—Mrs. Louisa Cook and W. R. Hopkins of this town, who are neighbors on the flat in the west side, brought cross suits against each other, before Esg. Irvin, some days ago, for assault and battery. These suits were heard on Monday by a jury of six, under the Potter county act, and both the parties were found guilty, and sentenced by the Justice to pay a fine of one dollar each, and cost of prosecution. The difficulty grew out of a quarrel among the children.

—Fresh oysters received twice a week at the City Bakery, Vegely House block.

—Burglars entered C. Scott's store, at Fairview, last Thursday night and toppled the till but got nothing. Hays' barn was also broken into, and it is supposed that two shots and was in turn fired at by the marauders. From blood found on the floor Scott's shot must have wounded one of them. They made good their escape, leaving the identical tools used to force open Harper's store at North Washington last winter. Hays' barn was also broken into, it is supposed to steal horses to aid them in their flight. A jail bird and his pal, in North Washington, are strongly suspected.

—Plushes, Velvets and Velvetines in all the new shades, just received at L. STEIN & SON'S.

—The total vote in this county last year, for State Treasurer was as follows: Bailey, 3,517; Noble, 3,327; Wolfe, 771. In this Congressional district, at the election in 1890, Miller had 11,630 votes; Caldwell, 14,976 and Plummer, 3,895.

—The total vote cast in Pennsylvania in 1876 for President was 157,568, and the Presidential vote was in 1880, 872,800, an increase in four years of 15.2 per cent. Estimating that the vote of the State has increased in the same proportion in the last two years, Pennsylvania this year could cast 939,132 votes. Last year the vote should have been 905,966, but as only 593,231 votes were cast, the stay-at-home vote aggregated 312,735, considerably more than one-third of all who were entitled to the elective franchise.

Youthful Burglars.

Two young girls, strangers to this community, and whose ages are about thirteen and fourteen, were committed to jail on last Monday, on a charge of larceny, preferred by Mr. Spohn, of Summit township.

These girls arrived at Mr. Spohn's home last Saturday evening. They had been walking, gave their names as Gilmore, from Freeport, and asked to stay over night, as they had no money to pay for a night's lodging in Butler.

They left the house next morning about 8 o'clock, and Mr. Spohn and his family went to church about nine, noticing on their way, the two girls sitting on the railroad track, reading the Pittsburgh papers, that they had brought to the house with them. Mr. Spohn and family went to church and afterwards visited at a neighbor's, and did not get home until four o'clock that afternoon when they found that a pane of glass had been removed, the sack had been raised, the house entered and some valuable clothing—good dresses, dolmans, etc.—stolen. Lying on the ground, just outside the window were two of the papers that the girls had been reading, which convinced Mr. S. that they were the thieves. He searched the neighborhood for them, unsuccessfully, and then came to Butler that night and made information before Esg. Koek, who sent officers down the railroads to Freeport and Bald Ridge, who not finding them came back, and hearing from Peter Kramer that he had passed two girls on the plank road that morning, started after them and found them in the woods near Keneford City, with the stolen goods in their possession. They refused to give their proper names or any information regarding themselves and were locked up for a hearing.

COURT NOTES.

Messrs. Robert Hindman and Jacob Wolfford made a new information for perjury, vs. Esg. John Smith last Saturday and Smith was arrested. His attorney got out a writ of habeas corpus and he was taken before the Court, (Judge McJunkin) who ordered that the hearing in the case be continued until the first day of the second week of the next term, at 11 o'clock a. m., and as the defendant is now under recognizance to appear at that time to answer to an indictment charging substantially the same act of perjury, he is not required to enter recognizance in this case. Same day the commonwealth entered the protest against this order.

John E. Fithian has brought suit against U. P. Church, of Fairview, and Frank Stewart, contractor.

Mrs. Josie Stoughton has brought suit for divorce, for reason of desertion.

EASILY PROVEN—It is easily proven that malarial fevers, constipation, torpidity of the liver and kidneys, general debility, nervousness, and neuralgic ailments yield readily to this great disease conqueror, Hop Bitters. It repairs the ravages of disease by converting the food into rich blood, and it gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm always.
