

BUTLER CITIZEN.
JOHN H. & W. C. NEBLEY, PROP'RS.
Entered at the Postoffice at Butler as second-class matter.
WEDNESDAY, AUG. 8, 1883.

Republican State Ticket.
For State Treasurer,
WM. LIVSEY, of Allegheny county.

For Auditor General,
JEROME B. NILES, of Tioga county.

Republican County Ticket.
For District Attorney,
SAMUEL B. SNYDER, of Butler.

For County Surveyor, B. F. HILLIARD, of Washington twp.

THE WAR among the wires was as wroth as ever.

GENERAL SHERMAN says that Washington city is full of "holloons, by-poority and snobbery."

WERE it not for the free passes it is doubtful if the Legislature would yet be in session.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR is on a pleasure trip to the West, taking in the Yellowstone Park and other points, and possibly doing a little "electioneering," as they say he wants to be a candidate for the next nomination for President.

WE believe our county has the only member at Harrisburg who stays constantly at his post. Mr. Donly has not been home here since he left us last December—now more than half a year.

CAPT. ZIEGLER, of this place, received 49 votes in the State Democratic Convention of last week for the Auditor General nomination, being as high a vote as that received by any other candidate on the first ballot.

CAREY, who turned states evidence and became informer against his fellows in some of the recent murders in Ireland, has himself been slain by an Irishman, O'Donnell, who is said to be a citizen of the United States.

THE Government at Washington decides very properly, that Hostetter's Bitters are made and used as a beverage, and not as a medicine, and should therefore be taxed. This decision applies to other so-called medicines.

A GRANDDAUGHTER of Robert Burns is, it is asserted, at present in receipt of relief from the London Scottish Corporation. Her name is Mrs. Fyffe.
She is the wife of a workman, who has, through no fault of his own, fallen into poverty, and is the daughter of the poet's eldest son Robert, who for some time was employed in the Somerset House.

It is related that Senator Edmunds, when urged to join a Congressional Church, requested to see the articles.
After several days deliberation he returned them, and agreed to become a member if 10 out of the 27 clauses were omitted, 6 modified and 3 new ones added. He is now a pewholder at the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany in Washington.

THE Democratic State Convention, that met in Harrisburg last week, nominated the Hon. Joseph Powell, of Bradford county, for State Treasurer and Capt. Robert Taggart, of Warren county for State Auditor General.
The usual string of resolutions were passed. The Convention was a rather tame affair. All present signs indicate the election of Niles and Livsey, the Republican candidates on the State ticket this year.

THE opinion of Ex-Chief Justice Black in the perjury case against Esq.
John Smith, was published last week as an advertisement. It would hardly be fair, therefore, to publish any adverse communications upon the opinion of the Judge. The matter is pretty well understood now and as the case is still pending before the courts it may be better for all concerned to avoid any further public discussion until a final decision is made by the courts.

THE Republicans of this State are united this year and therefore victory is assured this fall. The prudent nominations made from each branch of the party, and the manner of their nomination, have healed up the ranks. Mr.
Niles, the nominee for Auditor General, was one of the leading Independents in the State and always opposed boss rule in the State. There is no dissatisfaction in any quarter. A few may want to keep up old feuds, thinking it may benefit them, but such are the very ones the people will set down upon the first opportunity. They are not of much account so far, but will be watched closely.

THE Governor has not as yet signed the bill restricting the State into Judicial districts. It is generally believed, however, that he will.

There has as yet been no agreement between the two Houses as to the other bills, the Congressional and Senatorial bills being apparently as far from being passed as ever. Recent advices indicate that an Assembly district bill may be passed, as there is less difficulty about that part of the work than the others. The Senate generally refuses to receive or consider any new offers or propositions from the House, and does not seem inclined to make any new ones on its part. This policy may result in making a mistake. The duty of a legislator is to legislate, if legislation is required. Acting in a representative capacity there cannot very properly be any "last offers," or saying by any party "take this or get nothing." We have hope yet that this long session will not be ended until its work is altogether finished.

The Chief Justice of England, Lord Coleridge, is coming on a visit to the United States, to see our great country.

If our correspondents can have their communications reach us by Monday mail it will oblige us and more likely insure their insertion that week.

With the influx of pauper immigration at New York, the people of the rural districts in all the States may look for the army of beggars. New York will make every effort to scatter these homeless and impoverished wretches West and South, so that every town will be afflicted with beggars whose language few if any will understand and whose wants will include all the necessities of life with shelter added.

The Western Union Telegraph Company, it is charged by the New York Herald, on about $20,000,000 actual investment, has watered its stock up to $80,000,000, and is dividing ten per cent on this inflated value, or really 40 per cent on the actual investment. Yet it is too selfish to give the force upon their intelligent laborers. It is like many other companies that have watered their stock, the workers must suffer that big dividends may be made.

HANNIBAL HAMLIN's method of writing while in the Senate is graphic-
the next nomination for President.

WORK AT HARRISBURG.
Riding Roughshod Over the House.

HARRISBURG, Aug. 2.—A most disgraceful scene was enacted in the House to-day. At the conclusion of a long speech by Mr. Thompson, of Beaver, on American's resolution to refer the subject of legislative apportionment to a free committee of conference, the Speaker, who had tired of the tedious-ness of the speech, called Hines, of Luzerne, to the chair and retired.
When Mr. Thompson sat down, at 12:35 o'clock, Mr. Gavitt, of Philadelphia, sought the floor to reply, but the Chair refused to recognize him, and proceeded to put the question on the resolution thus:

The question is on the adoption of the resolution of the gentleman from Lackawanna. All in favor will say aye, all opposed will say no; the ayes have it and the resolution is adopted.
The next business in order is the consideration on first reading of bill No.
10, apportioning the State into Congressional districts. The Clerk will proceed to read the bill.

It must be remembered that all this time Mr. Gavitt was repeating his call "Mr. Speaker! Mr. Speaker!" while every moment new voices were being added to those loudly protesting against the conduct of the chair. But Hines paid no attention until the clerk was nearly through the reading, which he could follow on account of the noise, and then he turned his face toward the Republican side and with a contemptuous expression of the face shouted, "You can't bulldoze anybody here."

KEEPING UP THE DIX.
Still Gavitt's demand for a hearing went on, amid the loud protests of the Republicans and some Democrats, and still Hines refused to recognize the call.
As soon as Clerk Maconkey's voice ceased at the end of the reading Hines began again: "The bill has been read.
Will the House agree to it on first reading? Those in favor will say aye, those opposed will say no." It agreed to. And yet the cries "Mr. Speaker," and the protests were going on, when a stentorian voice was heard to say, "I move we adjourn." "It is moved and seconded," said Hines, "that this House do now adjourn. All in favor say aye; the ayes have it, and this House stands adjourned."

As Hines came down from the Speaker's chair he was surrounded by a tumultuous, excited crowd of members of both parties. It is reported that he applied some obscene epithets to Mr. Gavitt and a fistie encounter was only prevented by members crowding between them.

Political Points.
CALAMITY WELLER, the Iowa Greenbacker, declared in a recent speech:
"I know as a fact that I can get more of Heaven in fifteen minutes with three straight drunks of whiskey than any other way I know of. I know it because I have tried it."

DEMOCRATS all over the Commonwealth are trembling with fear at the rumor that some of their statesmen at Harrisburg are preparing to sell the party out on the apportionment question. This is strange, in view of the confidence which the Democracy professes in its own integrity.—Philadelphia Press.

THE Savannah News, the organ of Democracy in Southern Georgia, complains that the Democratic party has been controlled by a minority, so that its ablest statesmen are proscribed from being aspirants for the Presidency. It can see no reason why the South should not present a candidate for the Presidency from that section.

THE New York Public, a sound conservative financial journal, points out that the "Pennsylvania plan" of distributing the Federal surplus, if any, among the States is probably the only way in which public education can be raised to the safety level in many States too poor or too stingy to levy taxes adequate to the support of schools.

GRANTING that Dorsey's charges against Garfield are true; what do they prove? That Garfield fell among the thieves—and by thieves! He made pledges to these harpies, he was justified in breaking them; but the people will require the word of some one who is not a notorious thief and liar before they will believe that the martyr President made any such promises. The whole thing simply uncovers the inconsistency of Stalwartism.—Greenville News.

THE Philadelphia Times has this important news about Mr. Tilden, which looks authentic:
1. Mr. Tilden will gladly accept the nomination for the Presidency—if he can get it.
2. He will write one of the best political epistles, to be read in Convention, declining the nomination—if he can't get it.
3. He will continue to maintain his present proclaimed indifference about Presidential nomination, and prove that he doesn't care a button about it, —doing his level best to bunch a Tilden majority in convention.

The foregoing three points cover the whole ground of Mr. Tilden's attitude on the Presidency, and all other reports are bogus. Copyright not applied for.

The Old and the New.
Just now may be seen the tearing down of one of the buildings in what has long been known as "Dougal's row," in this place. It is the one in which Mr. Dougal lived for many years. It was peculiar in its construction, having an angular chimney in the center, in which were four fire places ending in one flue. L. Z. Mitchell, Esq., the present owner, is removing it for the purpose of erecting a fine building of more modern style and size. With a building on that corner of the Diamond, such as Mr. Mitchell will doubtless erect, and then a similar one on the opposite corner, our Court House will be better supported and appear to better advantage. While there is sense of almost reverence connected with the house in which Mr. Dougal so long lived, yet the spirit of the times and the progress of improvement require that old things should give way and make place for new ones. Our citizens will therefore warmly approve of the purpose of Mr. Mitchell in this matter.

COMMUNICATIONS.
Bruin Items.

We know not how it may be in other townships, but suppose it much like it is in this, that we farmers have been led off "on a switch," on the subject of manures, taking up with patent fertilizers and phosphates, when a much richer article even than guano is provided for us in the limestone rock and the coal to burn it, in abundance. It will "far beat" any fertilizer we know of for durability—lasting in the ground. We limed some ground three years ago and the limed ground, although worked every year, is in as good condition today or better than the year it was limed, as the soil is said of phosphates.
We like to see farmers use fertilizers, but experience proves that lime plentifully used, and give what vegetable you can, far exceeds patent plasters, and the ease with which it can be obtained, and the same outlay of cash, in this township at least, ought to weigh heavily in favor of the lime theory.
Lime is abundant and more lime limestone is so abundant and where we have such fields of coal.

We would be glad to have the County Sabbath School Association give the programme in the county papers, and date and place of holding it. Have heard it was to be in North Washington, on the 6th and 7th of September.
Is this correct? If so let all friends of Sunday school work in the county attend.

We will miss our friend J. W.
Watters, the blacksmith, who is gone with family to Bradford to live. A chance is now open for a good smith to locate permanently in Bruin. One that can do general work of all kinds for farmers, etc., preferred. As Mr.
Watters was more of a machinist smith than for general work.

We notice the sign at the Hall has the name all daubed and dotted; the parties must have intended that the name "Martinsburg" should be entirely obliterated from the town of Bruin or any of its sign boards.

Rev. T. M. Thompson, of Freeport, favored his old congregation, on Sabbath, with a discourse that lacked nothing of the old time fervor, nor were the people lacking in their old time interest.

That church walk is not built yet, but we presume it soon will be and by way of a hint it would be a good time before the weather and muddy roads close for the people in town to repair the sidewalks, as many places need it very badly.

A good thing ought to be told and the people here say that "THE CITIZEN" is the best county paper published in this county," that is some satisfaction if nothing more.

Visiting Friends.
—Rev. John Graham, now stationed at Manheim, Lancaster county, Pa., is home here at present on a visit to his mother and friends.

—Mrs. Eleanor Graham, wife of Dr.
Graham, who had been visiting friends in Venango county for a while past, returned home last week.

—Geo. Walter Ziegler, Esq., and wife, now of Sunbury, Northumberland county, Pa., were back on a visit to their old home here last week.

—David H. Jack, Esq., now in the successful practice of the law at Bradford, Pa., is at present here on a visit to his parents and friends.

—R. L. Corbett, Esq., of Clarion, Pa., was in town last week on professional business.

—Mrs. C. Rabe, of Allegheny county, has been visiting her mother here, Mrs. Charles C. Sullivan, for some days past.

—Robert McClung, Esq., of Fairview twp., who recently made a visit to his home in Venango county, returned last week much pleased with his visit and the Western country he was through.

—Henry M. Wise, of Harmony, spent a day in town last week on business terms.

—Mr. J. F. Brandon, who formerly lived near Portersville, this county, and removed to Garnett, Kansas, where he is engaged in business, is here at present. He is a nephew of "Squire Pringle of this place, with whom he is stopping."

Death of General Ord.
Col. E. O. C. Ord, of the U. S. Army, died in Havana, Cuba, on the 22d ult., of yellow fever, aged 65 years. In the fall of 1861, Gen. Ord was assigned to the command of a brigade of the Pen-sylvania Reserves. He afterwards succeeded to the command of a corps, and was found to be a good soldier in every situation in which he was placed.

General Grant says of him: "Ord was a man of genius and some eccentricities. He was honorable in all his dealings, and high-toned in every sense. General Ord was endowed with marked aptitude for mechanics, and had not been a soldier, no doubt would have become a first-class mechanical genius. He married late in life, and leaves his wife in destitute circumstances. Two of his sons are in the army, and one of his daughters married a prominent Mexican, and one an American officer. The remainder are of minor age."
The War Department is informed that the body of the late General has been embalmed, and will remain in Lima until autumn, when it will be brought here.

To Celebrate Luther's Birthday.
BRILIN, Aug. 2.—Eberhard William has directed that the 400th birthday of Martin Luther be observed by all Protestant schools. The students of the universities will celebrate, at Erfurt, on August 8, the entry of Luther into that town.

MCCOLLOUGH—In Muldrevock township, this county, Aug. 6th, 1883, Mrs. C. McCollough, wife of Mr. C. McCollough, deceased, aged 80 years.

EDMONSON—At her residence in Prospect on July 28th, in the 74th year of her age, Mrs.
Christina C. wife of Mr. W. Edmonson, a daughter of the late Mr. John Edmonson.

Mrs. Edmonson was of a kind, loving disposition, and was a favorite with all her youthful companions and in her married relations was a loving wife and a thoughtful mother.

She was a member of the Lutheran Church of Prospect and during her sickness which lasted about 6 months her piety shone forth conspicuously in her firm trust in Christ and in Christian patience and resignation to the divine will. While human affection had its struggles to part with her devoted husband and her two little children in faith she could commend them to the care of the Good Shepherd in the confident expectation that their parting would only be for a little while when they would be united on that better shore where there is no more parting, sickness, pain or death.

Many friends mourn her loss, but they knew not as those who have no hope, for they believe that what is their loss is her eternal gain.

SACRED
To the memory of Margaret, beloved wife of Henry H. Galt, of Cherry township, who departed this life July 27, aged 42 years, and was interred at West Sunbury, U. P. Church July 29, 1883, at her late residence.

Dear wife from now on earth are over, Your sufferings now on earth are over,
You have gone where sorrow cannot follow,
To Heaven, the faithful Christian's home.

Four children left in worldly care,
The youngest one I loved sincere; I'll forget the father never more,
But hope they all may come to me.
Grieve not, dear husband, I am at rest; Grieve not, I've left a world of care To meet my God; to follow me prepare.

Husband and children dry your tears,
For you I've labored many years, I always strive to do my best,
But now I'm gone to take my rest.

A loving mother she has been;
Many friends mourn her loss, as well,
But now she's left all earthly care,
With Christ, her Savior for to dwell.
