A<sup>1</sup>LISON-On Jan. 25th, 1883, Robert Allison, of -entre twp., Butler county, Pa., aged 83 years 7 months and 16 days. Mr Allison was the oldest citizen of Centre twp. He lived on the farm where he died over 50 years, coming to it soon after he was married. May 4th, 1825, he was united in marriage with Miss Jane Cohran, with whom he lived happily for over 56 years. In the centennial year of our country, they celebrated their Golden Wedding. Mrs Alll-son, two sons and four daughters survive to mourn the loss of a much estgemed and loved husband and father. Robert Allison was a mem-ber of the United Presbyterian Church. When a young man he made a public profession of his light in Christ in connection with the U. P. Church of Butler, then under the pastoral care of Rev. Isaiah Niblock. Of this congregation he continued a member until the organization of the U. P. congregation of Holyoke in 1874, of which he became a member, and in its fellowship con-tinued til his death. As a man he was upright and honorable in his conduct and dealings. As a member of the clurch consistant endeavoring to "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith he was called." By his life he gave evidence of true dis-eipleship and his latter end was peace.
