> Fruit Rendered Imperishable. To those who have had the privilege of examining the results of the new process of preserving fruit of all kinds discovered by Mrs. Burt, of East Palestine, Ohio, the above statement will not seem like an exaggeration. Heretofore the perfect preservation of fruit for any considerable length of time has been an unsolved problem, although its solution would have been of inestimable benefit to the human race. The only methods of preserving fruit employed in times past required considerable skill and practice to undertake, and at best was only moderately successful. The result of these imperfect methods was much unavoidable waste and loss, and unwholesome food, which unnecessarily contained the seeds of disease. The object has always been to secure some process by which fruit could be preserved for an indefinite length of time, and retain, not only its natural appearance, but its flavor and healthgiving qualities. This object has apparently been fully attained by Mrs. Burt. The new process is simple, easily applied, and surprisingly effective. We have been shown specimen jars of peach, pears, cherries, strawberries, oranges, lemons, and even eggs, which, al-To those who have had the privilege of e ingly effective. We have been shown specimen jars of peach, pears, cherries, strawberries, oranges, lemons, and even eggs, which, although unopened for from one to three years, were as perfect in appearance and in flavor as when closed; the strawberries especially looked as if they had just been plucked from the vine. Mr. L. E. Hays is now canvassing this State and county for this process, and has already received many testimonials of which we copy the following:

Messrs. DAY & FRICK.

Genilemen:—Having used DAY'S SOAP for some months past as a disinfectant in small-pox, with the best results, not having a second case in any house where it was used, i will cheerfully endorse and recommend its use as a disinfectant it was used, it will cheerfully endorse CONSTANTINE HERING, M. D., in small pox. Messrs. Day & Frick.

Mourt Vernon, N. Y., March 3d, 1881.

Dear Sirs:—I have used Day's Soap with results that delighted not only myself, but some of my neighbors who called to see it. I suffer much from catarrh, which is aggravated by the heat and steam of boiling clothes. Now, however, by using Day's Soap, I escape the evil effects of the steam from boiling soda.
Wash-day I have no discomfort, and far less work, without any hard rubbing.
One cake of your Soap does the washing for eight in my family for two weeks washes, and the clothes are whiter, sweeter and better than by any other process. I have abolished the wash-boiler, and shall use it no more. I find your Soap to be, by far, the cheapest and best, and would feel it a hardship to be obliged to use any other.

MRS. MARY C. ST. CLAIR.

PHILADELPHIA, May 14th, 1882. Messrs. Day & Frick.

Gentlemen:—Having for several months used in our family "Day's Cele-Brated Soap," and having, as we believed, tested it thoroughly, we do not hesitate to pronounce it superior to any Soap we have ever used. We therefore most heartly recommend it to all who would save labor and time in performing the arduous duties of the household. We find this Soap especially adapted for all donnestic purposes, and fully entitled to the high claim made for it. No family can afford to be without it, and a fair trial, according to the directions, will confirm our opinion.

Very truly yours.

CHAS, H. THOMAS, Pastor of Frankford Avenue Baptist Church, Phila.

Save your time, Save your patience By using this Soap No empleasant exe No sickness as he result of a barr day's wash. No hot water. No wash beiler but clothes nice and white and as fra

rant as new mown

Save your health, for it. Wash-day has no terrors for the household where DAY'S SOAP is used, no unpleasant and sickening odors to fill your houses, no laborious rubbing on the wash-board, while the washing can be done in one-half the time necessary by following the old worn-out method. MADAM—for it is to the ladies we desire to speak more especially—you are the interested person in this matter; you it is that suffers the ills arising from the wash tub and its heavy cares; you it is to whom the perplexities and responsibilities of the household rightfully belong, and you it is that should interest yourself in a trial of the qualities of this soap, that has always proven itself to be a boon of salvation

TO SUFFERING HUMANITY. We do not come to you with a plausible story calculated to have you try it, simply for the amount of money such a sale would bring us; we do not come to you as irresponsible parties, who have no reputation to suffer calumny, but we do present to you this brand of soap upon an absolute guarantee and recommendation of a well-known industrial establishment of Philadelphia, of sixteen years' existence. Do you suppose for a moment it would compensate us to make false statements to you and ruin our well-earned reputation? No, dear reader; what we say about DAY'S SOAP is the truth, and it is sustained by the evidences of thousands of housewives from all over the country; besides which we stand ready to endorse it all with ready cash. DAY'S SOAP is the Original and Only Patented. DAY'S SOAP (Will clean the Miners' Skin and Clothes. Will clean the Machinists' Skin and Clothes. Will clean the Machinists' Skin and Clothes. Will clean Everybody's Skin and Clothes.

Is there not economy in the use of Soap that will clean the skim as well as the clothes? this Day's Soap will surely do. It will in no way injure the finest fabrics or the most delicate complexions. No soda, no washing crystals, no lyes are to be used, but simply supply yourself for the next wash-day with a bar of DAY'S SOAP, then carefully read the directions and follow them to the exact letter, and if you don't say pitch out that old wash-boiler, for I am a wiser woman, you will be the first person we have yet heard of that has been disappointed.

Now remember—If you don't intend to follow the directions do not try the soap at all, for unless you do this you will be disappointed, and then you will scold us and yourself as well. The cost of one cake will convince you that it is the best and cheapest soap ever offered you, while the smiles that will encircle your brow will do justice to a golden sunset. Have you confidence in this newspaper? If so, do you suppose the owner would allow us to swindle his readers by offering them tempting inducements? He uses it in his own home, and can certify to its merits. Now you get a cake from your grocer in time for the next wash-day, and become acquainted with its intrinsic worth. Ask your grocer for it, and do not allow him to put you off with anything else for a substitute, for every dealer can obtain it, and should he refuse you, send direct to
