MISCELLANEOUS.
"Thought the Child Would Die."
That is what the Sisters of the Home for Catholic children, in Boston, said about a poor little child who was racking itself almost to death with whooping cough. The child was suddenly taken with severe spasms and vomiting, and with frightful pains in the head. The Sisters write: "We used Perry Davis's Pain Killer with the most astonishing results. In a few hours the disease was gone and the child was well."

When Ladies are Attractive.
All ladies know their faces are most attractive when free from pimples. Parker's Ginger Tonic is popular among them because it banishes impurities from blood and skin and makes the face glow with health.
—There is no lack of variety in the weather.
—Five Dr.'s: no end of medicine: no relief. Dr. Benson's Skin Cure has driven away all eruptions and I'm nearly well. Ida C. Young, Hamilton, Ill., Druggists keep it, $1 per package.
—The Fourth of July already begins to cast its shadow before.
My Wife had Fits.
"For 34 years," says our correspondent Henry C. Fairfield, Lenawee Co., Mich., "my wife had fits. They would last about an hour, and sometimes longer. Samaritan Nervine has permanently cured her."
—The aesthetic craze has reached the farm, and hand-painted barns, are announced.
A Doctor tries Coe's Dyspepsia Cure.
It is so seldom that physicians will admit being benefited by proprietary medicines that it affords us peculiar pleasure to publish the following:
E. Detchon, M. D., Pleasant Hill, Ind., writes: I have used five bottles of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure and find it of great value. I have had dyspepsia remedy so effectual in giving relief to 23 years, and I have found no one else's Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. I am a physician, used it in my practice and have been satisfied with its effects.
The Genuine Atwood's Bitters.
Are made by the Manhattan Medicine Co., of New York, who purchased the right from the successors of Moses Atwood. Best remedy for all disorders of the stomach. Beware of counterfeits.
Spalding's Cephalic Pills.
Cure headache and regulate the stomach and bowels.
—It is now in order to go for the English sparrow. Go for him, hammer and tongs and shotgun thrown in.
—Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aching pained, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong? If you continue feeling miserable and good-for-nothing you have only yourself to blame. For Brown's Iron Bitters will surely cure you. Iron and cinchona are its principal ingredients. It is a certain cure for dyspepsia, indigestion, malaria, weakness, kidney, lung, and heart affections. Try it if you desire to be healthy, robust and strong and experience its remarkable curative qualities.
—When a man nearly breaks his back by stepping on a banana peel, it is rather cruel to tell him not to be cast down by trifles.
—Thousands in this State are dying by inches by that dreadful disease Dyspepsia, ignorant of the fact that there is a certain cure to be had. Wilson's Magnetic Appliances never fail. Cure guaranteed or no charge made. See advertisement on another page.
—Musically is becoming a painfully omnipresent word. Pretty soon we shall have a politician saying of a rival that he is a liary man.
—"He that is discontented in one place will seldom be happy in another." People are constantly changing their homes from East to West and from North to South or vice versa, in search of a healthy State. If they would learn to be contented, and use the celebrated Kidney-Wort when sick, they would be much better off. The whole system can be kept in a healthy state by this simple but effectual remedy.
—The fashionable style of driving is to make a sudden round turn when going into a side street, thus giving no sign to pedestrians on cross-walks.
—Fuller says:—"He that falls into sin is a man that grieves at it as may be a saint; that boasts of it is a devil."
New Jersey Wine Sent to Europe
The success of Mr. Speer, the great wine man of New Jersey, has arisen from the strict purity and valuable properties of his wine for invalids and feeble persons, and his reputation extends over the whole Union and in Europe as being a reliable producer of pure wines. His Port Grape Wine is now being distributed by families in Dresden, London and Paris for its superior medicinal virtues, and its blood making quality, owing probably to the iron contained in the brown shale rock soil in which the vine grows. For sale by D. H. Wuller.
—The most successful composer of this generation is a long and dull preacher when the mercury is in the nineties.
Deservedly Popular.
Unless it had great merit Parker's Ginger Tonic could not be so popular. Its sale has spread remarkably everywhere, because it invalids find it gives them new life and vigor when other medicines fail entirely.—Ohio Farmer

One of the Elect.
CLEVELAND, OHIO.—The Plain Dealer reports that Hon. Martin A. Foran, Congressman elect from the Cleveland, Ohio, district, has used St. Jacobs Oil in his family and has always found it safe and reliable, and it afforded him great relief to a lame knee.
—The latest English "craze" is mule riding. It will soon be taken up by the American dudes, unless the long-suffering beasts of burden decide that a line must be drawn somewhere.
Harvard College.
At a recent meeting of the overseers of Harvard College, a discussion was held upon a resolution which had been before the board for several weeks, that in the opinion of this board, the statutes making attendance on morning prayers and other religious exercises compulsory should be repealed. The board, by a strong vote, refused to adopt the resolution. But Mr. George Shiller, lately from Martinsburg, Blair Co., Pa., who had a cancerous growth on his nose, and who was advised the use of Peruna before a visit to a cancer hospital, was allowed to take that paracelsian remedy, and by its use for a very short time, was cured completely.—page 24 in the "Mills of Life"—got one from your druggist.
—There is living in Rockport, Maine, a man whose name spells the same backward as forward. It is Esrom Morse. He should take the surname Hannah for a middle name.
—Dr. Benson's Colery and Chamomile Pills for the cure of neuralgia are a success." Dr. G. P. Holman, Christianburg, Va. 50 cents, at druggists.
—Instead of being disposed to avoid discovery and notoriety, the man who has been supposed to be Number One is quite the reverse. He recently sent for the newspaper reporters to tell them he had nothing to say.
COLOURED AND COLD.—A young girl deeply regretted that she was so colorless and cold. Her face was too white, and her hands and feet felt as though the blood did not circulate. After one bottle of Hop Bitters had been taken she was the rosiest and healthiest girl in the town, with a vivacity and mental powers of mind gratifying to her friends.
—A will is on file in Virginia in which the testator makes the modest request that the executors bury him in the plainest manner possible by the side of my dear wives—whichever may be the most convenient."
—Mr. E. K. McCousky, Hellam, Pa. says: "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved me of dyspeptic symptoms and gave me refreshing sleep."
—An Irish priest who preached recently on the effect of a decision under the Land Act took for his text the words, "And the rent is made worse."
Alcock's Porous Plaster
CURE WHERE OTHER PLASTERS FAIL
TAKE NO OTHER OR YOU WILL BE DISAPPOINTED. ISSUED ON GLASSING.
ALCOCK'S.
PHILA., 303 NORTH THIRD ST.,
FEBRUARY 11, 1888.
I have been using Alcock's Porous Plaster for a number of years and always with marked benefit. I have been much troubled with muscular rheumatism; have been treated by five of our best physicians without receiving any relief whatever. I then used Alcock's Plaster on the parts affected and I can assure you the pain has almost entirely left me. I can recommend them to every one as the best plaster I have made. I have tried other kinds but found them worthless.

Weak Kidneys Cured.
CORTICOON, N. H.,
MAY 13, 1888.
I have been greatly troubled with rheumatism and weak kidneys. Was advised to try Alcock's Porous Plaster (had used two other kinds of so-called Porous Plasters, which did me no good), but one of your plasters worked like a charm, giving me complete relief, and I have not been troubled with Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint since using them, and I can side myself cured.
EDWARD D. BURHAM.
—The most glaring inconsistency of the age is that of a convict who protested against the chaplain of the prison because he was a Universalist, and then demanded the services of an old-fashioned Calvinist.
—An attractive, youthful appearance secured by using Parker's Hair Balm to all who are getting gray.
—"You just take a bottle of my medicine," said a quack doctor to a consumptive, "and you'll never cough again." "Is it as fatal as that?" gasped the consumptive.
—An English scientific gentleman, who is an ardent devotee of the development theory, has been peering into the future of the race, and discovered, as he imagines, that fifty generations hence the typical man will be hairless, toothless, web-footed, and averse from locomotion. Such being the case, and who of us dare withhold the development theory, how thankful we ought to be that we will not be here at that time.
—Already the season has produced several novelties in the base-ball line. A game has been played by electric light in the West. In Philadelphia a contest between a two-legged, one-armed nine and a two-armed, one-legged nine resulted in a victory for the former, who now claim the crumple championship of the world. A nine composed of colored women is nearly ready to enter the field. In New York a club has greatly increased its gate receipts by putting a famous pugilist on exhibition as pitcher. This idea might be carried farther. A nine made up of the wild Australian children as the battery, the transparent-headed baby as short stop, Zulus on the bases, and bearded women and living skeletons in the field, would go far toward satisfying even the strongest craving for novelty.
