Ind. Republican State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN STEWART, of Franklin county. FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT, GEORGE JUNKIN, of Philadelphia.

COUNTY TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS, J. D. MCKENNA, Butler. (Subject to District Conference.) FOR ASSEMBLY, WILLIAM P. BRIDGMAN, Mercer township. JOSEPH T. DONLY, Butler.

THOMAS M. MARSHALL spoke to the Independent Republicans of New Castle last Saturday evening.

The election this year in Pennsylvania will be known as the "campaign against bossism" and it will be a memorable one, doing much good we hope.

There is no Independent Republican who is not better in principle than a Stalwart Republican—the difference being the same as that between Garfield and Blaine on the one side and Conkling and Cameron on the other.

Our Harmony friends met with their usual Fair luck last week. It rained. Sorry for it—and sorry for brother Ziegler of the Herald, who went down to the Fair pregnant with a speech he was to deliver on agriculture, but the elements forbade.

Republican meetings were held in several counties of the State last week; some by the Independents and addressed by candidates Stewart, Merrick, McMichael and Duff, and some by the Regulars and addressed by candidates Beaver, Greer, Brosius and Davies.

On our first page this week will be found the great speech of General Koons, of Somerset county delivered in Pittsburgh last week. His special subject was a history of the Camerons and the facts he states are true and known to many.

THE HON. GEORGE LEAR, whose letter on the political situation in this State will be seen in another place, was the President of the Harrisburg Republican State Convention that nominated Beaver, Rawie, Davies and Greer. He now deems it a public duty to give the reasons why he cannot longer support that ticket.

Mr. GABRIEL ETZEL, formerly a citizen of this town, and who moved to Colorado about three years ago, has been nominated for a seat in the Legislature of that State, by the Democrats of Chester county. While living here Mr. Etzel was regarded by our people as an intelligent and honest man, and his many friends here are pleased to learn of his success in his new home in Colorado.

According to the views of some men, everything is in the name and nothing in the history of the Republican party. Wilnot, Wade, Sumner, Adams and Giddings, instead of being leaders and reformers in party politics in their day, would have been kickers, bolters or soreheads, according to these modern machine men.

THE WARRIORS FOR THE BOSSES. The events of the campaign are too numerous to recite, but every act made to prove one candidate or purpose, the endorsement of Cameron. The candidates might be elected if the contest were made for them alone, but it must be done in a manner to make it a triumph, or he will wreck the ticket and party.

THE LATE MRS. LINCOLN'S HOBBY. SHEPHERD, Ill., Sept. 30.—Secretary Lincoln, who was killed in the late day's two trunk accidents, aggregating nine thousand pounds weight, their contents comprising dress goods, camels' hair shawls, trinkets purchased in Europe, at the cost of twenty thousand dollars by the late Mrs. Lincoln.

FRANKLIN, Pa., September 30.—After a fruitless session of two days at Warren, in which a number of ballots were taken, the Republican Senatorial conference for this district adjourned Friday evening to meet at the same place on Wednesday next. The friends of Senator Lee are very sanguine and claim that he will be promptly nominated at the next meeting of the conference.

LEAR TO MARSHALL.

Why Mr. Lear Cannot Support the Harrisburg Ticket. Special dispatch to the Press. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29.—The Hon. Thomas M. Marshall having telegraphed George Lear, Esq., with regard to their appointment to speak in Chambersburg on October 4, to-day received the following:

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Sept. 25, 1882. HON. THOMAS M. MARSHALL. MY DEAR SIR: Your telegram is received. I will not be in Chambersburg on the 4th of October, and so I cannot appear with you.

LETTER FROM CHICAGO. FRIEND NEGLEY—I am stranded here in northern Illinois, and will help all you a dull day by dictating with your request for help...

AN OBLIGATION THAT MIGHT BE DISCHARGED. A breach of faith by the candidates, or by those who were delegated to conduct their campaign, not only absolved the Republican voters from all obligations to support the ticket of their party, but demanded their emphatic rebuke for such an attempt.

OUR FIRST PAGE THIS WEEK will be found the great speech of General Koons, of Somerset county delivered in Pittsburgh last week.
