ROBERT MCCLUNG, Fairview township.

ELECTION—NEXT Tuesday.

Vote for the whole county ticket and for the Independent State ticket.

SEVERAL communications and other matters do not appear this week for want of space.

Now is the year and time for the Republicans of Pennsylvania to make a declaration of independence from Cameron and the Bosses.

ELECTION returns: We will be pleased to hear from our friends on the night of the election of the results in their districts. The CITIZEN office will be open to a late hour for that purpose.

We have reports of different meetings held through the county last week, some Independent and some Regular, as to State ticket, but the press of other matters prevents a detailed account of them this week.

The Independent Republican meeting at Harmony last night was a great success, being the largest held this campaign. It was addressed by Col.
Duff, of Pittsburgh, and C. Walker and J. M. Galbreath, Esq., of Butler.

REV. EBRAIM OUDEN, Prohibi-tionist candidate for Congress in this district, addressed a meeting at Mar-tinburg last evening (Tuesday), and will address one at Fairview, on tomorrow, Thursday, evening.

STATE Senator Lee, the Republican candidate for re-election in the Venango and Warren county district, refuses to take the stamp for Beaver, because he does not approve of the political assessments and use of money for the election of the Beaver ticket.
He is for the Stewart State ticket.

The Republicans of this county are united upon their duty to stand closely together in the support of their county ticket. Congress and the Legislature just now are of more importance than anything else. If the Republicans can retain the Legislature of this State, as we believe they will, they can prevent harmful legislation, by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of Internal Affairs who they may.

Look Out!
For all kinds of false election reports from this until and on next Tuesday.
Look out also for spurious tickets.
Believe no reports, unless you know them true; and let every man vote at this election according to the dictates of his own conscience, and not to please the bosses and office holders.

Martin Reiber, Deceased.

The remains of Mr. Martin Reiber were followed to the grave last Tuesday by an unusually large number of people. Funeral services were held at his residence, conducted by the Rev. Waters, who, among other impressive and appropriate remarks, declared the following relative to the deceased:

"Mr. Reiber was born in the town of Goettingen, in the principality of Wurttemberg, Germany, on May 31, 1812, and died October 21, 1882, aged 70 years, 4 months and 21 days. At the age of 20 years he came with his parents to this country, in the year 1832, and came to this county in the year 1839. In 1846 he was married to Miss Isaac Yetter, daughter of Mr.
Isaac Yetter, deceased, of Butler township, this county, and at the same time took up his residence in this borough, where he has continued to reside ever since, with the exception of a short residence in Millerstown, this county. Having spent more than 40 years of his life here, mingling with its citizens in the various walks of life, Mr. Reiber, by the integrity of his character, no less than by his modest and unassuming manners, won the respect and esteem of the community. Only those who came into relations of intimacy with him could appreciate the simplicity and meekness of his life. For more than fifty years he was a communicant member of the Lutheran church in the welfare of which he was always deeply interested. The faith in which he lived sustained him in death and enabled him to rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. He died in peace." Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; and from henceforth, for they do rest from their labors and their works do they sleep.

And thus ends this long contest, lasting since August last. We know of nothing unfair being said or done by Mr. Miller to secure the nomination, and we therefore place his name on the county ticket at the head of our column and will place his name upon the tickets printed. Butler county was entitled to this nomination by rotation or turn in the district. But it has been decided another should have it, and by all rules of honorable dealing we are bound to yield the successful competitor a full and fair support. The record that Mr. Miller had already made in Congress was strongly urged in his favor and no doubt had much to do in his present re-nomination. And, besides his industry and attention to the duties of the office, he has shown an independence of spirit and action that must be admitted. We have satisfactory proof that he was not like some other of the Pennsylvania members, subservient to the will and wishes of Senator Don Cameron, but that he asserted his own rights and manhood as against Cameron whenever an occasion required.
We believe that, if re-elected, he will continue in that line and assert his own and the rights of his district.
Under this view we trust and support him, and advise that the full Republican vote of the county be given him on Tuesday next.

Miller for Congress.

On Thursday last the labors of the Congressional Conference for this district came to an end, at Corry, and ended in the re-nomination of Hon. S.
H. Miller, of Mercer county. This result was obtained by Dr. Roberts, the candidate of Crawford county, withdrawing his name as a candidate. Two of his conferees then voted for Mr.
Miller, thus giving him five votes, and the other one voting for Mr. McKinley, thus giving him four votes. Mr. Miller was declared nominated and on motion of the Butler conferees his nomination was made unanimous.

And thus ends this long contest,
lasting since August last. We know
of nothing unfair being said or done by
Mr. Miller to secure the nomination,
of the Pennsylvania members, subser-

own and the rights of his district.

on Tuesday next.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the directors of the Bald Ridge Oil and Transportation Company, held the 30th of Oct., 1882, the following action was taken and minute made of the death of Martin Reiber.

WHEREAS, Since our last meeting death has been in our midst, and our senior member, Martin Reiber, has been gathered to his fathers, it is fitting that

Caution.

As every freeman should have a chance to vote his own sentiments, according to the dictates of his own conscience, we would caution the Republicans of Butler county, who desire and intend to vote the Independent State ticket, headed by Stewart for Governor, to have a sharp look out for the tickets at their polls. We give this caution from the fact that it often happens that tickets are secreted, destroyed or stolen away from the polls. And this is often done by the arrangements of small minded party managers. We do not know that anything so dishonest may happen in this county at the coming election, but nevertheless deem it of sufficient importance as to call the attention of all to it.

What Already Done.

Franklin H. Agnew, Esq., of Beaver, has received the Republican nomination for the State Senate in the Beaver and Washington county district; Senator Lee has been renominated in the Venango and Warren county district; A. L. Richmond, Esq., is the candidate in the Crawford county district, and Capt. Aull, in one of the Allegheny county districts, that elect State Senators next Tuesday. These candidates are all anti-Cameron and if elected will oppose sending him again to the U. S.
Senate. In the only other Republican district in the Western part of the State, that elects a State Senator this year, Allegheny city, Col. John M.
Sullivan has been brought out and is running as the anti-Cameron candidate.
If he, and the four in the above districts all succeed, as it is confidently believed they will, then the whole five Western districts will return Senators opposed to Cameron. And this is what has already been accomplished by the people in their determination to free themselves of Cameron's rule. And yet there are some who say, "don't fight Cameron now; wait a while; wait until he comes up again for re-election and then oppose him." If the people waited until then, they would then find that they had waited too long. It would be like locking the stable door after the horse had been stolen.

Destroying the Party.

The effort of the Independent Republicans of Pennsylvania is to preserve the party, not to destroy it.

This can only be done by preserving its purity. It is the corruption of Cameronism that is destroying it.
By freeing ourselves of him the party will more likely live and flourish, than if Cameron continues to boss and dictate. The effort now making is therefore like unto that made by a church to cast out an unworthy and dishonest pastor or member of the church.
This does not destroy the church. On the contrary it strengthens it. The not doing is what would likely destroy the church. Therefore, there is no wisdom, truth or reason in the cry against the Independents that they are destroying the party.

General Beaver. In accepting the nomination, declared that these resolutions are not only correct as principles, but must be faithfully and honestly carried out in practice. And yet these resolutions, most important and substantial in character, are disregarded, trampled upon and laughed at every day by these political managers; and I speak individually and with consideration when I say, it has come to my knowledge that a large fund, raised by the very violation of this fifth resolution, is now being industriously applied to the business of keeping another ticket in the field, of subsidizing purchaseable newspapers and buying the votes and influence of bad men in the wards of our large cities, thus, in the name of the Republican party and its candidates, corrupting and befolding the very fountain head of political power.

A victory thus achieved by means forbidden by the law and most corrupting in its tendencies, and an election thus secured, without regard to cost of money and principles, will be more disastrous than defeat itself. The election of General Beaver by such means must be regarded everywhere as a ratification by the Republicans of Pennsylvania of their villainous methods and practices in party politics.

Can the party afford to purchase a victory at such a sacrifice of principle and honor?

Any party of American citizens can afford to be defeated, but no party can afford to win its battles by fraud, trickery and corruption. Wrong, organized by bad men, must be met by resistance, organized by good men.
For these reasons, which appeal so earnestly to my self-respect and sense of duty, my lot shall hereafter be cast with that party of men in Pennsylvania who have the will to do the right and the courage to resist the wrong."
