Explains itself. Special Telegram. Great Valley, N. X.—Having sold your medicine the past two and a half years can cheerfully recommend all of them, especially Baxter's Mandrake Bitters, as I have sold several gross of them, and in every instance wherever I have recommended any one to try a bottle they have come back after more.

Some Large Lenses. The thirty inch objective for the great telescope of the Russian Observatory at Pulkova was lately tested at the establishment of the grinders, the Clarks, of Cambridgeport, Mass., and was fairly perfect.

Our law is wonderfully kind to criminals. When a man marries three or four women, and several wives and children die out, the courts immediately lock him up in a big stone building where his furious wives can get at him.

Humbugged Again. I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some, I concluded to be humbugged again, and I am glad I did, for in less time than two months' use of the Bitters, my wife was cured, and she has remained so for eighteen months since.

The Razor Back Hog. To the traveler through Texas one of the strangest and most peculiar features of the landscape is the razor back hog.

From the New York Evening Post.] But the Independents, when considering the propositions thus offered, will have to ask themselves for what reason it was that they made their revolt.

A Remarkable Case. Dr. Hartman.—Dear Sir: I am induced by a sense of duty to the suffering to make a brief of your remarkable cure of my wife.

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN. (From the Boston Globe.)

Many New York physicians are now carrying out their drug prescriptions instead of writing prescriptions. The practice is growing out of the increasing dissatisfaction of the people with the prices charged for prescriptions by the druggists.

Qualifications of a Drug Clerk.

"Want to hire a drug clerk?" asked a bright-eyed youth, stepping into the office of a prominent apothecary on Dearborn street.

"Are you a competent man?" inquired the proprietor, rising and closing the door with an air of secrecy.

"Had any experience?" "Where?" "Milwaukee."

"What would you do for a plain wash at a soda fountain?" "Dash with sour mash."

"Two short winks and the tongue in the left cheek?" "Fill the glass half full with Jamaica rum."

"In case a man calls for banana syrup with a doleful look, and his hand on his watch pocket?" "Give him cognac and ginger."

"Three winks and a jerk over left shoulder with the thumb?" "Put in Old Tom gin, and have the same ready for a friend of the man's who will be in directly."

"What if the man says 'Baraboo' and spits to the left?" "Fill with Old Crow, dashed with peppermint and tansy."

"The examination is satisfactory. You may come in the morning. The new international code of signals is not published yet. If any change is made will give you a key. We have to be very strict in the examination of prescription clerks where health, yes, even the lives of individuals are at stake."

Strive for the best, and provide for the worst.

Egypt is the name of the new town to be erected in the Cranberry oil district of Venango county.

The use of mules in place of horses for heavy work on hard roads is increasing in the northern States. They are hardy, and when well treated, tractable animals, and much less expensive to maintain than horses.

If you want to be a good Christian you must practice on Monday one or two things that you say "amen" to on Sunday. The difficulty with many church members is that they get wound up at prayer meeting, but run down as rapidly as a watch with a broken mainspring the moment they touch the solid business of life.

The season for hunting, without violating the game laws, is as follows: Squirrels from September 1 to January 1. From October 1 to January 1, ruffed grouse or pheasants may be killed. An army chaplain relates the following funny story: Seeing a dirty-faced urchin on the fence in front of a house in Georgia one day, the preacher stopped and asked, "Is your father at home?" "No, he's gone to church."

"Is your mother in?" "No, she's gone too." "Then you are alone?" "No; Sam's in that huggin' the nigger gal." "That's bad." "Yes 'es 'bad—but it's the best he can do."

Nebraska has 100,000 acres of cultivated timber land, all planted within the last ten years. The hardy catalpa and the hard and soft maples are the favorite trees for planting, though many groves are planted to black walnut. This tree-planting is a wise thing to do. It is a pity some of the Western enthusiasts in doing it could not be infused into the farmers of the East.

The following method of canning sweet-corn is given in the New York Times: The corn is first cooked for five minutes; it is then cut from the cobs and put into the cans, and the covers are soldered down. A small pinhole is made in the cover, and the cans are put in the boiler and boiled steadily for an hour and a half. The cans are then taken out and wiped dry, and a drop of solder is put on the air-hole. In this way there is no trouble about putting up sweet corn so that it will keep.

Every time we see a horse chaffing and fretting because his head is reigned in so cruelly, we send up a prayer for the society that prevents cruelty to animals, and wish that its missionaries might speedily find their way to Franklin. They are the Salvation Army of God's dumb creatures.

Next to the hired beast who is in no haste under heaven, yet speeds his jaded horse along our streets, must be ranked the man who keeps his horse's neck check-reined in a torturing twist for hours. We'd like to see such a horse-man with a snaffle-bit pulling steadily in his own mouth until his Adam's apple cut his lower jaw.—E.
