

$850 Square Grand Piano for only $245.

PIANO STYLE 32 Magnificent rosewood, elegantly finished, 3 strings, 7 ½ Octaves, beautiful carved legs and lyre, heavy serpentine and large fancy moulding, full iron frame, French Grand Action, Grand-Hammers, in fact, every improvement which can in any way tend to the perfection of the instrument, has been added.

12 Our price for this instrument, boxed and delivered on board cars at New York. $245.00 with fine Piano Cover, Stool and Book, only

Just reduced from our late wholesale, factory price, $25, for 60 days only. This is now, by far, the greatest bargain ever offered the musical public. Unprecedented success! Tremendous demand for this style! Send in your order at once. Do not lose this rare opportunity.

This Piano will be sent on 15 days test trial. Please send reference if you do not send money with order. Cash sent with order will be refunded and freight charges paid by as both ways if Piano s not just as represented. Several other special bargains: Planos, $160 up. Over 15.000 in use, and not one dissatisfied purchaser, Don't fail to write us before buying. Handsome Illustrated Plano Catalogue, malled free, giving the highest testimonials ever awarded any piano manufacturer. Every mean fully warranted for 5 years.

ne-third price. Catalogue of 3,000 choice pieces of popular Music sent for 3c stam MENDELSSOHN PIANO CO., P. o. Box 2058 New York City.

Summer Complaints.

out a bottle in the house.

out a bottle in the house.

SACO, Mr., Jan. 22, 1881.

ave used PERRY DAVIS "PAIK KILLER for twelve rs. It is eafs, sure, and reliable. No mother uild allow it to be out of the family.

H. I. NAYES.

At this season, various diseases of the bowels are prevalent, and many lives are lost through lack of knowledge of a safe and sure remedy. PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is a sure cure for Diarrhea, Dysentery, Summer Complaint, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, etc., and is perfectly safe.

Read the following:

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is server to the state of the sta I had been several days suffering severely from diarrhos, accompanied with intense pain, when tried your Pain Killers, and found almost instan relief.

21 MONTAGUE ST., LONDON, ENG., During a residence of twenty-three yars in India I have given it in many cases of diarrhosa, dysen tery, and choiers, and never knew it to fall to give relief.

IRON CITY BOILER WORKS

Oil Tanks, Stills & All Kinds of Sheet Iron Work.

JAMES LAPPAN & CO.,

Pike Street, from 19th to 20th. Office 20th St. PITTSBURGH

J. PORTER & SON'S,

New and Second-Hand Furuiture Em porium No. 42 South Diamond, Allegheny City.

We have all Kinds of Furniture, Carpets, Stoves, Store Fixtures, Household Goods, Barber Chairs, &c., for sale at low prices.

We buy for cash at low prices from the manufacturers and parties who are leaving the city, therefore can sell at correspondingly low prices. Parties in need of goods in our line, will find it to their interest to call an see our stock and learn our prices.

THOMAS & DUBBS.

AND SECOND - HAND FURN ITURE No. 409 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.,

Stoves, Carpets, Store Fixtures of all Kinds, Household &c., for sale at low prices.

Special attention to Conntry Trade. We pay the highest market price for all kinds of Furniture. Parties desiring to sell furniture, will find it to their interest to consult us.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received until July the 29th, 1882 at, 1 o'clock, P. M., for the building of a Brick School House in Jefferson twp., Butler county, Pa. Separate bids will be received for the stone and brick work, and for the carpenter work, or for the entire building complete. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Plans and Specifications can be seen at the store of E. A. Helmbold in Saxonburg. By order of THE BOARD, ROBERT ELLIOTT, Saxonburg, Butler county, Pa. Secretary. july""12

AUDITORS' NOTICE.

P. OF BUTLER CO., MS. D., NO. 18, SEPT. T., 1880 G. P. OF BUTLER CO., MS. D., NO. 18, SEPT. T., 1880

The undersigned having been appointed auditor to pass upon exceptions if any, restate account if necessary and make distribution of the fund paid into Court by the Assignee, among the creditors entitled thereto, hereby gives notice that he will attend to the duties of said appointment at his office in Butler on the 27th day of July 1882, at 10 o'clock, a. M., at which time and place all parties interested can attend.

A. M. CORNELIUS,
July 12, 3t.

The public is hereby notified not to harbor or provide for a pauper named William O. McCandless of Franklin twp., Butler county, Pa., as he has been properly provided for by the authorities of said township.

JOHN STEVENSON, ESQ, JOHNS, DODDS,

Overseers of Franklin twp.

Mt. Chestnut P. O. St.

KIDNEY-WORT IS A SURE CURE for all diseases of the Kidneys It has specific action on this most impor-organ, enabling it to throw off torpidity inaction, stimulating the healthy secretio the Bile, and by keeping the bowels in: Malaria. If you area one should take a thorough course of it.

KIDNEY-WORT FERRIS ARMOR, Justice of the Peace

A large, new, seven room, frame house, fronting on Jefferson st., Butler, Fa. The house contains seven large rooms and also has three small rooms in the attic. It has a large hall and good dry cellar under the whole house. The lot is 60 by 183 feet and has on it beside the main building, a good, small two-room house with cellar, a large wash-house with a bake-oven and fire place, a large stable and ice house capable of holding 500 tons of ice, and a well of No. 1, water. This property can be secured by a cash purchaser at about half its original cost; or will be exchanged for a farm. For particulars enquire at the CITIZEN OFFICE, BUTLER, PA.

FOR SALE.

Webb's Eclectric Medicine.

Webb's Eclectric Medicine.

Is a positive and effectual remedy for all Nervous Diseases in every stage of life—young or old, male or female. Such as impotency, Prostration, loss of Strength, loss of Vitality, Defective Memory, Impaired Brain Power, and diseases from which an unnatural waste of life springs, all of which cannot full to undermine the whole system. Every organ is weakened, every power prostrated, and many forms of disease are generated which, if not checked, pave the way to an early death. It rejuvinates age and reinvigorates youth.

Each package contains sufficient for two weeks treatment. Write for pamphlet, which will be sent free, with full particulars.

Sold by all Druggists at 56 cents a package, or twelve packages for $5.00. Will be sent free by mail on receipt of money, by addressing.

WEBPS ECLECTRIC MEDICINE CO., A cure guaranteed.

Sold by D. H. Wuller, Butler, Pa. jan3:1y

Notice to Contractors.

The Board of School Directors of Penn twp., Butler county, Pa., will receive sealed proposals up to two o'clock, P. M., of Angust 12, 1882, for the erection of a new frame school house, on lot No. 5, Nixon school house. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. All letters or communications must be addressed to J. B. DODDB, Brownsdale, Butler county, Pa. where plans and specifications can be seen. They will also sell on same day, the old brick school house on said lot, the seats and stone excepted, By Order of the School house of the School house

July 12, 4t. $5 to $20per day at home. Samples worth

Advertise in the CITIZEN