This grand consolidation of the two Monster Shows, comes to us well recommended by the press, wherever it has pitched its 168,000 square yards of canvass. Of it the Frankfort News says: "One of the chief attractions in riding in the Grand Circus Boyal, ejc., is the extraordinary performances of Miss Mollie Brown. This lady differs, in her general display of horsemanship, from all others who have preceded her in the American arena. She owes her unprecedented success mostly to the wonderful balance and muscular power she possesses, which enable her to assume almost impossible attitudes and changes of position, upon her naked horse, during her lightning-like flight around the arena. All her movements are marvels of grace and dexterity, animated pictures of elegant intrepidity, the Hilling dashes of supereminent art, self-confol and indomitable nerve, such as no other equestrian, either male or female, ever accomplished before her. Her specially wonderful achievement of throwing somersaults from the back of her naked horse, while in full motion, together with her rapid and reckless style of backward riding, in all the principal cities of the new and old worlds, have caused presidents, senators, and the public, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, to mingle their shouts of applause and wild huzzas of delighted approval. aged 65 years.

Mr. Montg omery was one of the leading citizens in the lower end of our county. He was held in high regard by all his neighbors and acquaintances. Open, frank, honorable and honest in all his ways, he commanded the confidence of his fellow citizens. His illness (gravel) was that which takes away the life of many robust men, and dates back to September last, since which time he suffered executiving pain. We are sorry to have to record the death o so good a man as John B. Montgomery. His family have the sympathy of the entire community in which they live.

In the general reception room of the Western Union Telegraph building on Broadway, New York, are exhibiting the coarse, crude and clumsy instruments of the infancy of the telegraph. They are only relies now. More perfect machinery has superseded them.

Years ago what is now styled the old-fashioned porous plaster did some good service. There was then nothing better of the kind. Now all that is changed. Science and study have gone deeper into the secrets of medicine and produced BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER, which embodies all the excellencies thus far possible in an external remedy. The old plasters were slow—the Capcine is rapid; they were uncertain—the Capcine is sure. Cheaper articles bear similar names. Be careful, therefore, that some thrifty druggist does not deceive you. In the center of the genuine is cut the word CAPCINE. Price 25 cents.
