It is then that one puts life and happiness in jeopardy. By using DAY's Soat the risk is overcome, as nothing but lukewarm water is used, or just warm enough to be comfortable to the hands. At the same time there is no steam to loosen the paper or plastering, no foul odors to make the house unhealthy and uncomfortable.

THINK OF IT I-Yours labors lessoned and your expenses decreased, be use this is an economical soap as well as laborsaving, and its remarkable lyent powers, combined with its perfect harmlessness and disinfectant prop-tics, render it i avaluable for household purposes and landry use. Its superi-ity over other Soaps is attested by many testimonials from leading Divines systeians, Hospitals, Asylums, etc. A wonderful discovery, but one that its stimed to have a remarkable future, and one that will revolutionize the ost dreaded of household duties.

A forfeit of $100 will be made if this Soap does not do all that is claimed for it. provided that it is used as the instructions read, and in that way only. Try a cake and tell your friends and neighbors of its virtues, and ask them to get a cake and try it.

The wrappers on DAY's SOAP are waxed paper. Use them for smoothing the sad irons; you will find them better and more cleanly than wax. Read the directions carefully, and follow them just as they are given. No other way will do.

Wash-day has no terrors for the household where DAX'S SOAP is used, no unpleasant and sickening odors to fill your houses, no laborious rubbing on the wash-board, while the washing can be done in one-half the time necessary by following the old worn-out method.

P. J. SHERRY.

The P. J. Sherry is a wine of Superior Char-acter and partakes of the rich qualities of the grape from which it is made. For Purity, Rich-ness of Flavor and Medicinal Properties, it will be found unexcelled.

SPEER'S

P. J. BRANDY.

This Brandy stands unrivalled in this country being far superior for medicinal purposes. It is a pure distillation from the grape, and contains valuable medicinal properties. I has a delicate flavor, similar to that of the grapes, from which it is distilled, and is in great favor among first-class families. See that the signature of ALFRED SPEER, Passie, N. J., is over the cork of each bottle.
